Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

Threshing operations have begun, and although we are not very near a railway station yet we can now hear a whistle.

A number from here took in the exhibition at Collingwood and report having a very good time. The fun G. had through the day was all spoiled by a 23 mile walk at night. Some changing of ladies from one rig to another was done, this also made times pleasant.

On Tuesday the Osprey fall show was held at Singhampton.

Mr. David Madill, the popular agent, gave us a pleasant call last Friday, and Mr. Wm. Roberts, of Haliburton passed through on Thursday.

Miss Blakely has been visiting her sister Mrs. J. Little, for some time.

Mr. Thomas Gamey jr., visited his parental home a few days last week. Tom looks as well as ever and reports doing a good business.

The infant son of Mr. Dee Field was buried here the week before last. We sympathise with Mr. and Mrs. Field in their sorrowing moments over the loss of their first-born.

On the first of October a nice little girl came to Mr. Emerson's. At the time of writing we are pleased to say that mother and daughter are doing well.

Master Will Guy got some burdock seeds in his eyes last week which caused him much pain; but we are glad to say he will soon be all right again.

And still they lose; this time some small crabapples are gone. Our losses during the summer have been, pork, hens, eggs (we mean hens and eggs separate), milk, turnips, cream and apples. If we continue to lose in this way we must move away from Maxwell.

School is closed to-day and to-morrow owing to our teacher, J. L. Wood, attending the association at Flesherton.

We are pleased to know that our former teacher, J. L. Wood, is re-engaged here for next year.

COUNTY AND DISTRICT.

A young man named John W. Aiken attempted to chastise the editor of the Orangeville Advertiser last week, but it kicked the wrong way. It cost him $23.30, minus satisfaction.

The Storey family of Amaranth have passed through a terrible affliction during the past few weeks. Since the outbreak of diphtheria in their midst no less than five members, ranging from 14 to 23 years of age, have succumbed to the dreaded disease and have been laid away in the silent grave. Two or three deaths have also occurred from the same cause in other families in Amaranth, but the epidemic is now believed to have spent itself. The schools and churches adjacent to Whittington are still closed.—Orangeville Advertiser.

MANY A LIFE

HAS been saved by the prompt use of Ayer's Pills. Travelers by land or sea are liable to constipation or other derangements of the stomach and bowels which, if neglected, lead to serious and often fatal consequences. The most sure means of correcting these evils is the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. The prudent sailing-master would as soon go to sea without his chronometer as without a supply of these Pills. Though prompt and energetic in operation, Ayer's Pills leave no ill effects; they are purely vegetable and sugar-coated; the safest medicine for old and young, at home or abroad.

"For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so bad that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the bowels recovered their natural and regular action, so that now I am in health."—Mrs. C. E. Clark, Tewksbury, Massachusetts.

"I regard Ayer's Pills as one of the most reliable general remedies of our times. They have been in use in my family for affections requiring a purgative, and have given unvarying satisfaction. We have found them an excellent remedy for colds and light fevers."—W. R. Woodson, Fort Worth, Texas.

"For several years I have relied more upon Ayer's Pills than upon anything else in the medicine chest, to regulate my bowels and those of the ship's crew. These Pills are not severe in their action, but do their work thoroughly. I have used them with good effect for the cure of rheumatism, kidney troubles, and dyspepsia."—Capt. Mueller, Steamship Pelicia, New York City.

"I have found Ayer's Cathartic Pills to be a better family medicine for common use than any other pills within my knowledge. They are not only very effective, but safe and pleasant to take—qualities which must make them valued by the public."—Jules Haul, Perfumer, Philadelphia, Pa.

Are you contemplating Matrimony?

This is rather a delicate question, but

CONFIDE IN ME

and I'll be silent as an oyster. I only want to help you make a selection of

Furniture

I have the necessary experience, ditto the Furniture. In the first place you'll need a kitchen table and some common chairs. For the dining room you must have a nice sideboard, oak or walnut, with chairs and table to match. An extension table it must be for your mother-in-law, your cousins and aunts will be on hand soon after the honeymoon.

Don't have horse-hair furniture in the dining room; it's old-fashioned and out of date. Get a cosy lounge in a handsome brocade or rep and plush. A high-backed oaken rocker comes next. Then a couple of those exceedingly pretty oak chairs with cane seats, and a couple in oil-finished walnut with plush or rep seats, make an agreeable variety. Something in rattan, such as a lady's chair, a music rack or work basket looks well, while every properly equipped drawing room has a fancy centre or corner table of some kind. The designs in mahogany, antique oak and walnut are very handsome.

As for Bedroom Sets the range in styles is most extensive, and it is really surprising what elegant outfits may be had for very little money. I blush deeply when I speak of Cradles, High Chairs, and Perambulators, and perhaps am a little too previous, but I might just as well say that Rattan ware is the favorite for all these interesting articles. If I have forgotten anything, pray don't hesitate to mention it when you call on

Yours in strictest confidence,

H. E. McNea,

Furniture Warerooms,

FLESHERTON.

P. S.—Perhaps you do not intend to take such an important step as the above just at present, but you may know of a friend who does. If so, be kind enough to say a good word for me. You would also do some married friend a favor by telling him, or her, about my extensive stock of Furniture at prices to suit all pockets. Tell them to call and see our cheap Bedroom suits, well finished, light or dark for $10.50. We have also a fine stock in Mahogany suites, Centre Tables, Plush ockers, Beds, and Hall Stands. Picture framing done on short notice. Also a large stock of Funeral Furnishings. Good horse and prompt attention at the Variety Hall Furniture Warerooms.
