Tired ?

Oh no ; we are still young and hearty ; able to eat three square meals a day. Although we may not be able to haul out the speckled beauties like our worthy Editor, or pop over the lively patridges like our much esteemed barber, we are able to throw Case and Bale of new fall goods up the steps of the store on the hill, and dance a jubilee around the beautiful articles which they contain without much trouble.

Toot Our Horns ?

Oh no ; we havn't time when so much is to be done to get our goods on exhibition, carefully ticketed and placed where every one who calls can see them without exerting themselves.

Left on Exhibition ?

Oh no ; first come first served. Everything has got to go but our scissors. We can't pay freight on goods to have them mould on our shelves. Buy as much as you wish, as little as you like, or don't buy at all, but come and examine, and the buying we will leave to your judgment.

The store that is built on a hill cannot be hid. Every place you go you will see indication of the light—some times dresses, sometimes boots, sometimes suits of clothes, and various other things. But never will you see an inferior article or hear that McDonald or Evans were too smart the time they sold me such an article.

Come ! Come ! Come !

now is the time to get a good selection at a low price.

McDONALD & EVANS

A Silurian.

They built a fine church at his very door—
He wasn't in it ;
They brought him a scheme for relieving the poor—
He wasn't in it.
Let them work for themselves as he had done.
They wouldn't ask help of any one
If they hadn't wasted each golden minute—
He wasn't in it.

So he passed the door with a haughty tread—
He wasn't in it ;
And he scorned the good with averted head—
He wasn't in it.
When men in the halls of virtue met,
He saw their goodness without regret ;
Too high the mark for him to win it—
He wasn't in it.

A carriage crept down the street one day—
He was in it.
The funeral trappings made display—
He was in it.
St. Peter received him with book and bell :
"My friend, you have purchased a ticket to—well,
Your elevator goes down in a minute!"
He was in it.

Hopeville.

From our own Correspondent.

The population of our village is increasing. To the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Allen a young lady with tiny feet and hands has come with the evident intention of becoming a Hopevillite. Mr. and Mrs. McKnight are also doing their best to make the young stranger, who has taken up her abode with them, comfortable.

Messrs. Peter McMurdo and Wm. Burnett have been assisting Mr. Fennel with his harvest.

Miss Maude Irons will start for Toronto on Wednesday.

Isaiah McArdie has gone back to his studies.

The hounds and hunters are again on the war path after foxes, etc. Another has been added to their number in the person of Mr. Wm. Troop, who has purchased Mr. D. K. McArthur's breech loading gun.

Quite a pleasant party of young ladies met at Mr. Irons' on Thursday afternoon. Music was furnished by Misses Lizzie Millner, Eva McMurdo, Maude and Emma Irons.

Our butcher has changed his intention of going to Priceville, and has decided to remain where he is.

Mr. Mills' fine residence is almost finished, and is expected to be the grandest in the township when completed.

W. J. and Chas. McLean have purchased a threshing machine.

Miss M. C. Hardy and Mr. Wm. Knox, of Swinton Park, were the guests of Mr. Jos. Black on the 6th inst.

Mr. Wm. McMurdo, through the company failing to acknowledge the agreement made by their agent, had his binder taken away, but he has got another now (an Armstrong binder) which, though it may not be as speedy as the first, will probably be a more lasting and useful one.

Mr. George Campbell, sr., has been a little worse with stiffness and pains lately—the effect of the "grippe."

Mr. Chas. McDonald, of Priceville, is assisting Mr. Thos. Parslow with his harvest.

Mr. Wm. Hall has shown himself to be a very handy man, as is seen by the addition to his farm which he has framed, being both a farmer and a blacksmith, and now has taken to framing.

Thos. Campbell, jr., cut his foot while splitting wood on Saturday.

Mr. Geo. Goheen's children have been sick, but are recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Maher paid a pleasant visit at Mr. John Campbell's on the 13th.

McIntyre.

From our own Correspondent.

There has been a great amount of sickness in this vicinity of late. A great many have had malarial fever. Neil and Sarah McDonald are both quite bad with it at present.

Miss Annie McIntyre had to close her school near Eugenia where she has been teaching the present year, on account of sickness. She has been very low with malarial fever and inflammation of the lungs but at the time of writing is some better.

Mrs. Archy McIntyre has also been sick.

Miss Flora McIntyre left on Monday for Toronto.

Mr. Edward Potts spent a few days in Barrie last week, having been summoned as a witness in the case of Taylor vs. Robins, of Maple Valley.

Mrs. Samuel Potts and daughter, from Minneapolis, have been visiting their friends here last week.

The fine weather of last week has done much to advance the harvest. Another week of good weather will about finish the harvest for this season.

Eugenia

From our own Correspondent.

Mr Editor, I suppose so many of our farmers and townspeople will be off to see the sights in the city, there won't be much call for a paper or news for a week or so.

I would like to know who the young men were that spent Sunday afternoon, a week ago, around a butternut tree, then went in the evening with their pockets filled with nuts to see their best girls. It is a pity that the apples are so scarce this season. Better buy candy for your girls than give them green nuts.

Some of our boys are in great trouble for fear that bridge at Cairns' gully falls down, it is so washed away. It is in a dangerous condition for those who have to pass late at night. There ought to be a lamp put up at that place.

One of our young men had quite an exciting time going to Flesherton one afternoon lately. His horse was pretty lively, and some Flesherton gentleman wanted to pass, but Eugenia boys won't leave the road for any one. A complaint was laid against him to our worthy reeve. Our farmer boys feed their horses too good, and they won't let any one pass them.

Mrs. Hollinger, of Toronto, who has recently returned from a trip to the Old Country, is now visiting her friends at Eugenia.

Mrs. William Parsons, of Invermay, is visiting her numerous friends around here. Her son, Mr. John Parsons, accompanies her.

Mrs. Plumbel, of Buffalo, and Miss Pool, of Toronto, are visiting at Mr. Wm. Purvise's.

Mr. Fred Suggitt and his brother Thomas have gone to Toronto. Fred goes back to Chicago. Tom is going to make his home at Eugenia for the present.

Mrs. Plantt and Miss Mary Williams have gone to Toronto.

Miss Lou Phillips, of Maxwell, has been visiting at her uncle's, Mr. Robert Hawkins, near Salem.

Mr. John Williams, Mr. James Woodburn and Mrs. Woodburn, and Miss Sarah Pedlar, have gone to the city.

Mr. George Meldrum has returned home from Colorado, the climate of that place not agreeing with him. His many friends were glad to see him home again.

A Grand Trunk freight train was derailed on Saturday morning near Fergus and the fireman, James Laing, killed.
