

Canadian Press

March 14. — Some On-experienced floods tos hoped that, cooler st for tonight would of stream levels caused ainfall and a sudden

Long Branch, Etobicoke
the rampage, breaking ortly before noon tem-ned 40 families, who in row boats. Some ar the creek stayed up ous less a flash flood rove furniture at short water flooded highway lar Village near Perth ario, the highway deed.

River rose three feet at overnight but there apo immediate danger of moving out and the g very nicely," the city rtment said. "Two or ches of rain—half an night—would make us

at Chatham rose a foot ht and this afternoon above its normal level. ents saw possibility of e run-off from district ams starts.

Better Roads Routes

rove the condition of ghout the city were ad-ay afternoon at a meet-ic Utilities Commission ning by R. B. Chandler, er. that some roads

LIVING IN FEAR

(Continued From Page One)

source said China was not likely to agree to participate.

(In Nanking, the foreign office announced refusal to participate.)

The impression was growing strongly that Soviet and American competition for world leadership was boiling down to naked power diplomacy in which China, Greece or Turkey, are or may become points of conflict such as eastern Europe has long been.

SCHREIBER SEARCH

(Continued From Page One)

ate their meals were unwashed dishes.

Grant, formerly of Toronto, and Duchesneau, Quebec City, have been missing since last Christmas. A search for their whereabouts was instigated last month by a relative of Grant's in Toronto. Up to that time residents of Schreiber, who became accustomed to seeing the men in town, presumed the two men had moved.

Brought back from Regina by Inspector Kelly and Constable Drackley last week, Charles Martin, 35, formerly of Vancouver, has been mentioned in connection with the disappearance of the two men. He faces a charge of forgery uttered at Schreiber. In a brief appearance in Magistrate's Court here last Saturday he was remanded one week without plea.

THE WEATHER MAP

Yesterday:

	Min.	Max.
Dawson	10	50
Victoria	44	57
Vancouver	43	51
Edmonton	11	30
Calgary	11	39

Several subscriptions tod-the campaign total of the Red Cross Society to $ drive, now in its second we objective of $18,000. Am-donations today were: F Fruit Co. Ltd., $100, and the Technical and Comm-School, $74.67.

AT FORT WILLIAM

Today's Red Cross camp-at Fort William is $3,632. T contributions from Fitzsim-Co., $100; Fort William $75; Gerry Hardware, $75;
$50; Kam Motors Co. staff Grain Inspection departmof Grain Commissioners, $6

HOT-DOG STALLS

(Continued from Page One)

as restaurants, and if so, the line to be drawn and ho-to be licensed?

Dr. E. V. Anten, chairm-board, replied that the is-clear. Either the law woul-ed or licenses would not If such businesses were mushroom all over the city soon would be "cluttered peddlers, pop-corn stands, blacks." The better business spent several hundreds of plumbing facilities deserved he said.

Potato chip stands and s-mertime businesses were b-the question before the res-prepared to embody "all busparing and serving food for Allowance was made for booths, in which regard it

They'll Do

Supplies