

JUNE 1981: Three "generations" of Paisley postmasters find lots to talk about as another retiring member is honoured. Jack Worthington, far right, retired Friday after 18 years as the village's postmaster. Winona McTeer, as employee at the post office for 13 years, is now postmaster, Herb Barnett, who occupied the position for 37 yers.

Reeve Andy Cormack accepted a plaque and guide from Joe Christie of Paisley, Scotland. The gifts are part of an ongoing gesture of friendship between the two communities. There was a special reason for his visiting the village. As a resident of Paisley, Scotland district council in that country asked him to deliver a plaque to their Canadian namesake.

JULY 1981: let Tender for Ross Street Bridge to Lobby Builders of Dublin, Ontario for $80,000.00, and purchased a one ton truck from Bud Rier for $9,629.00.

JULY 2, 1981-8 p.m.: The village bell tolled in memory of Terry Fox, the one legged runner who attempted to run across Canada, in an effort to raise money for Cancer Research.

NOVEMBER 27, 1981: The Tanner family, children of the late Jack and Marjorie Tanner, ranging in age from 12 to 20, were left homeless when their home on Queen Street North was gutted with smoke and water damage. A Benefit Hockey Game for the family was held between Owen Sound Mercurys and the Southampton Mariners.
