Eugenia

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. Wm. Wilson has been dangerously ill with inflammation of the lungs, but we are pleased to learn that he is recovering.

Our school closed Thursday last, and we have no doubt that the Easter holidays were welcomed both by teacher and pupils. The teacher will be allowed to strengthen his right arm in order to wield the cat-o-nine-tails with "double sway" for the remainder of the term.

"What does it mean?" Well, Mr. Editor, it means that the correspondence from Eugenia which appeared in the Thornbury Standard was not as accurate as it might be. That correspondent lies, or stretches the truth very frequently, hence you need not credit any items that appear in the Standard from the same correspondent. There is considerable comment as to who is the author of such correspondence, some say it is Harry, others say it is not, but it is our belief that we can locate the gentleman, if he be worthy of that name.

We are informed that Mr. J. W. Hoath is going to take up his abode in the vicinity of Meaford, he having leased a farm there. Mr. Hoath's presence will be greatly missed in this neighborhood.

Mr. S. Clemes has given up his studies at the Collingwood C. I. and has entered upon a new course of study, namely, dentistry. We hope he will prove successful in this course.

WILL WIMBLE.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

We are likely to have an early spring, for our feathered friends are all returning to us again from warmer climates.

Several of our young men have returned from the Michigan lumber woods.

John McArthur, Esq., is preparing to reside on his farm in the country during the summer season.

Mr. Geo. Tryon has sold his butchering business to Mr. McAmmon, of Holstein. G. W. intends trying his hand at the droving business for a while.

Some of our town gossips have circulated certain rumors that have spread like wildfire over this section of country, and without any foundation, it is said. But some of our lady friends would "spoil" if they had not some scandal to relate after being in solemn conclave at a "quilting" or tea party.

Measles are prevalent here at present.

The assessor has paid us his annual visit.

Mr. Jas. Watson was down to the city last week.

One of our citizens is likely to lose $450 by endorsing a note to oblige a neighbor.

Kimberley.

From our own Correspondent.

The "pied frog's orchestra" is again organized for the summer months, and from their several logs and chips which float in the stagnant pools, they favor the inhabitants of this village with their choicest selections. Hammers and saws keep time to the music as boards are cut and fastened in place by the industrious hands of Messrs. C. Knott and S. Burritt.

Ploughing has commenced. R. D. and T. B. Carruthers have gone to Schomberg, where they intend to spend the summer.

Mr. Best, from Keller's Bridge, Hastings, has moved to town with the object of running opposition to Mr. McKenzie in the blacksmith line. We are well supplied with that class of tradesmen now, as there are three shops within the radius of a mile. Strikes will, no doubt, be prevalent now.

Mr. W. Scott is preparing to build a large barn on his new farm.

During the past winter moving has been carried on to a great extent, by which Kimberley has increased in population. Mr. Simpson, of Osprey, has taken possession of the farm which has lately been occupied by Mr. Jas. Magee.

G. I. Graham, Esq., has recovered sufficiently from la grippe to oversee the running of his mill.

Again the merry chirp of the chipmunk makes the woods ring, the drummer partridge is on his log and the robin sings his evening song as the sun gradually sinks beneath the western hill. Surely with such evidence as this we cannot doubt the presence of spring.

Our Scrap Book.

We say that spring is here—we say That same thing every pleasant day; We turn to thoughts of new spring clothes, And then—it snows!

Disheartened now, our hopes give way Till sun shines; then again we say The spring is here—when, as before, It snows some more!

Three miners in the Copper Cliff mine, near Sudbury, were killed on Friday afternoon by being crushed by a car.

Nineteen prisoners have escaped from the county jail at Spokane Falls, Wash.

A Chinese mandarin can order a man's head to be cut off at any moment. But within three months he must forward to the Emperor an affidavit from two persons declaring that the execution was in the interest of religion and morals. He has no difficulty in getting such affidavits, as he can cut off the heads of any who refuse to make them.

Henry M. Stanley is in the field for "boodle." He said to a friend before he left America in search of Emin Pasha:—"I'm getting on past middle life. I have not saved a cent. My books and lectures shall pay me within the next five years, enough to make my old age comfortable. This African expedition is for money, not glory."

Frightened by a Parrot.—A burglar, while ransacking a house in Chicago the other night, was greeted with a "Hello, there!" in a sepulchral voice from the gloom of a recessed corner. He stood not upon the order of going, but went at once. A parrot had worked in its sole stock of English with admirable results. The burglar dropped a purloined overcoat in his haste to get away, but he subsequently recovered from his scare sufficiently to enter two other houses, where he secured several overcoats and $40 in money.

At a small town in Wurtemberg recently a marriage took place which brings about a complicated state of family relations. The woman had been married three times before, and each time had taken for her husband a widower with children. Her fourth husband was also a widower, and as he had had children by his first wife, who was herself a widow with children when he married her, the newly married couple have started their matrimonial companionship with a family composed of the children of no less than eight previous marriages. It would puzzle a magician to settle the exact relationship existing between this very assorted household.
