From our own Correspondent.

Mr. J. Irish & Co., are getting in a large quantity of logs this winter. We may say the mill always gives good satisfaction, and why not be well patronized.

If Mr. Geo. Wright moves his flour mill to Dundalk our little town will feel the blow. I say, G., a rolling stone gathers no moss.

Our choir has been called upon to provide the music for the teaming of the Presbyterian church, Maxwell. We feel proud that our choir is getting so popular.

Mr. Wm. Inkster feels as if he could clear a seven rail fence because he has been presented with a fine baby boy.

Mr. G. Robinson has purchased a set of iron harrows. He intends to scratch the ground as never before.

Our town bus makes its usual trip to the junction every Sunday.

A terrible coal mine disaster took place in Nova Scotia on Saturday by which 150 people met their death.
