The first original article by Count Tolstoi, that has ever been published in an American magazine, appears in the February issue of The Cosmopolitan, with a number of interesting photographic reproductions, one of them being a picture of Tolstoi guiding a plough in his Russian fields. Brander Matthews appears in his first article upon Some Latterday Humorists. Mr. Matthews' contributions constitute one of the most interesting features of the magazine. The third in a series of colored frontispieces is a delightful sketch by McVickar, illustrating a character in Mrs. Van Rensselaer Cruger's new story, "Mademoiselle Reseda." Ex-Postmaster General James presents an article upon the Welsh in the United States, liberally illustrated by portraits of prominent men who are of Welsh extraction. Women clerks in New York, by the Marquise Clara Lanza. A charming article on the old Chateaux in Touraine by Miss Elsie De Wolfe; Prince Talleyrand and his memoirs by H. de Bury. Amateur Portraiture in Photography, and A Remarkable Musical History by William Pole, F.R.S., the well known Englishman, are other prominent features of the February issue. Price, 25 cents. It is the standard authority on scientific and mechanical subjects. It is placed at a very low rate of subscription, $3 per annum, which places it within the reach of all. Subscriptions will be received at the office of this paper.
