Prof. Loissette's MEMORY

DISCOVERY AND TRAINING METHOD

In spite of adroit imitations which miss the theory, and practical results of the Original, in spite of the grossest misrepresentations by envious world-beaters, and in spite of "base attempts to rob" him of the fruit of his labor, (all of which demonstrate the undoubted superiority and popularity of his teaching.) Prof. Loissette's Art of Never Forgetting is recognized to-day in both Hemispheres as marking an epoch in Memory Culture. His Prosopics (sent post free) gives opinions, people in all parts of the globe who have actually studied his system by correspondence, showing that his system is used only while being studied, not afterwards; that any book or in is learned in a single reading, and wandering on, etc. For Prosopics, terms and testimonials address Prof. A. LOISSETTE, 23 1/2 Fifth Avenue, N. Y.

Feverisham News.

From our own Correspondent.

Mrs. Geo. Brown, the unfortunate victim of Geo. Parks' cruelty, is slowly recovering, but is not yet out of danger. County constable Christie, accompanied by Messrs. Campbell and Cripps, on the strength of a warrant, took after the desperado, but alas! their bird had flown to parts unknown. Dr. Scott has been in constant attendance, while Drs. Hamilton, of Singhampton, and Aikman, of Collingwood, have been called upon for consultation. We sincerely hope that the case may be brought speedily to a favorable termination, and that no such shameful occurrence may ever again occur in our midst.

Three wolves from the neighboring burg of Singhampton, paid Feverisham a visit last Sunday eve. "Hugh's son" appeared to your correspondent to have a severe attack of the "grip," from the attitude with which he entered the village. He was neither life nor death, but what was left of the bad boy. "Cousins" also looked disagreeably comely but was able to smile a salute, while I expect the charming simplicity of the "Chestnut" would fascinate the heart of the fairest belle of Feverisham. Our army friends have a grand work to face if they are to vanquish these would-be riots. Such was the sample that fair Singhampton saw fit to send us, which by the way might have been good enough for Saturday or some other week day.

We are happy to learn that our young folks are thinking seriously of organizing a literary society in our village. Such a movement cannot but fail to do good, and every one who desires to see the community become more refined and educated should lend to such a cause their deepest sympathy and heartiest co-operations. We have no doubt but that it will be a success and that this village shall shortly be second to none for its attractiveness in this and other lines.

The Paul Bros. are doing a rushing business this winter. Their sleighs and cutters catch everybody as to style and durability, while their job work cannot be excelled.

Influenza is prevalent in our midst. So far its ravages have not been very disastrous, and no anxiety is felt in regard to it.

Mr. J. A. Brett has been engaged to teach our school for the present year. So far he is giving entire satisfaction.

Messrs. Paul Bro's. new blacksmith, Mr. N. G. Henderson, is the finest workman seen in these parts for some time. We congratulate the Messrs. Paul Bros. on securing such a man as Mr. Henderson.

JERRY. Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

Our weather prophets are utterly demoralized and about giving up their profession in despair.

The bold invader, la grippe, has attacked our village and vicinity, and every sunrise finds fresh victims on their backs but all rise to their feet again so far.

There was just about enough beef on the fair grounds on Monday to give the citizens one good square meal.

The Artemesia Agricultural society have decided to hold a two days' show here next fall.

The Rev. D. McLeod is back again in charge of his old congregation. The non-gaelic speaking portion of the congregation seems to be kicking pretty vigorously, but we hope by some means that harmony will prevail shortly.

Mr. W. Parker, of Lions Head, preached in the Methodist church on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Jas. Watson has been seriously ill for several days.

Mr. Lachland McArthur, while driving a team in the Michigan lumber woods, had a very narrow escape. One of the late high winds threw a tree across the road that he was driving upon, killing one of the horses.

A large black bear was seen a few days ago about half a mile west of the village.

O-Ben. of the Valley, where art thou? We hope no evil has befallen thee, or those awful cowhide boots over take thee unawares, verily thou wouldst not seek refuge in a hollow log, speak O-Ben and let thy friends be comforted.

Now we will bet our oldest boots that if a typographical error is made in the Advance sheet this week, it will be found in the P. correspondence. Golly, we got a bad case the last time.

Mr. James Alcorn, of Proton, was married on the 15th inst., to Miss Brown, of Mowick township.
