

THE ADVANCE.

Is published Every Thursday, FROM THE OFFICE Sydenham Street, - - Flesherton, Ont. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: $1 per annum when paid strictly in advance...

Birchall! The word is too commonly in use these days, and creates more or less of a nausea whenever seen in print. This paper has attempted to keep its columns free from censure on this score. However, in certain quarters it appears to be the aim of a few journalists to keep this malefactor's name before the public...

This is fall—the saddest and most solemn season of the year. Fall, with its dreary days, its leafless trees, its cold, chillings winds, its shroud of death o'er all the face of nature...

From an Occasional Correspondent. Threshing is nearly finished. Kennedy's machine is doing the work in this vicinity. Levi is framing a shed for Mr. Williamson on the 12 con.

The congressional elections took place in the United States on Tuesday.

day of this week. In Kansas it appears to be a 'straight fight' between the liquor interests and prohibition, with the Republican party upholding the latter. By a late decision of the courts it was held to be perfectly legal to sell liquor in bulk within the borders of the state...

Towship Matters.

To the Editor of The Advance. DEAR SIR,—Will you kindly give me a short space to give the ratepayers my opinion on matters pertaining to the township of Artemesia. The ward system of electing representatives to the council boards confines a representative exclusively to his ward...
