In Memoriam.

Lines written on the death of Stella McLean, who died March 14th, '92, aged 1 year, 10 months and 10 days.

The little face is wan and pale,
The little life has ebbed away,
The spirit freed, has taken flight
To realms of bright eternal day.

God says, "The spirits of mankind,
While in their infancy are pure,
Through Christ, who did from Adams' sin,
Redemption to the race secure."

Her stricken parents mourns their loss,
But think of her as far ahead,
Where angels and perfected saints,
Speak blessings o'er her sinless head.

"Yea from this time henceforth," saith
Christ,
"The dead who die in me are blest,
Their works of love shall follow them,
And from their labors they shall rest."

The little one that went away,
Ere once her feet a thorn had trod,
Has entered into rest, while we
Must work with fear, our way to God.

Yes, we must tread the thorny path,
Our way lies through the vale of tears,
Our hearts may grow in love to God,
Through toil and grief for many years.

MAGGIE CAMPBELL.

Flesherton Station.

By Our Reporter.

We understand there are some very good openings in the village to the west of us (Priceville) for a few live, energetic young men, such as a jeweler, a conveyancer, or livery stable, or all three combined would do quite a "trade."

Messrs. William and Peter Muir, jr., start next Tuesday for Montana.

Mr. Angus McInnes has a gang of men loading timber at this station.

Mr. Mark Stewart has sub-let his ranch to Donald Baxter, and is going west himself.

Messrs. John and Roderick McLeod left on Monday last for Massachusetts where there is a situation awaiting them. Success boys.

Mr. D. D. McFarlane and family left on Monday last for the neighborhood of Uxbridge, where he intends starting a new store. The young men of the burgh will miss him for a "hangout" in the evenings, as Mac was quite a conversationalist and a politician. William Hogg is coming in his place, and is laying in a large stock of goods. He did not create a very favorable impression on the boys at his first appearance.

Eugenia

From our own Correspondent.

Mrs. James McGee made her husband very happy one day last week by presenting him with a very handsome young daughter.

Mrs. Jas. Carson, also, the same day, presented Mr. Carson with a fine little girl. Of course all concerned are quite proud of such important events.

There are rumors of more weddings about to come off. I thought when the grip went away the weddings would cease for a while, but they are still going on as brisk as ever.

Mr. Joseph Fenwick, Tom Fenwick and Will Smart have gone to spend the summer near Brampton. They are all good boys, at least the girls say so, and they ought to know. There has been some weeping and wailing for them since they left.

Mr. Andrew Graham has gone to try his fortune in Manitoba. We wish him success.

Mr. Wesley Pedlar has gone to visit his friends in Mariposa.

Mrs. Hollinger, of Toronto, is now visiting her friends in this part of the country. All are pleased to see her around again.

Feversham News.

From our own Correspondent.

Spring is in our midst, which goes to prove that we are always on the jump.

Plowing has commenced, the first in our neighborhood to break the soil being Mr. Mungo Dand.

Great rejoicing at Mine Host's, the secret being the arrival last Sunday of a daughter. Both mother and child are doing well.

From the rapidity with which the snow melted the strength of the dam was severely tested, and we are pleased to know that it stood it well.

All fears of the dam washing out are gone.

The directors of the O. F. & M. Co. are face to face with the unpleasant task of raising about four thousand dollars. At present it is quite an undertaking, as money seems harder to get than gravel.

A union meeting of the three Presbyterian churches was held here last Monday. Business of importance was the announcement.

Our genial butcher is at present considering a scheme which, if successful, will supply our town with sidewalks. George, you have our voice in the matter. Tenders will be received for Mayor, said tenders to be left at E. Brodie's office not later than the last day.

Ladies appreciate Anti-Dandruff from the fact that it not only thoroughly removes Dandruff with three applications, but stops falling of the hair, restores fading hair to its original color, and makes it soft and pliable without leaving any indication of dressing being used—clear as crystal, clean to use, it is a valuable toilet preparation.

Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

The Epworth League concert which came off on Friday, the 25th, was a grand success. The Rev. H. A. Brown occupied the chair, and thus order prevailed. The members of the League all, or nearly all, took some part in the program, and besides Mr. Shea gave a short and pointed address. Messrs. Little and Heron and Miss Hamblin gave some elegant instrumental music, and the Misses McKee some superior vocal music. This is the first attempt in that line for our League, and it was in every sense of the term a successful one.

Several around here have been suffering from inflammation lately, but all are recovering.

Mr. Brown, of Singhampton, has some of the material on hand for the kitchen at the hotel.

Mr. Chas. Scheniman returned home from Parry Sound last week.

Messrs. E. and Thos. Blakely gave us a call a short time ago. They are both looking well, and nursing does not seem to have made the latter fall much—we mean nursing sore fingers.

Mr. Jeremiah Kinghorn left a short time ago to work with Mr. Akitt.

Mr. Joseph Kerton has been visiting friends here for a time.

Mr. Andrew Potts returned home last week, and Mr. Radley of Toronto spent a few days with friends here.

Mr. Parker has moved from Mr. David Madill's farm to Mr. John Madill's on the 4th.

Sugar making is now the chief industry, and on Monday the sap ran down both inside and outside the tree.

Wanted—More sidewalk in Maxwell. Tenders received till the 19th of April.

A. Audette, proprietor House of Commons barber shop, Ottawa, says: A number of my customers are using Anti Dandruff, and it gives the best of satisfaction and I consider it a success for the purpose advertised.

Kimberley.

From our own Correspondent.

ANOTHER PRESENTATION—Mr. Wm. Simpson, who lost his wife last fall after 15 months' sickness was presented on the 2nd inst. with $42.25 to help him buy a horse, he having lost one in the commencement of winter. The amount was not great, nevertheless enough to convince Mr. Simpson that the sympathy of some who profess to have sympathy for him was more than merely gas, as it is the case too often. I would strongly advise those gas sympathizers to read the following passages of Scripture: James 2: 15, 16; 1 John 3: 18; Luke 3: 11.

Sowing will commence here in a few days if the weather keeps good. Fall wheat has not looked as well for a number of years as it does this spring.

Miss R. G. Thurston is recovering nicely from her late sickness.
