McDonald & Evans are too busy to get up an advertisement. They have given away an enormous quantity of Tea during the past month, and in fact their stock is nearly exhausted. Saturday is the last day on which you can secure your Tea absolutely free of cost. Go to the Cash Store and get some before it is too late.

Mr. Hugh Nesbit died at his residence here on Saturday morning last. Mr. Nesbit was upwards of 70 years of age, and has suffered for the last three years with asthma, but the immediate cause of his death was la grippe, which resulted fatally on his already weakened constitution. The mortal remains were interred in the Bethel cemetery on Sunday afternoon, where they were followed by a large number of friends and relatives. Two sons, William and George, survive him and they have the deep sympathy of a christian community in this their hour of trial and parental loss. It is only a few weeks ago since they were called upon to bury their mother, so that the loss is two-fold. The Rev. Mr. Moss will preach the memorial sermon in our church on the 30th, at 2.30 p.m.

Mr. Wm. G. Acheson is on the sick list. He is suffering from an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. We trust that he will be better before this reaches the press.

Mr. Richard Campbell, our blacksmith, is removing his business to Proton Station.

Miss Carrie Nicholls is on the sick list; La Grippe is the trouble.

Mr. Montgomery, of Mono, has bought the Walsh property here, now occupied by Mr. Guy Blakely. Mr. Blakely will be leaving about the 1st of March.

In our next we will give an account of the Bethel teaming.

Yes, Mr. Editor, Dr. Landerkin is driving the nails in his political coffin. We think that he should have supported the incorporation of the Orange Bill, and he should not have helped whatever, by his vote or talk, to give that bloodthirsty church of Rome any power whatever.

[The above was received too late for publication last week.—Ed.]

The tea-meeting on Monday evening last at Bethel was very interesting and enjoyable. The ladies of the congregation provided a good tea. The pastor, Rev. W. H. Moss, occupied the chair. Speeches were delivered by Mr. Hall, editor Herald; Professor Dike and the Rev. Dr. Strongman. The Dundalk choir were present and contributed largely to the enjoyment of the evening. The secretary of the Trust Board, Mr. Corbett, read a statement which is as follows: Total cost of church, $850; after the opening services a debt of $250 remained. Collections on Sabbath last $11.72. Proceeds of tea-meeting $42.75, thus reducing the debt on the church to $170.53. Professor Dike counted to 20 but the game did not work, as all eyes were readily opened.

Another of our bachelors has kicked over the traces. The whole affair was peaceably settled by the Rev. Dr. Strongman, of Lucknow, at the residence of Mr. Wm. Acheson, on Wednesday last, when Mr. James McMillan and Miss Rachel Acheson were made man and wife. We wish the young pair every happiness while travelling over the rough sea of life. The special services which are being conducted here by the Rev. Mr. Moss will be continued every night this week except Saturday.

Mr. Guy Blakely has rented Mr. Jno. McCullough's farm at Bethel, where he intends removing about the first of March.

At the annual meeting of S. S. No. 4, Artemesia, the wrong man was elected trustee, consequently on Saturday next at the hour of 10 o'clock a.m., a public meeting of ratepayers will be held to elect another trustee.

Kimberley.

From our own Correspondent.

La grippe is quite prevalent in this vicinity at present.

Rev. Mr. Moore, of the society of friends, Heathcote, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church here on Sunday evening last.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

We have good sleighing at last, and consequently business in general has improved, still our "bone planters" complain of dull times.

La grippe has retreated without putting any of us under the sod. (This is probably Dr. Hutton's fault).

Several of our citizens are packing away a large quantity of ice to equalize the temperature next June. The ice on the mill pond is about 9 in. in depth.

There were not many cattle on the ground last fair day. Fat animals and milch cows were in demand. About a dozen head changed hands.

Mr. M. McDougal lost a fine mare a few days ago. In drawing a heavy load she slipped and fell on her side, breaking her leg and receiving other internal injuries.

On the 19th about 10 o'clock p.m. the church bell began to ring and immediately a large number of persons gathered at the Presbyterian church to witness the marriage of Mr. Neil McKinnon and Miss E. Brown, when the Rev. D. McLeod concluded the ceremony. The young couple and guests repaired to Mr. Brown's residence to partake of a sumptuous dinner there provided. The officiating clergyman had just commenced to regale the inner man, when a messenger arrived informing him that Mr. R. Wilson and Miss Carson, of Proton Station, anxiously waited his presence at the manse. His reverence, cane in hand, hastened home. In a few minutes another couple was made happy.

Mr. C.C. James went to Toronto last week as a representative of the annual convention of A.O.U.W.

A reception was held on Friday evening upon the return of Mr. N. McKinnon and bride from the city. The house was filled with guests and the presents were numerous and valuable, varying in value from $2 up to $10. A very pleasant evening was spent. Who's turn next?

The funeral of Mrs. H. McLean, of Proton, took place on the 18th from the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. W. Sackett of this town.

Several of our citizens will remember St. Valentine Day, at least they say that their friends or enemies remembered them.

Miss Regina Rothschild will leave Port Townsend, Washington, on March 17 in an attempt to beat Nellie Bly's time in a race around the globe. She will take the Canadian route eastward.
