RESOLVED—That we view with pleasure and gratitude the wise and benign financial and commercial policy of the Federal Government, tending as it does to the development of our country by assisting and protecting the various industries, both manufacturing, commercial and agricultural and keeping Canada for the Canadians.

Several very interesting speeches were delivered during the course of the afternoon, the speakers being Dr. Sproule, Major Rorke, Neil McColman, J. Jamieson and M. Richardson. The speeches of Dr. Sproule and Mr. Richardson were specially worthy of attention as being pointed, pithy and instructive.

The meeting was very harmonious, and all agreed that the party must avoid all differences and work together for the public weal.

The subject of the formation of Young Men's Liberal clubs in the riding was discussed, and President Kells will endeavor to inaugurate such.

After music D. McRae was introduced. He said the subject he would speak on was "Beautifying the Home." He said he was pleased to notice how this Canada of ours was improving. It was said the streets of Jerusalem were kept clean by each one sweeping opposite his own door.

The meeting then adjourned. Lady Bank. From our own Correspondent. Elections have moved smoothly hereabouts.
