

AUGUST—Health.

Home—Mrs. James Wallace.
Motto—Give peace in our time, Oh Lord.
Roll Call—Doses and Dents in a sick room.
Paper and Discussion—Improvements I would like to see in our village.
Talk—Inoculation.

SEPTEMBER—Citizenship.

Home—Mrs. John Smith.
Motto—Never leave off till tomorrow what you can do today.
Roll Call—A verse or poem from an old school book.
Paper—To be a good citizen.
Display and recipe for home-made pickles.
Hostess—Mrs. John Smith.

OCTOBER—Historical Research.

Home—Mrs. Lewis Emon.
Motto—Friendship supplies the place of everything to those who know how to make the right use of it.
Roll Call—A community historical event.
Talk—Old fashioned costumes.
Paper—Mrs. Lewis Emon.
Contest—Cookies.
Hostess—Mrs. L. Emon.

NOVEMBER—Social Welfare.

In Hall.
Motto—He lives best who serves most.
Roll Call—Memories of school days.
Paper and Talk—Subject, Social Welfare.
An Exchange of Apron Patterns.
Question Box.
Hostess—Miss E. Box and Mrs. E. McIntyre.

DECEMBER—Publicity.

Home—Mrs. Erwin McIntyre.
Motto—With bounteous cheer conclude the year.

Roll Call—A Christmas message.
Paper—Subject, Publicity.
Talk on the Motto—Mrs. G. Stoughton.
Exchange of Christmas Gifts.
Donation to Children's Shelter.
Sing Song—Christmas Carols.
Hostess—Mrs. E. McIntyre.

JANUARY—Canadian Industries and Agriculture.

Home—Mrs. Gordon Stoughton.
Motto—Oh Canada, glorious and free. Mrs. Craig.
Roll Call—Name an industry of Renfrew County.
Paper—Cold storage of fruits and vegetables.
Contest—Naming grain and grass seed.

FEBRUARY—International Relations.

Home—Mrs. Douglas Stoughton.
Motto—The Institute creed.
Roll Call—A Valentine verse.
Story—St. Valentine.
Spelling Match.
Paper—International Relations.
Programme—Planned later.
Hostess—Mrs. D. Stoughton.

MARCH—

Home—Miss Edna Box.
Motto—Faith can be a candle in the darkest night.
Miss E. Box.
Roll Call—My favorite sandwich filling.
Paper—Subject, Community Activities.
Quiz—Mrs. E. McIntyre.
Hostess—Miss E. Box. |

APRIL—Canadianization.

Home—Miss Mary Braden.
Motto—May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.
Roll Call—Suggestions for next years programme.