

MONDAY, AUG. 24th

10.30 a.m., Sermon Dr. Peck, Buffalo

2.30 p.m., Lecture, "The Church of the Future," Rev. J. H. Vincent, D.D.

7.30 p.m., Sermon Rev. E. H. Dewart, D.D.

TUESDAY, AUG. 25th

10.30 a.m., Sermon J. A. McLellan, LL.D.
Toronto

2.30 p.m., Lecture—"Life and Light," . . Rev. Dr. G. W. Peck
Following close upon the grand and noble baccalaureate discourse of President Bruner, of Abingdon College, on "Work," came the lofty, classical and scholarly views of PRESIDENT GEORGE W. PECK on the still grander, higher and holier labors of the mind. Old men and maidens, young men and matrons, were litted out of themselves, as the orator proceeded, and placed on a higher plain.--ABINGDON EXPRESS

7.30 p.m., Sermon Rev. S. J. Hunter, Hamilton

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 26th

10.30 a.m., Sermon, "Counsel to Inquirers," Rev. W. J. Maxwell

2.30 p.m., Lecture J. A. McLellan, LL.D.

7.30 p.m., Sermon, "Salvation for all," Rev. H. C. Iglehart
Buffalo, N.Y.

THURSDAY, AUG. 27th

10.30 a.m., Sermon Special Arrangement

2.30 p.m. Lecture Alex. Burns, D.D., LL.D.

7.30 p.m., Sermon—"The Characteristics of True Piety," Rev.
Wm. Cochrane, D.D., Brantford.

FRIDAY, AUG. 28th

10.30 a.m., Sermon, "Spiritual Forces," . . Rev. W. W. Carson
Hamilton.

2.30 p.m., Lecture—"Luther, the Thunderbolt," . . Rev. J. O.
Peck, D.D., New Haven, Conn.

Seldom has it fallen to our lot to listen to such an eloquent lecture as the one delivered by the Rev. Dr. Peck. It was not only a success, but a brilliant, eloquent, truthful, exhilarating discourse, one of the best, if not THE best ever delivered in our worthy and ancient city.--
ALEXANDIA, VA.

7.30 p.m., Sermon, "The Divine mode of reaching the Fallen,"
Chaplain Searls, D.D., Auburn, N.Y.