To the Editor of The Advance.
 DEAR SIR—I regret, in your issue of 31st ult., inistioqe correspondent should have cast reflections on the secretary of Inistioqe Sabbath school, as they were unnecessary and untrue, as the following will show: First the superintendent gave his report, second the secretary, third the treasurer, and fourth the librarians, so that there was nothing mixed or broken, each giving a report of the matters pertaining to his office. Thanking you for space, respectfully,
 T. W. M. QUAY,

From our own Correspondent.

The old year has gone and the new has come, and along with it lots of snow, good roads and business in general.

Our energetic timber drawer, Mr. Lmley, is again hustling the timber out of the bush. John has got the push, and you will soon see timber string through Flesherton.

Mr. Richard Ottewell, of Warton, is visiting his brother in this place. He is holding special services in Providence church. Our earnest prayer is that God may bless his efforts in the salvation of many souls.

Our esteemed teacher, Mr. Treadgold, has got settled down. We hope he may be successful in his school work.

The home of Mr. Wm. Dand was made glad by the arrival of a young daughter. Come on with your organ agents in this vicinity.

The talk about our mill and the bad wheat has about all settled. Your correspondent thinks it is about time.

"Like Magic,"

THE effect produced by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Colds, Coughs, Croup, and Sore Throat are, in most cases, immediately relieved by the use of this wonderful remedy. It strengthens the vocal organs, allays irritation, and prevents the inroads of Consumption; in every stage of that dread disease, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral relieves coughing and induces refreshing rest.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for thirty years and have always found it the best remedy for croup, to which complaint my children have been subject."—Capt. U. Carley, Brooklyn, N. Y.

"From an experience of over thirty years in the sale of proprietary medicines, I feel justified in recommending Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. One of the best recommendations of the Pectoral is the enduring quality of its popularity, it being more salable now than it was twenty-five years ago, when its great success was considered marvelous."—R. S. Drake, M. D., Beloit, Kans.

"My little sister, four years of age, was so ill from bronchitis that we had almost given up hope of her recovery. Our family physician, a skillful man and of large experience, pronounced it useless to give her any more medicine; saying that he had done all it was possible to do, and we must prepare for the worst. As a last resort, we determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and I can truly say, with the most happy results, that after taking a few doses she seemed to breathe easier, and, within a week, was out of danger. We continued giving the Pectoral until satisfied she was entirely well. This has given me unbounded faith in the preparation, and I recommend it confidently to my customers."—C. O. Lepper, Druggist, Fort Wayne, Ind.
