A Child's Dream.

(When I awake in Thy likeness I shall be satisfied. Psa. XVII—15 v.)

It was the silent midnight hour,
And sweetly like a summer flower
My daughter sleeping lay;
She looked so calm and peaceful there,
As if no danger might come near
To drive her rest away.

But suddenly to change she seemed,
And started in her sleep and screamed
As if in dreadful pain,
Some danger seemed so threatening near,
That when I strove to smooth her fear
My efforts all seemed vain.

"What ails my child?" I gently said:
"What fills her thus with nervous dread?"
Can I the reason find?
It was a dream that caused her fright—
A troubled vision of the night
Was passing through her mind.

She thought dark clouds o'er spread the sky,
And far out on the waters high
She rode the foaming wave;
Each moment seemed an age of woe;
She seemed about to plunge below
Into a watery grave.

But when she heard her parent's voice
Her fears were gone; she could rejoice,
And scarce her joy could tell;
Her dreamland dangers all were o'er,
She rode upon the waves no more,
But knew that all was well.

And then I thought, 'tis ever so,
Our mortal life throughout I know
Is like a troubled dream;
We load with anxious cares our breast,
And much afflicted, sore oppressed,
In our own eyes we see.

But when the voice Divine we hear,
Which speaks the Father's presence near,
We gladly trust our guide;
And when the heavenly day shall break
We in His likeness shall awake,
And then be satisfied.

Flesherton, Oct. 14th, 1890. T. WATSON.

COUNTY AND DISTRICT.

Diphtheria is prevalent in Beeton, and the public and Sabbath schools have been closed to prevent its spreading.

The Warton Echo advocates the formation of a new county of the present county of Bruce.

Owen Sound Sun: "There was a jim jam in the post office on Thanksgiving day." Was it plum, apple, or grape? Or perhaps the editor was on a jim jam?

The Beeton World was surely laboring under difficulties last week. This is what it says about it. "This office has been in a rather sad state the past week or two, between sickness and breakdowns. First Isaac O'Brien took sick, and was laid off; then Alf. Maynard followed with a shivering spell. The "Wharfside" press became a subject of "grip," or rather it refused to grip, and this necessitated the service of a repairer from Toronto. While this was all going on Armouth Gray took down with diphtheria, and to add to the complications Mr. Bennett found himself the subject of an attack of fever, resulting from a cold, and he too went to bed. We've had a nice time, taking all in all, but will come out on top, if we're only given half a chance. Please excuse all short-comings for this week.

Dear Sir.—Your favor to hand enquiring how we got along with the Wind Mill. I might say we had no difficulty in putting it together, it is working splendid. The pump does its work all right. I like the working of the Victor Wind Mill very much. It governs itself nicely in a high wind, and I think it far more durable than a wooden mill.
N. DUKESBY, Menford.

To JEFFREY ARTLEY, Markdale:
Sir.—The pump I purchased from you for $7 foot well gives complete satisfaction. It works with the greatest ease, for the quantity of water delivered, of any pump I have ever tested. I believe it is constructed on a simple and durable principle and not liable to get out of order. I could not wish for a better pump, and can, with the utmost confidence, recommend it.
Wishing you every success I remain, yours &c.,
