

Village History cont'd.

In June 1981 a sod turning ceremony marked the start of Paisley's Flood Control -- a project of the Saugeen Valley Conservation Area.

Pictures 1 and 2 show the beginning and the end result of an earthen dike along the Teeswater River, upriver from the Queen Street bridge.

