

"opening ode" reading of minutes etc. the matter of the quilt was brought up, & Mrs Longhurst said it had been an impossibility to procure ~~the~~ suitable material for the quilt, as the season for sewing was getting over. it was decided to drop the matter for the time being.

Mrs Longhurst then read several interesting letters from soldiers at the front & in Eng. thanking the ladies of Sleeman & Blue for boxes sent at Christmas. The arrangements were made for holding a meeting in June when the annual visit from the W. I. representative takes place. The Pinewood branch then held their meeting, after which Mrs Ryan served a very dainty tea & Miss M Sleeman rendered several pleasing selections of music during the afternoon, & a vote of thanks was tendered to her & also the hostess. before the members departed for their various homes.
