

SBV17

Very Worshipful Brother Art Miller, who was Worshipful Master of Port Elgin Lodge No. 49 in 1934, was honoured for having been 50 years as Past Master. Rt. Wor. Bros. Lindsay Thornburn, who was initiated by Very Wor. Bro. Miller in 1934 favoured the lodge with his reminiscence from this period. Above, Mr. Miller is flanked by Lindsay Thornburn and Worshipful Master of Port Elgin Lodge, Barrie Robson, during a 50-year pin award presentation.

Woodrow (Woody) Muir has been chosen overwhelmingly by the people of Port Elgin as the 1985 Citizen of the Year. Lions Club member Brian Eastwood presented Woody with a plaque last week to commemorate this honour. A resident of Port Elgin since 1920, Woody has helped in numerous community projects, including the Bluewater School. The award is given out annually by the Port Elgin Lions Club.

March 1985

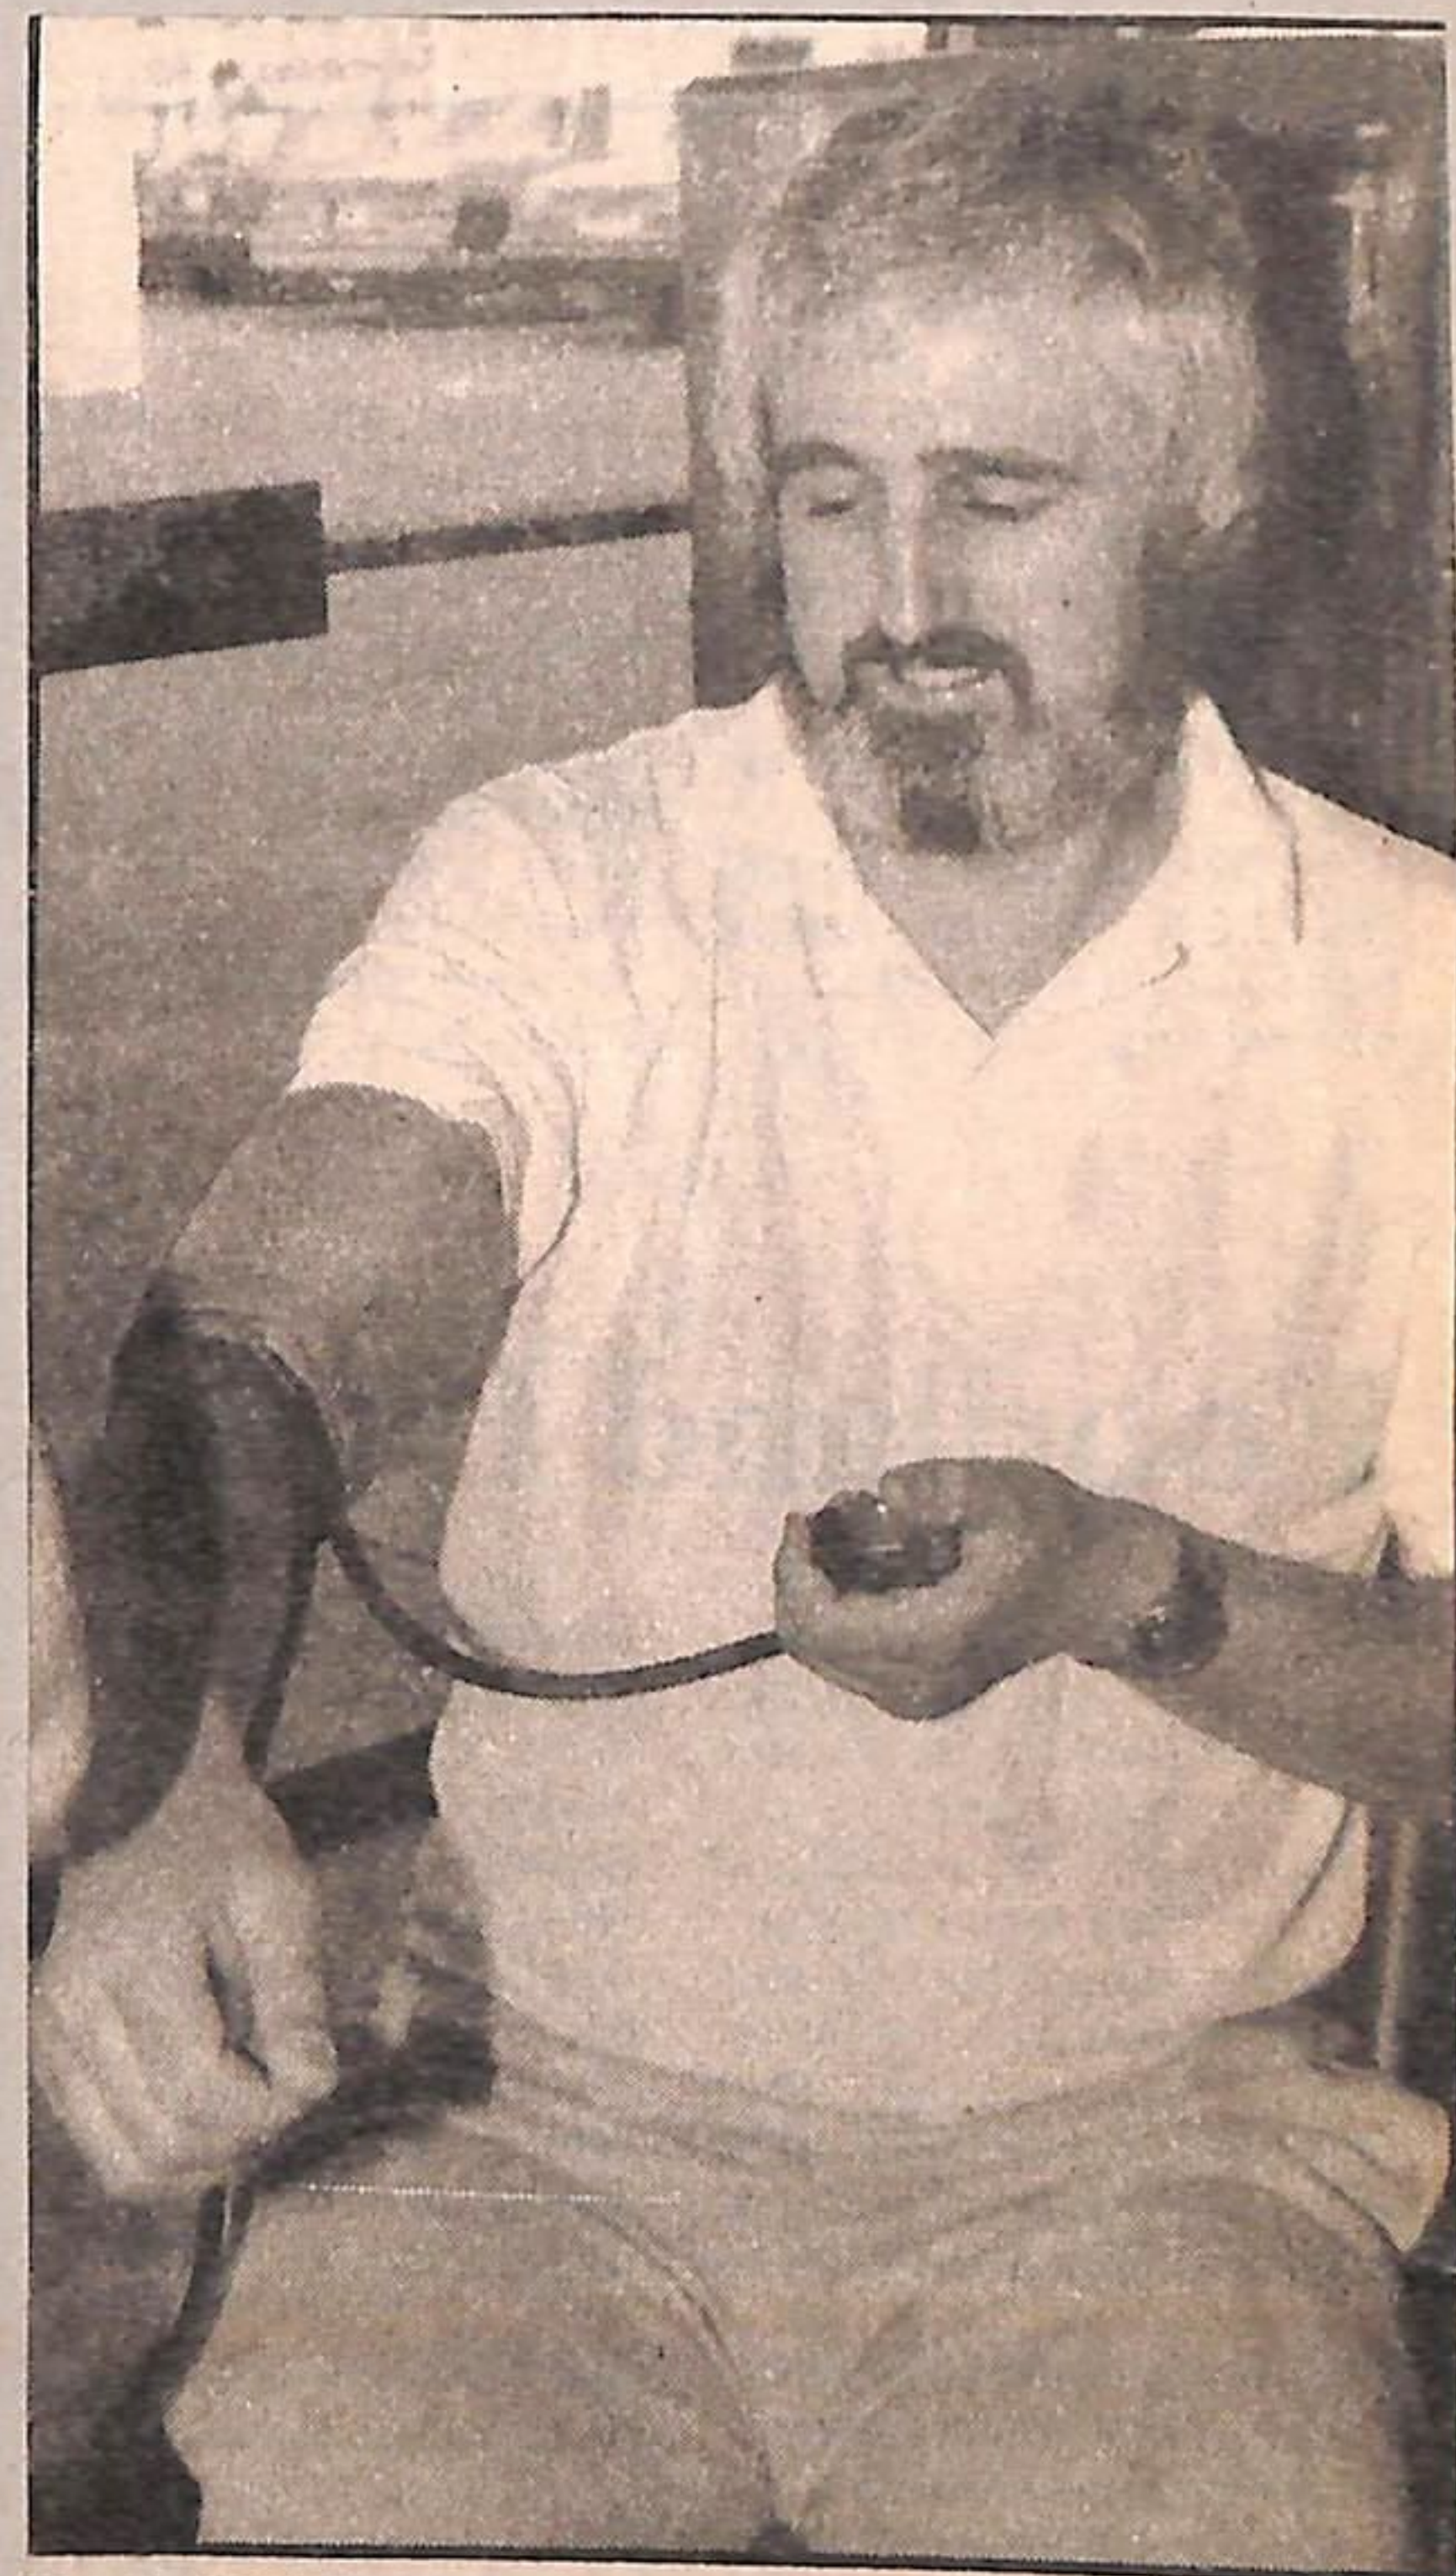

Sun Times photo by Wib Schwichtenberg

LOCAL HELP COMING —Response in Port Elgin to a request from the local ministerial society for clothing and linens for Grand Valley tornado victims was excellent.

Volunteers packed donations Sunday and Peter Little Sr., who organized the effort, was to drive the supplies to Grand Valley this morning.

June 1/85

Hugh Wright watches as Mrs. M. Kelly takes his blood pressure as part of Nurses Week last Thursday night. The nurses had an information booth and were taking the public's blood pressure at no charge in the lobby, outside of Zehrs, as part of the week's activities.

May 1985