Mr Harvey Gamble, youngest son of Mr and Mrs George Gamble, of Waldemar was appointed to the Amaranth Council in 1957 and became Reeve in 1961. In May of 1962, following the death of Mr Oliver Ewing, he was offered the clerkship . which office he held until he retired in August of 1973.

Pictured with the Clerk in his office in the Municipal Buildings on the fifth line of Amaranth, is his part-time secretary, Mrs Gloria Byers.

After leaving their farm ,the former Gamble homestead on the ninth line ,Mr and Mrs Gamble bought the cottage formerly owned by Rev. J.A. Ross, a former minister in the Presbyterian church in the village. This photo shows the house following renovation by the Gambles. In 1973 they built a new home on the outskirts of the village.

The Gambles have three children: Grant in business in Toronto, Gail, the <sup>West</sup> Royal Bank manager in Millsburg, and George, a High School teacher in Guelph.
