W. H. THURSTON,
Editor and Proprietor

The date for the Liberal Conservative convention to be held in Flesherton has not yet been set, but will entirely depend upon the duration of the present session of parliament. It will probably be early in July. Sir John Thompson and Hon. Mr. Tupper have pledged their word to be present. This announcement of itself will be sufficient to draw an enormous crowd of visitors to our town. Let us see to it that sufficient accommodation is secured and the village made as attractive as possible for the occasion. Committees should be appointed to get things in shape, so soon as the date is announced, which will be very shortly.

Meaford Road.

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. W. J. Holley and family have returned back here again. They have been living in Warton for the last three or four years, but think that they can do better here. Mr. Holley is working at his trade as a stone mason. He has secured several good jobs since his return here.

Last week the school children had a two days' holiday, the teacher, Mr. Wickham, being in attendance at the teachers' convention in Markdale.

Mr. Jas. Brodie, the Orange County Master of South Grey, was down to Montreal last week attending the annual meeting of the Supreme Grand Orange Lodge of British America.

The outlook here at present for lots of fruit is immense.

Eugenia

From our own Correspondent.

The sad and sudden death of Mrs. Sherholtz of the Eugenia house on Wednesday last, cast a gloom over this community. Inflammation of the lungs carried her off in four days, at the early age of twenty-seven. Deceased was of a kind disposition and endeared herself to all. Her sorrowing husband and her parents have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement. A large number followed her remains to the Flesherton cemetery. The funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Wells, at the Orange Hall, to a large congregation, on Sabbath afternoon.

Mr. Jake Williams, of Flesherton, was visiting his friends here on Sabbath last.

Mr. George Meldrum has been on the sick list for the past two weeks.

Mr. Leonard Latimer has brought home a wife, finding out it was not good for man to be alone. We tender our congratulations.

Mr. Thomas Latimer has gone to Brampton for the summer.

Lady Bank.

From our own Correspondent.

You may not know that we are having splendid weather, with big indications of good hay and fine crops.

On Thursday a young lad, aged 16, employed by Jno. Pool, named William Green, met with an accident that resulted in his death the next day. No one saw the manner in which he was injured, but Mr. Treadgold, teacher, heard him calling for help. It is supposed he had been half an hour calling before he was heard. Dr. Scott was sent for, but medical help was unavailing. His injuries were internal. On Sunday he was buried by the S. A. in the Providence burial ground. The lad had no relatives round him in his last moments, but he was well cared for, and was followed to the grave by a large concourse, led by Salvation Army pall bearers. He had joined the S. A. a few days ago, and had given every evidence of a reformed, if not a converted life. He sang before he died "Safe in the arms of Jesus." At the burial the S. A. had their flag furled and drum muffled, and as they approached the church they dimounted and sang, and played the accordion, and beat the drum and had a testimony meeting over the grave, followed by several solos and choruses. The whole ceremony was unique and quite a departure from the common and orthodox method of burying the dead. I need hardly say that several of those present would prefer a quieter way of being put in the narrow bed.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

The fine rains of last week freshened the crops wonderfully in this somewhat hilly district.

A team belonging to Mr. Noble Wilson of Egremont, ran away last Saturday, and made a complete circuit of half of the village. No damage was done.

Mr. A. J. Husband took honors in English, and first class honors in French, German and Italian at the recent examinations held in Toronto University. Mr. Husband has just completed his first year in the foregoing institution. Congratulations Al.

Mr. Alexander, organizer of the Patrons of Industry, instituted a lodge in Priceville, June 2nd, with 14 members. Mr. D. McCormack was elected president.

The saw logs are getting scarce in the mill yard.

Fish stories are below par at present. The "speckled beauties" are either getting scarce, or else they have formed a "combine" to defeat the efforts of the wily angler.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's father, June 1st, Katie, second daughter of Mr. M. McDougal to Jno. McArthur, all of Priceville.

Messrs. Walls, of Orchardville, and Lyons, of Swinton Park, were the guests of principal Blakeston part of last week.

Master Jacob Parslow, of Swinton Park, is visiting friends in this village.

Messrs. D. McDonald, Neil McKinnon, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Blakestone, Misses Gussie Husband, Fanny James and Alice Ross attended the teachers' convention in Markdale last week. They speak highly of the entertainment furnished by the inimitable Bengough on Thursday afternoon and evening.

Epping.

From our own Correspondent.

Summer is here, and everybody is glad to see it. If we do not have a frost there will be an abundance of fruit this season. The trees were never more heavily blossomed.

Mr. James Knott raised a frame barn week before last.

Mr. G. Matthewson had the misfortune to lose one of his horses last week.

On Sunday, 5th inst., the wife of Mr. D. Wilson, of a son.

From where I am sitting I can hear the sound of "the alarming drum" as the boys are practising for the glorious twelfth. More powers to their elbows and may they have a glorious time.

The June Cosmopolitan.

In variety of subject and popular treatment the contents of the June Cosmopolitan furnish an attractive standard. The magazine is leading a movement for the solution of the problem of Aerial Navigation, an I. Hiram S. Maxim, the great inventor and foremost authority on the subject, gives the result of some recent experiments under the title, "The Aeroplane." St. George Mivart, who for forty years has been known to the public as an ardent student and thoughtful writer upon all subjects connected with evolution, begins a series of papers in the June Cosmopolitan, in which he will set forth the conclusions he has reached in regard to the great theory of natural selection and its philosophical bearings upon the religious thought of the day. The Magazine opens with a charming Philadelphia story by Janvier, with artistic illustrations from Wilson de Meza. Miss Hewitt, daughter of ex-Mayor Hewitt, gives some very sound advice regarding Fashions and Countercloths in Brie-a-Brac. Miss Hewitt is a connoisseur and an authority on such subjects, and the result of some unusual opportunities she has enjoyed for personally inspecting the manufacture of forged articles of vertu. The fiction includes mystical and peculiar story by Howard Pyle, the well-known illustrator, accompanied by two fine pictures of his, and "Maw," a rather striking character of slave life. Other interesting articles in this number are, "The Working of the Labor Department," by the Commissioner of Labor, Carroll D. Wright, and "Fur Seals in Alaska," Another sonnet of James Russell Lowell is published in this number and a poem by Luigi Deane with a full page illustration from the pen of Will Low. Many people will read with interest also the poem, "Mystery," by Amelia Rives. Among artists employed to illustrate this number are Kenyon Cox, H. Siddons Mowbray, Will H. Low, Wilson de Meza, Walter Crane, Howard Pyle and E. W. Kemble. Murat Halstead, Brander Matthews and Edward Everett Hale are among the other contributors.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

It is the "ideal" Hair-dressing. It restores the color to gray hair; promotes a fresh and vigorous growth; prevents the formation of dandruff; makes the hair soft and silken; and imparts a delicate but lasting perfume.

"Several months ago my hair commenced falling out, and in a few weeks my head was almost bald. I tried many remedies, but they did no good. I finally bought a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and, after using only a part of the contents, my hair was covered with a heavy growth of hair. I recommend your preparation as the best in the world."—T. Munday, Sharon Grove, Ky.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for a number of years, and it has always given me satisfaction. It is an excellent dressing, prevents the hair from turning gray, insures its vigorous growth, and keeps the scalp white and clean."—Mary A. Jackson, Salem, Mass.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for promoting the growth of the hair, and think it unequalled. For restoring the hair to its original color, and for a dressing, it cannot be surpassed."—Mrs. Geo. La Fever, Eaton Rapids, Mich.

"Ayer's Hair Vigor is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair and makes it glossy and soft. The Vigor is also a cure for dandruff."—J. W. Bowen, Editor "Enquirer," McArthur, Ohio.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for the past two years, and found it all it is represented to be. It restores the natural color to gray hair, causes the hair to grow freely, and keeps it soft and pliant."—Mrs. M. V. Day, Cohoes, N. Y.

"My father, at about the age of fifty, lost all the hair from the top of his head. After one month's trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor the hair began coming, and, in three months, he had a fine growth of hair of the natural color."—P. J. Cullen, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Notice.

I wish kindly to call the attention of parents whose children have become a continual nuisance, in that they appear frequently during the day playing on the banks of my pond naked, in full view of my house, and cross to and fro through my field and garden which are under crop, doing them serious damage. I have also suffered from those who are old enough to know better, removing from or putting on planks on the waste way. Had it not been for the diligent watch I keep, I would in a number of cases have lost my mill dam, hence I hereby give notice that any person or persons trespassing in any of the above named cases will suffer the penalty of the law.
