THE STORE ON THE HILL

Eugenia

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. Editor, news has been rather scarce of late. The only plentiful article to be seen is lots of snow and occasionally a good blow, which leaves the roads in a condition that makes travelling anything but a pleasure, especially if one gets jumped out in the drifts two or three times in one day, as your humble correspondent had a trial of it, and therefore knows how it goes.

La grippe is still amongst us. One after another in our community is laid up with it, but so far we have great reason to be thankful, as there have been no fatal cases of it in our healthy little town.

Mr. Joseph Pedlar has been laid up with grip for over two weeks, but is now on the way to recovery.

Mr. Henry Fenwick was very sick but is now better.

Mr. Jas. Woodburn has been very sick with grip during the past week.

Mrs. Hoath, sr., is also very low at present.

We hear that Mr. George Latimer has concluded to retire from farming. He has purchased a very pretty house and lot in Eugenia. He and his esteemed partner are in for taking some comfort in their declining years. We extend them a hearty welcome, and hope they will be spared many happy years in their new home.

We are also pleased to hear that Mr. William Sloan, of Toronto, is taking up his residence in Eugenia. There is plenty of room yet at Eugenia for a good many more, and we are still glad to see people coming to settle among us.

The social that was held in the Orange Hall in connection with the Presbyterian church here was quite a success. Although the weather was cold and stormy, and the roads bad, yet a good many came out, and every one declared they had a good time. The proceeds amounted to about twenty dollars.

Miss Tudor of Seaforth is visiting at her aunt's, Mrs. Henry Williams.

Mr. Will Fenwick, of Toronto, was visiting his parents here last week.

Flesherton Station.

By Our Reporter.

A number of the citizens of this town drove out to the "cap" social on Friday evening last, and had a famous time going and coming.

Mr. Huston, of Kincairdine, came to visit friends in this part, but happened with the misfortune of losing his horse by inflammation of the lungs, the day after his arrival.

Mr. J. M. Quinn, barrister and solicitor of Toronto, is spending the the last week in this town, and looking after interests of the Cosgrove brewing and malting establishment, mixing business with pleasure.

The wheel moves round, and at every turn some one is sure to win and others to loose. Mr. Dan. G. McLean has rented the Railroad Hotel and will try to make a successful draw, while at the previous turn, Mr. Fred T. Mullen drew a blank, nevertheless Dan, is going to give a turn and wait, see if he don't turn it in a way you would call genteel. There surely must be wealth in "grog" that is, to the seller, and headaches to the buyer.

Inistioe.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. & Mrs. James Waikley, of Bolton, Ont., who have been visiting at Mr. Samuel Waikley's here, returned home on Friday last.

Mr. Waikley's sale was numerously attended on Wednesday last, and most of the articles offered for sale sold reasonably well. The farm is rented to Mr. Thos. Ludlow, jr.

The Rev. Mr. Tonge, of Flesherton, in company with our pastor conducted the missionary services here on Sunday last.

Mrs. Robert Cornett left on Monday to visit her mother.

Mr. William Hames has been very sick, but from latest accounts is much better.

Mr. Thorp Wright is pressing and shipping hay in this vicinity.

It has been announced that special services of a religious nature will be conducted in the church here by a lady evangelist. They will commence about the 1st of March.

The grip has released his hold in this vicinity. No one is sorry.

Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

The roads have been very bad lately but are now improving.

Sickness is yet amongst us and at time of writing Mr. Scott is dangerously ill. Three doctors have already been attendance. Mr. Madill is improving very slowly.

Miss Blakely, of Flesherton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Little.

Mrs. Madill's sister was up to see her, but has returned, and Mrs. Murta and Mrs. Wright have returned to their homes at Dakota and Parry Sound respectively.

Mr. Milton Brownridge received a slight injury lately.

Mr. Will Bemrose returned on last Sunday.

School was closed a couple of days last week on account of our teacher having to attend the sick bed of his mother, who is in Orangeville.

The post office case did not amount to much, a fact which proves that our post office is conducted in a very satisfactory manner.

The Rev. Ross leaves us, and the Rev. Russell takes his place.

Our Epworth League is doing well and is now getting a long list of members.

Wanted—A harness maker in Maxwell at once.

Mount Zion.

From our own Correspondent.

Rev. G. H. Cobblestick, of Dundalk, preached a very interesting and instructive missionary sermon here a week ago last Sunday.

Mount Zion has been highly honored during the past week by the presence of life insurance agents, it being a rare sight to see two or three agents in that line on the war path here at once. We believe quite a number of the people have been interested, some preferring one company, some another. Time will prove them.

Mrs. Cornfield is no better.

A rebellion has broken out again on the third line.

Feverham News.

From our own Correspondent.

Osprey Council met for business last Saturday. Some talk of them building a stone bridge across the Beaver river here. We believe an iron bridge would be better and cheaper.

The dam is now completed, except the hole in the bottom. Much anxiety is felt among the shareholders for fear that the dam gets washed out again. We hope such a thing may not occur. We understood by The Advance some time ago that $400 without extras was to build the dam, and it is now reported that Mr. E. Morton wants $50 for gravel supplied. Would not that be considered extras.

Miss Maclear is visiting at her sister's, Mrs. R. T. McGirr.

Mr. James Adair, of Toronto, has been a guest at the Beaver for the last week.

Rev. Mr. Russell preaches in Feverham on Sunday at half past two.

I. B. Lucas, barrister, Markdale, has $10,000 private funds to lend on farm mortgages within the next few months at lowest current rates. No commissions, no delays, expenses low. Apply at office in Markdale during the week or at Dundalk office on Saturdays.

Monday was a national holiday in the United States—Washington's birthday.

While unharnessing a horse at the residence of his employer, Mr. Dietrich, in Galt Monday William Huntsberger was kicked by the animal, and died almost instantly.
