ADVERTISING RATES. One column, 1 year, $50; half col., do., $27; quarter col., do., $15.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

We require money to meet a heavy payment on the first day of January. We must have four hundred dollars, and it is only with your assistance that we can get it.

To our trustees and best friends who pay in advance, we would respectfully make the request that they make it convenient to bring in their dollar for next year on or before Jan. 1.

See the inducements elsewhere. W. H. THURSTON.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

Matters municipal in this township are becoming somewhat disturbed, and there are visions of a warm encounter in the distance. Our war horse smells blood and is now prancing around for information.

With regard to the councillors, their field is also somewhat plowed up with rumors. Mr. Cairns has positively decided that he will not be a candidate for re-election.

The December session of Grey County Council was held in Owen Sound last week.

Meaford Road.

From our own Correspondent.

There came to the residence of Mr. R. Buchanan last week, a little helpless girl. Usual result—recipients glad.

Mr. J. Dodds, Markdale, has had a gang of men at work here for some time making square timber.

There has been a good deal of excitement over a mineral find on Mr. J. Graham's farm, in the valley, of which more anon.

Mr. D. Graham's sale came off on the 4th, and was well attended.

Sunday's thunder storm and soft weather has finished up the sleighing for the present.

Mrs. James Brodie is away visiting her mother near Woodstock.

Mount Zion.

From our own Correspondent.

Let me first call your attention to our last communication, there being a slight mistake in reference to the grain buyers at Proton Station, being Nelson & Bros. instead of Wilson & Bros.

The Advance wants more subscribers in this vicinity.

Mr. Robert Cornfield has been home on a visit to his father's, Mr. James Cornfield.

The rain storm on sabbath last was very acceptable for it was feared that water was going to be scarce.

We have this week to chronicle the death of Mrs. H. Nesbitt, who after a long and painful illness passed away on the 7th, inst. The deceased was fifty years of age.

Her remains were interred at Bethel. The bereaved family has the sympathy of the entire community.

Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. Richard Heron, who has been sick for so long, is now visiting friends in Toronto.

Mr. John Horton has been sick for some time; his daughter, Mrs. Crosby, has been staying with him for the last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay, of Nottawa, were in the village last week.

C. W. Little's house is now occupied by J. Finney and family. It is rumored that they are to move into the hotel when Mr. Linsley's time expires.

A tea meeting will be held here in the Methodist Church on the 24th inst. Particulars will be given next week.

The members of the young people's prayer meeting are studying the characters of the Bible. Quite an increase has been made in the attendance.

Jas. A. Madden, of Chicago, is home on a visit.

Eugenia

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. D. McMullen has just completed the drilling of a well for Mr. Williamson, 13th concession, and at a depth of 20 feet in the rock he struck an excellent spring.

Mr. John Williams, who was kicked on the leg some time ago by a horse, is able to attend to his duties again.

The annual meeting of the Union Sunday School was held in the hall on Friday and the officers and teachers for 1890 appointed.

Mr. J.R. Hogg, of Toronto, also of the firm of Hogg & Cairns, Eugenia, has been spending a few days in the village on business.

Miss Smith, of Collingwood, is the guest of Mrs. S. Pedlar.

Mr. Robert Carruthers, who has been in Toronto under the care of a doctor for some weeks, returned home Saturday much improved in health.

The Boston World waits for a village bell in the centre of the town. Wouldn't a town bell in the centre of the village be a more appropriate way of expressing it, Clawd?

Prof. Loissette's MEMORY

DISCOVERY AND TRAINING METHOD. In spite of adulterated imitations which mimic the theory, and practical results of the Original, in spite of the gross misrepresentations by envious would-be competitors, and in spite of "base attempts to rob" him of the fruit of his labors, (all of which demonstrate the undoubted superiority and popularity of his teaching), Prof. Loissette's Art of Never Forgetting is recognized to-day in both Hemispheres as marking an Epoch in Memory Culture.
