Thinking that the readers of The Advance might be slightly interested in a few items from S. P., we have therefore taken upon ourselves the (arduous) duties of a correspondent from this place, which is a thriving little village situated in one of the pleasantest spots in south Grey, and surrounded by as fine an agricultural district as can be found in the county. The farmers are, without exception, thrifty and well-to-do, as is evidenced by the convenient, comfortable, and tidy buildings that are to be seen on every homestead.

"Prof" Valentine entertained the people of S. P. the other evening in Hillside Academy with a sort of variety show, consisting of stereoscopic views, vocal and instrumental music and sleight of hand tricks. The "Prof." raked in the shekels to the amount of about $11 from our opulent residents.

Mr. James Pattison, our urban merchant, was busy "taking stock" last week. He was assisted by Mr. Wilson. Jas. reports business as booming. We are glad to hear it.

There was great slaughtering among the porkers the other day at Mr. Henry Hannans, when eight men killed and dressed 37 hogs in less than 8 hours.

A regular old-timed hoe-down took place on Tuesday evening, 18th inst. at Mr. McLeod's, (Bach. Hall.) Mr. Gib. McConnel also favored the boys with a similar entertainment next night.

We have not seen our worthy dominion's equipage around S. P. lately. Guess he must be—yes, yes, &c.

The concert in Hopeville on Thursday evening was somewhat of a failure. There are too many outside shows going around the country just now to be a success financially.

We were very sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Wesley Scott, of Osprey. Mr. Jno. Hardy and Mrs. Hardy attended the funeral.

Mr. W. J. Blakeston spent Thursday evening of last week at Mr. J. J. Mahe's, Hopeville.

A sleigh load of education took a tumble the other evening near the post office. Cause—Spirited horses and optical delusion.

La grippe is again on the warpath, tackling Mr. Wm. Porter for the 2nd time. We trust William will soon be able to attend to his usual duties.

Mr. Hugh Hardy is visiting friends in the vicinity of Big Bay.

A number of young people enjoyed themselves last Thursday evening at Mr. Jas. Richardson's in the mazy circles of the dance till the wee sma' hours.

Mr. Jno. Kinnell, of Warton, is visiting at his brother-in-law's, Mr. Hugh Wilson's.

Mrs. A. Corbett, who has been visiting at her mother's, Mrs. Hardy, returned home last Saturday.

We are sorry to learn that two of Mr. Jno. Ferguson's children are ill with the scarlet fever.

From our own Correspondent.

The S. S. anniversary (Presbyterian) held on the 7th was quite a success, the pleasant night and good roads encouraged a fine turnout of people. The resident ministers addressed the audience and Inspector Campbell spoke to the children in his usual happy style. Mr. Chapman, of Durham, also appeared on the platform. The scholars rendered their part of the program very creditably. One spirited little fellow took part rather reluctantly in "Rock-a-bye baby," it not being his ideal of manliness. A large amount of money has been raised for the said school during the past season which will place it in a No. 1 position.

The firm of McKinnon & Co., (general store) failed, liabilities not yet known.

During the latter part of last week the school children were busily engaged decorating the public school for the expected visit of the inspector. In our school days we knew not the day nor the hour when the P. S. I. would appear in our midst.

Miss Fanny James is attending Owen Sound high school.

Mr. Al. Watson, our genial baker, has gone to Georgetown to practice the art.

Mr. J. Brander is shipping large quantities of lumber and cord wood to the city.

Very few cattle at the fair on Monday. Steers and milch cows were inquired after but were not on the ground.

Our young ladies in town are preparing for the near approaching day, after which they will be Miss no more. One will be missed for she will re-

A shooting match came off at this place, being got up by Mr. Ball. Several of the boys came home carrying a goose or a turkey. The affair was finished up by a ball at night, which those, who attended, considered a success.
