

June 9, 1980

Ripley WI sponsors successful tea

Ripley Women's Institute sponsored a tea, with all proceeds for the Kincardine and District Hospital Auxiliary, on June 9 in the Ripley Legion Hall which was donated by the Legion.

Grace Peet, Donalda McLean and later Zelda Hedley received at the door. The theme of the tea was "For Home and Country" and Mrs. Minnie Lock was convener. Annie Culbert and Violet MacKenzie were in charge of admission and the Raffle tickets.

A lovely needlepoint picture made and donated by Grace Peet was won by Mrs. Schuler of Bervie. The lucky ticket was drawn by Mrs. Beulah Lindall of London. Helen Van Der Glas displayed several needlepoint articles which were made during the course held earlier with Grace Peet assisting her. A bake table was supervised by Annie Scott. Zeld Hedley and Florence Kirkpatrick. Waitresses were Peg Chapelle, Margaret Scott, Christene Robertson, Mary Cook and Olwyn MacAuley.

Kitchen help were Amelia Cumming, Minnie Lock, Mary (Donnie) McDonald and Margaret Gemmell.

Ladies pouring tea at tables were Mrs. Cornish, Mary Pollock, Norma MacLennan, Adeline Martyn, Minnie Wylds, Utha Culbert, Mrs. Gillies, Frances Nugent and Mary (John A.) McDonald.

Approximately $290 was presented to the Hospital Auxiliary.

Oct 1, 1980

Sylvia Abbot, president of the Ladies Auxiliary to Kincardine and District General Hospital, right, presents Grace Peet, president of the Ripley Women's Institute, left, with a certificate of appreciation acknowledging the institute's support of hospital activities since 1904 and especially the institute's cooperation with the auxiliary since 1966. Minnie Lock, the WI's liaison with the auxiliary, looks on.

acknowledging the institute's support of hospital activities since 1904 and especially the institute's cooperation with the auxiliary since 1966. Minnie Lock, the WI's liaison with the auxiliary, looks on.

June 19, 1979 Ripley W. I. presented the school spirit award to Kathy Boyd, our first time to present this award, which we hope will be an annual event. Contributed by our President.

Ripley W. I. 75th Anniversary Tea in Legion Hall above, dressed in 20th Century costume, is Mrs Earl Lohnes