Song of the Snow Shovel.

"Scrawk! Scrawk! Scrawk!"
Shovel the snow from your broad sidewalk;
Wake up the neighbor who sighs for a snore;
Rest for a moment, then give him some more
"Scrawk! Scrawk! Scrawkity! Scrawk!"
Heed not the whirlwind of wild, wicked talk
That answers each burst of your snow shovel din,
Filing up volumes of records of sin.
Just when the dawn is beginning to peep,
Just when we feel the true value of sleep,
Get out the shovel and all slumber balk
With a "Scrawk! Scrawk! Scrawkity! Scrawk!"

A large quantity of beautiful square pine timber has been coming in from Osprey during the past week. It seems a great pity that this fine timber should be sent out of the country. It will all be required here.

Remember that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has no equal as a specific for colds, coughs, and all affections of the throat and lungs. For nearly half a century it has been in greater demand than any other remedy for pulmonary complaints. All druggists have it for sale.

Priceville people are agitating for a night mail from Flesherton. This is a desideratum which they are deserving of and we hope their anticipations will be fulfilled. As matters now stand the stage driver brings a mail from Priceville at night but takes none back on his return. The matter can be adjusted without any extra expense being incurred, and consequently it ought to come.

It is quite probable that you may need the services of a physician some day; but you can postpone the time indefinitely by keeping your blood pure and your system invigorated through the use of Ayer's Sarsaparila. Prevention is better than cure.

Day after day the evidence accumulates that the "Myrtle Navy" is the people's favorite tobacco. The demand keeps increasing, and from every new circle of consumers who have been induced to try it the evidence is emphatic in its favor. Its genuine qualities always hold the friends they have once made. These qualities will be kept to their full standard by the manufacturers of it. It is to these qualities and the reasonableness of the price that they attribute their marked success. To the quality they will adhere at all cost, and also the price if that be possible.

That is the extra amount which has been placed in the Ontario estimates for the riding agricultural societies, as a result of the efforts put forth by the officers of the various associations in the province. Mr. S. Damude, of this village, has a long head, and as the instigator of the movement treasuryward deserves full credit for the result obtained. He has been an indefatigable worker. The hundred dollars will aid very materially towards making the East Grey show one of the best in the province, and now that the debt has been wiped off the property we may look for a material addition to the prizes and consequently a still more successful show.

Obituary.

It is with sorrow that we have to chronicle the death of Mrs. Samuel Warling, daughter of Mr. Jas. Brodie, who died at her home near Priceville on Friday, 19th inst., aged 25 years and five months. Deceased leaves a family of two small children. The remains were interred in the Meaford Road burial ground. Mr. James Brodie has the deep sympathy of our residents, he having lost his father who lived at Brampton, his daughter and a little grandchild, all within two weeks. Mr. Warling also has our deepest sympathy.

Miss Sarah Carson, who has for long been an invalid, passed away from earthly suffering at the residence of her father, Colwell Carson, on Thursday of last week. The funeral took place on Saturday to Irwin's burial ground, gravel road.

I. O. O. F. Concert.

The concert held in the Town Hall last Tuesday evening under the auspices of the above society was well attended, and the program successfully carried out. As announced by the bills Dr. Ego, of Markdale, was to have occupied the chair, but being unable to attend, Mr. A. S. Vandusen filled the throne very creditably. The greater part of the entertainment was made up of local talent assisted by Mr. W. E. Ramsey, comic vocalist and elocutionist, of Toronto. This was Mr. Ramsey's first appearance in Flesherton, and he was well received by his audience. The Misses Kells, in their club swinging and dumb bell exercises were heartily appreciated. The local talent, however, seem to have lost none of their favor for the appreciation in which the selections they gave were held was heartily manifested. The quartette and quintette are deserving of special notice. Flesherton orchestra enlivened proceedings greatly with excellent music.

An editor died and slowly wended his way down to where he supposed a warm reception awaited him. The devil met him and said: "For many years thou hast borne the blame for the errors that the printers made in the papers. The paper has gone, alas! for one dollar. Alas! The dollar has often failed to come in. The printers have bedeviled thee for wages on Saturday night when thou hadst not a cent to thy name. Men have taken the paper without paying for it, and cursed thee for not getting up a better paper. Thou hast been called a dead beat and a fraud by men that were both. All these things thou hast borne in silence. Thou can'st not come here." And he fired him. As he did so he murmured to himself: "Heaven's his home, and besides if we had let him come in here he would have been continually dunning his delinquent subscribers and thus created discord in my kingdom."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
