GOOD NEWS.

Here is good news for all you people who know the value of a dollar. Stand up and tell us if you can, where lives the man or woman who is not anxious to get the most in quantity and value for every dollar they spend. Such people do not exist in this community, therefore we have something to communicate that is of great interest to all.

WE CALL YOUR ATTENTION TO A FULL LINE

Of new and seasonable goods which possess those desirable features in quality and price that stamp them as bargains. The firm who is fortunate enough to have a stock like ours certainly has the right to

TOOT THE HORN

A little in their own behalf, but we shall make no more noise about our stock than is absolutely necessary to induce our friends and neighbors to come in and

: LOOK OVER :

Our immense line of seasonable attractions. A great outlay of hard work, hard sense and hard cash has been expended to make our stock all that critical buyers could possibly demand in variety, quality and price. We have succeeded in gathering together a line of goods that is above criticism or reproach, and when we inform you that they may be yours at lowest living prices

WE CAN GO NO FURTHER.

Surely you will see that it will be to your advantage to call and investigate our claims for your patronage. When it costs you nothing to look, and you are not expected to purchase unless our fine goods and low prices prove irresistible appeals to your

JUDGEMENT.

If doubt exists in your minds about our good intentions do not condemn us before making a fair comparison between our stock and that of our competitors. Call and see for yourselves and be convinced.

McDONALD & EVANS.

Kimberley.

From our own Correspondent.

Squire Stewart left on Tuesday, the 6th inst., for the happy hunting grounds of Muskoka, where he intends to spend at least one month. He says he will get five deer before he returns, if possible. We wonder if one of them will be the "come to my arms dear," or will they be all verison deer. Messrs. Chas. Howe, R. Jenoe, Arthur Ellis, Jas. and Thos. Fawcett, left on Monday of this week for the same place. We hope the boys will have a good time.

Mr. Hammond, our genial merchant, has purchased a very nice bicycle. He had a tricycle, which amused the children so much that he thought he would buy a bicycle, and we think it will be "foine amusement for the wee 'uns."

Mr. Frazer, of Owen Sound, initiated two candidates into the Baptist church on Monday of last week by immersion in the Beaver river, where the boys stood the ordeal well, considering the coldness of the water. After the ceremony was over the people repaired to the village hall where they listened to a very nice, and, we trust, very impressive discourse. We might here say, if the people of Kimberley and vicinity are not prepared to meet the Great Judge at the last and great assizes it will not be for want of advice, as we have three zealous christians (in our opinion) working amongst us, viz., Mr. Thompson, Methodist; Mr. Moore, Quaker or Friend, and Mr. Johnson, Baptist. Mr. Johnson comes every Tuesday, Mr. Thompson in the morning of one Sabbath and the evening of the next; while Mr. Moore comes alternate Sabbaths in the evening.

Mr. Jas. Fawcett shot a red fox on Saturday, and fired at, or pulled the trigger at, another, but his gun did not go off. Say! If Jim did not feel like saying something that would not look well in print! We will say no more.

Mr. Ferguson had a valuable sheep killed by dogs on Saturday night. People owning good dogs should tie them up, and then set out strychnine and go in for making dog skin mits.

Inistioge.

From our own Correspondent.

Following are the names of the officers of the Inistioge division Sons of Temperance for the fall term: Robert Acheson, W. P.; Edith Armstrong, W. A.; Chris. Acheson, R.S.; Howard Armstrong, A. S.; Eli S. Hames, F. S.; Thos. McQuay, Treasurer; Wm. Hames, Chaplain; Meril Nicholes, Conductor; Kate Acheson, A.C.; Percy Nicholes, I.S.; Jos. McQuay, O. S.; Annie Bannon, P. W.

Mrs. Lonsway is yet on the sick list and her medical attendant considers her case a most serious one.

Mr. Samuel Henderson, of Priceville, has purchased Mr. John L. Moore's property here. Mr. Moore intends removing to Owen Sound to live.

170 boxes of cheese were recently shipped from the Victoria cheese factory here. 9½ cts. was the price received.

Miss Osborn, teacher of our school, was on Thursday and Friday last to Flesherton attending the teachers' association.

Mr. George Ludlow's dwelling house is nearing completion, it is a neat and commodious building, and we trust that Mr. Ludlow and family will live long to enjoy it.

Swinton Park.

From our own Correspondent.

News is a scarce commodity with us this week.

Our genial merchant has invested in a brau new blue pump. This looks encouraging. A fence will be the next addendum.

Miss M. Smith, of the College, and W. J. Blakeston of the academy attended the teachers' convention of South Grey held in Flesherton on the 8th and 9th. They report a profitable and pleasant time.

Miss Gertie Nelson is visiting friends in the vicinity of Markdale.

The entertainment to be given at the formal opening of the new college on Monday evening 19th, promises to be a rare treat.

Mrs. Murray of Markdale paid a brief visit to Mr. Hugh Wilson's lately.

Mrs. Brown of Berlin is visiting at her parental home, Mr. H. Hannam's.

"Opposition is the life of trade," but it may be the death of it in S. P. and vicinity as far as threshing is concerned, as five different machines thresh the grain on five adjoining farms. Go it while you're young boys.

The Reviewer.

Some idea of what the illustration of a magazine means, may be obtained from the announcement that the publishers of the Cosmopolitan paid Madeleine Lemaire for the illustration of "Three Women of the Cornelia Francis" ten times the amount paid for the article. Madame Lemaire is one of the most famous of French illustrators, and her work in the Cosmopolitan this month is accompanied by that of Kate H. Greatorex, A. F. Jacassay, F. G. Atwood, Dan. C. Beaser, W. H. Gaster, F. G. S. Bruce, C. R. Grant and others. The illustration of the Cosmopolitan has always been one of its special features, but this month it exceeds in this respect all previous numbers. Amelie Rives striking story "According to St. John" is brought to a dramatic close in this number. No other piece of current fiction by an American author has attracted so wide attention as this tale of Paris life, and the concluding pages fully sustain the interest awakened by the earlier chapters. A new feature of the Cosmopolitan, and one which is original with that magazine, is the publication each month, in the forms of brief notes, of a number of little portraits with brief biographies, of the writers of the various articles. However widely read one may be, there is apt to be something of information lacking regarding the vast number of writers who appear in the periodicals of the present day, so that these brief biographies and small portraits are proving very satisfactory to the average reader. An unusual magazine feature, and one which will be read with avidity by women who are curious regarding Turkish life, is an article on "Modern Women of Turkey," a beautiful description of Oriental life by Osman Bey, a distinguished Turkish gentleman now visiting the United States. The most timely article of the number is a description of the New Desert Lake—the phenomenon of the barren region of the south-west. Besides the story by Amelie Rives, Hjalmar Hjorth Boyesen contributes a short story of Norwegian life, in which a beautiful mare figures as the chief character—a charming story for all lovers of the horse. The chief feature of the number, however, is an article on Cincinnati by the man who is most capable of preparing something interesting on that city—Mural Halstead—illustrated by sketches by Jacassay, who visited Cincinnati for that purpose.

People Wonder

WHEN they find how rapidly health is restored by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The reason is that this preparation contains only the purest and most powerful alteratives and tonics. To thousands yearly it proves a veritable elixir of life.

Mrs. Jos. Lake, Brockway Centre, Mich., writes: "Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony. I was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food I could not digest at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an in my condition, my appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life, and I cannot thank you too much."

"We, the undersigned, citizens of Brockway Centre, Mich., hereby certify that the above statement, made by Mrs. Lake, is true in every particular and entitled to full credence."—O. P. Chamberlain, G. W. Waring, C. A. Wells, Druggist.

"My brother, in England, was, for a long time, unable to attend to his occupation, by reason of sores on his foot. I sent him Ayer's Sarsaparilla and the testimonials it contained induced him to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using it a little while, he was cured, and is now a well man, working in a sugar mill at Brisbane, Queensland, Australia."—A. Attewell, Sharbot Lake, Ontario.
