COUNTY AND DISTRICT.

Hugh Smith, of Black's corners, near Shelburne, had fifteen sheep worried by dogs last week.

Thos. and Robert Storey, of Melancthon, were fined $1 and costs each for catching speckled trout out of season.

Samuel Leeson, of Erin, aged 60 years, was crushed to death by a huge stone weighing 20 tons, which he had been preparing to sink into the ground. The body was terribly mangled.

L. Taylor, of Clavering, had a stick 3 1/2 inches long by half an inch wide extracted from his neck, where it had become forced in the logging field, and is recovering nicely. Guelph physicians think it a remarkable case and will preserve the stick, while Mr. Taylor will be allowed to preserve his neck, it is hoped, for many years to come.

Navigation is drawing to a close. The Baltic makes her last trip to-night, the Atlantic on the 21st inst., and the Pacific on the 24th. The last trip to be made by a C.P.R. liner will be on the 28th, and the Favorite will bring her season to a close with this trip. Of course all this depends on the state of the weather and the demand for freight carriage. If the weather continues good and there is a press of freight, extra trips will be made. Still, as a prominent vessel man remarked yesterday, "the back-bone of the fall trade is now broken."—[O. S. Times.

BRACEBRIDGE, Ont., Nov. 8th.—More than a month since an Englishman named David Allen, who resided in the Magneta wan District, and who spent considerable of his time hunting, started to examine his traps, but failed to return. For ten days an uninterrupted search was kept up in the woods, it being supposed that he had wandered away and become lost. The search was unproductive of results, however. The mystery surrounding his fate was accidentally unveiled Friday by two hunters, who chanced to look in a cove of bushes. Lying upon the ground, face downward, was the dead body of the hunter, and the condition of the body and the ground showed that he had met a horrible death from starvation. Both of his hands were securely fastened in a bear trap. He had evidently been in the act of setting the trap when by some means the trap closed upon his wrists with a vice-like grip. Unable to re-escape himself with no hope of making his voice heard in that vast wilderness, he suffered the most excruciating mental tortures until starvation, and exposure combined, ended his existence. His wrists were frightfully lacerated where an attempt had been made to wrench his hands free.
