JANUARY, 1891.

We are starting the first month of the New Year with a determination to make our sales double the previous year. There is no standing still in business, it is either go ahead, or go behind, and we are bound to go ahead. In order to accomplish our purpose, we have to make our stock so attractive that both new and old customers will find it worth their while to deal with us. The cheapest goods are not always the best to buy, but we shall endeavor to give you quality as well as cheapness. This month we shall show

Full and Special Lines in Every Department,

And shall invite an inspection of our stock before purchasing elsewhere

Thanking our many customers for their liberal patronage during the past twelve months, and soliciting a share for the coming twelve, we wish each and every one a prosperous and Happy New Year.

McDonald & Evans.

JANUARY, 1891.

McIntyre.

From our own Correspondent.

Municipal election has been the chief topic during the past week, and every one having a vote is anxious to get to the poll to-day.

Miss Inkster and her brother Jas. is moving in to the house lately vacated by Malcolm McIntyre. They intend to live there this winter as it is near the school.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Scott have just returned from Egremont, where they have been spending the holidays.

We are glad to see Mr. A. Muirhead at home once more. Archie has been at Ann Harbor, Michigan, for the last few years attending the Medical College. He intends to return shortly and complete his course.

Mr. Wm. Hardy, from North Kappel, spent a few days with his friends here last week.

Mr. Jas. Patterson, from Swinton Park, gave his many friends here a call last week. As usual he called on the Bachelor's Hall.

We are again called upon to report the loss of one of our fair damsels. We do not mean by loss to say that she has died or moved away to some distant land, but has got married and is consequently lost to some of our young men who have been looking very longingly that way. Miss Sarah Lamont was joined by the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Thos. McConnell, of Singhampton, by the Rev. John Chisholm, of Dumbarton, where the happy couple went to have the knot tied. Your cor. offers congratulations to the happy couple.

Mr. Wm. McDonald and daughter, from Collingwood township, but formerly from here, spent a few days with their old neighbors last week.

Mrs. John McKinnon presented her husband with a daughter on Tuesday of last week. Mother and child are doing well.

Flesherton Station.

By our own Reporter.

This being the season of the year more for pleasure than business, the trade around the station has been less active than it was for the past few months. Now that the election is over it is hoped it will resume its former activity.

I was somewhat surprised to see Dr. Christie out here on New Year's day—it being so wet and disagreeable—canvassing for our present reeve, after what he said at the nomination in regard to the four candidates. He is a hustler.

The minds of some of the ratepayers around here are like the weather, somewhat changeable.

Mr. Tottenham, our energetic townsman, has his sawmill in running order and is cutting lumber to close in the mill.

Miss Woods is away on a visit to her friends in King.

Miss Miller, of Owen Sound, has entered upon her duties here as public school teacher on Monday.

Mr. Hogg, of Toronto, gave us a call last Monday on a matter of business.

McInnes and Lawrence left the station last Tuesday with two car loads of potatoes for some part in the States.

Mr. John Melia is preparing to build on the lot that he purchased.

Inistioge.

From our own Correspondent.

The Methodist S. S. anniversary which was held here on 30th Dec. proved to be a success, although the crowd exceeded the accommodation, the church being over crowded. Flesherton, Dundalk, Wareham, and Bethel were all well represented. Rev. G. Cobblestick occupied the chair. The singing got up by the school was very good, with the exception of one or two pieces. Professor Jones, of Owen Sound, enlivened the proceedings with a solo which brought hearty encores from the audience. Miss Moore presided at the organ. The speakers were the Rev. G. Cobblestick and Mr. Wm. A. Hutchinson. When the program was about half rendered the Flesherton "bell brigade" arrived, which proved to be all tongue and no brains. Proceeds of the evening about $40.

Inistioge ought to be a good stand for a bakery. One old lady declares she baked 22 loaves of bread on Saturday evening which were all devoured by Sunday morning. Talk about custom.

Mrs. and Miss Jordan will shortly remove to Collingwood.

Mr. R. Ludlow, dentist, is visiting relatives here.

Mr. W. A. Hutchinson left here to resume his studies in Oberlin college.

Mr. J. Roseborough, who has been attending the Trinity medical school, Toronto, is visiting his parents here.

Mount Zion.

From our own Correspondent.

Christmas and New Years passed off very quietly here.

Mr. Wm. Henderson tried the city for a little season and returned.

Mr. Jas. Watson, who lives in Napanee, spent the holidays here with his parents. Jim looks well.

Mr. Alex. McNevin, of Bolton, also spent the holidays here with his parents.

We have this week to chronicle the death of our old friend, Mrs. Jas. Handy, who, after a lingering illness, passed away on Dec. the 27th, aged 83 years. The deceased was a faithful follower of the blessed Master. She leaves behind her an aged partner. The interment took place at Mt. Zion cemetery.

Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

Ice in abundance and plenty of frost, the order during the past week. Exciting times lately owing to election, and still they can't put Gamey out.

A social was held at the home of Mr. Scutt. About $15 was made; all had an excellent time and therefore were pleased.

Dr. Scott, his daughter, son and wife returned from Dakota on Saturday. The young bride looks admirably well, and we welcome her to our midst.

School re-opened on Monday and once again the dingle of the old bell may be heard.

Dr. Forrest returned to his home at Mount Albert on Monday.

The Rev. H. A. Brown has commenced revival services at Buckingham's appointment.

Although very late now, yet working on the principle "better late than never," I now wish The Advance and its many readers "a happy and prosperous New Year."

Wareham.

From our own Correspondent.

The holidays have been a time of festival here. The number of geese and turkeys have diminished to a considerable extent.

The thaw which took place on New Years day has taken away our sleighing and left us nothing but ice and water.

We were pleased to see Mr. Robert Henderson, of Toronto, in our midst again. Rob looks well.

We are sorry to say that the twilight slumbers steal over our choir during services on the Sabbath day. I say, detective Murry should take the case in hand.

There is a certain young lady in this vicinity who is waiting patiently for the 14th of February, when she expects to receive a valentine.

Mr. Robert McMillan, of Toronto, is visiting friends in this part.

Kimberley.

From our own Correspondent.

The annual teaming in connection with the Methodist church came off on the 5th inst., as advertised, and was a success. The good things provided by the ladies were all that could be desired, and the intellectual part was a grand success. The chair was occupied by the Rev. J. H. Watts. After music by the choir, the financial report of the church for the year was read. Our church has a good showing, and we hope soon to be able to clear it from debt. Addresses were delivered by Revs. Fydel and McTavish, which were much appreciated. We are sincerely thankful to these gentlemen for coming so far to address us. The address by Rev. McTavish to young ladies was worthy of special notice, and we hope it will be productive of much good. The music by the choir was good. Instrumental music by Miss Ella Wickens was loudly applauded. R. D. Carruthers sang a solo, accompanied on the organ by Miss S. A. Thompson. Proceeds $40.
