Oct. 24th 1914. Steman Out.

A meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs Longhurst, on Oct 24th. It was hoped there would be enough members out to hold a regular meeting, but unfortunately the attendance was too small to constitute a meeting, so it was decided to hold the regular meeting on the usual day, Nov. 7th at the home of Mrs E. J. Ryan.
In spite of the small turnout, considerable business was despatched. The chief item of business, was the deciding what disposal should be made of the waste paper, sold now, collected during the summer, but the matter was left over for the next meeting.
