THE PROBABILITIES

for this month are:—A rushing business in every line of merchandise; large quantities of Butter and Eggs marketed; heaps of Dry Goods changing hands every day.

We are not old residents in Flesherton, but by honest dealing, close prices and good judgement in selection of goods, are steadily gaining the confidence of the public and the liberal patronage of the same. This month the farmer should lay in

Our Hats are Going

But we still have a good selection in plain and fancy straw, soft and stiff felt, and will sell them cheaper than ever. Cheap lines in Shirtings, Cottonades, Cottons, Prints, Dress Goods, Lawns, Muslins, Embroideries, Etc.

Boot and Shoe Department Full in every line. Call and see us early and the probabilities will be: Before the end of June you will be satisfied that the cash store on the hill is the place to do your trading.

Highest Price for Farm Produce.
McDONALD & EVANS.

McIntyre.

From our own Correspondent.
The recent showers have done much to help the appearance of the crops in this part.

Farmers have been busy putting in their turnips during the last week, and I think that owing to appearance of a short crop of hay a much larger amount of roots have been put in.

Mrs. Geo. E. King, from Wingham, is visiting her many old friends here at present. Mrs. King's husband formerly taught school here for a number of years, but is now keeping store at Wingham and is doing a good business, and we are pleased to say his health is much improved.

Mr. Malcolm McIntyre, with his wife and family, have returned from Newberry, where Malcolm has been engaged during the winter, he reports work being scarce up there now.

Rev. Mr. Johnson from Maple Valley occupied the pulpit here on Sunday evening.

Swinton Park.

From our own Correspondent.
The refreshing and much-needed rains of last week had the effect of brightening the prospects of the farmer.

The annual combined picnic of Swamp College and Hillside Academy students and their friends will be held in Mr. Black's grove on Friday afternoon, the 26th inst. A good program is in preparation and a pleasant time is expected.

The orangemen, of Proton, will celebrate the "glorious twelfth" in Hopeville this year. A number of lodges are expected to attend. We understand that the Hopevillites are making extensive preparations for the occasion, which promises to be a success.

Councillor Black let several road jobs lately along the seventh sideroad, which was badly in need of repair.

The road-work is done in this vicinity for this year. Pathmasters are no doubt glad that the heavy responsibility of their office is over for another term.

A serious runaway occurred in S. P. last week resulting in smashing almost into kindling wood, of a comparatively new buggy. As Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McMillan were driving briskly past the store, their horse, frightened at some object, suddenly curved into the ditch completely overturning the buggy. The now thoroughly seared animal dashed down the road at a terrific rate dragging the fore-wheels which had become detached from the vehicle. We are glad to state that Mr. and Mrs. McMillan escaped with a few bruises, although they were thrown violently to the ground underneath the rig. The horse came to a standstill at the post office with a remnant of the shafts.

An itinerant ventriloquist struck our burg last week and raked in a number of superfluous, but hard-earned dimes from our rising generation. In connection with the foregoing rather an amusing episode took place, viz. Two sturdy young yeomen gallantly paid the entrance fee for the same lady, not knowingly, of course.

The Methodist Sunday school of S. P. purpose holding a picnic on the 6th of July. If the preparation of a good program is a criterion of success, we can bespeak a splendid time at this forthcoming social gathering.

Mr. William Knox paid a business visit to Howick last week. W. K. is a hustler. Miss Jenny Kinnell is residing in Dundalk and learning the dressmaking.

Miss Lily Bingham, who has been staying with her grandmother the greater part of this year, returned home last week. Lily made many friends during her stay here, and her departure is much regretted, especially by her school mates of Hillside Academy.

Miss Bella Ferguson spent a few days of last week visiting at Mr. R. Blakestone's, O. D. R.
Mr. and Mrs. Scott, of Osprey, spent a few days of last week visiting at Mrs. Hardy's.

We were pleased to see the jovial face of our old friend, J. J. Maher, of Dundalk, in town last week. J. J. was buying fat cattle.

Proton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. Editor, as you have not heard from P. S. for a long time, we feel it necessary that we should, as other people in the surrounding vicinity, endeavor to maintain our communications, not that we are tormented with abundance of news, but that it may be acknowledged that we are not entirely "spacheless."

Crops in this neighborhood, though retarded by drouth, are very promising. The frequent showers that prevailed during last week refreshed them considerably.

Mr. Phillip Bluman, late of this place, who has been laboring in the vicinity of Orangeville for some time, paid us a flying visit one day last week. He looks well, and reports business flourishing in that part.

Lockhart & Sheirson have started a brickyard in this place, in which they are doing a rushing business. Having secured the services of a professional, qualifies them to do first class work.

The trustees of No. 4 school have furnished the new school house with a bell. This we know by the musical jargons that prevail from that direction.

Miss Lillie Boyl, of Creemore, captain in the Salvation Army, being obstructed in her work by her imperfect health and absence of voice, is at present visiting her many friends in this part. 'Tis a gloomy wind that don't irradiate some heart, isn't it, A? Miss Gallagher, of Toronto, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Sherson.

Mr. R. C. Pearce, an expert ventriloquist, accompanied by his two talking dolls, Joe and Jerry, held an entertainment of a very amusing nature in the hall, Thursday, the 18th inst. Jerry is somewhat of Irish descent, and creates endless amusement. Mr. Pearce is apparently a gentleman, and is thoroughly devoted to his profession.

The former officers of this place, Capt. Warder and Lieut. Brewer, have left the 360th corps, with better prospects in view.

There will be a garden party at the residence of Mr. R. J. Carson in connection with the Union Sabbath School of this place on Friday afternoon, the 26th inst. A large crowd is expected. Come one, come all.

Flesherton Station.

By our own Reporter.

The potato season is almost over. Since April, six thousand bushels have been shipped by Cook & Matheson.

Ninety-five thousand bushels of grain have been shipped this season by S. McCullough.

Mr. James and W. McMillen, have been visiting friends in Huron.

Mrs. McInnes and daughter, left on Monday for Manitoba, where she intends spending a few weeks with parents.

Mr. W. J. Wadsworth returned to the city on Friday, looking much improved in health.

Two sheep, belonging to A. Cullen, were worried by dogs on Friday last.

The old horse that has been prowling around, and disturbing peoples rest at night has gone on a visit this week. May his visit be long.

Mr. Tonge will preach on Sabbath afternoon at three o'clock.

The C. P. R. steamers have resumed their trips to Port Arthur, and the citizens of that town are mollified.

CONSUMPTION CURED.
