Hopeville.

From our own Correspondent.

Your Hopeville cor. is a little dilatory in writing sometimes, but is quite willing to be forgiven.

There has been so much transpired since I last wrote to your columns that it would be foolish to attempt to tell all, but I will try to give some of the principal items, which, though a little late may be new to some of your readers, who are somewhat acquainted with the people of this region.

Mrs. Vert, an old resident of the north concession of Proton, died about two weeks ago. Her death was hastened by an accident. She leaves eight children, most of whom are grown up.

One of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scott—a girl of eleven years—was taken from them by the measles.

Maggie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McEchue, died on June 12th. She had been sick for a long time.

Mr. H. Allan has returned from Manitoba; not having been successful in business there he thought it unwise to stay.

The Patrons of Industry have between forty and fifty members in Swinton Park, and the end is not yet.

Mr. Geo. Parslow has started operations at the building of the S. P. new school. He had a heavy gang and nine teams at work on Saturday drawing stones.

Some of our young folk formed a picnic and drove out to the Eugenia Falls on Saturday.

The Union pic-nic of S. S. No. 7 and 12 is to be held on Monday, 27th, in Mr. Black's woods.

Quite an extensive mat bee was held at Mr. John Campbell's on Friday. The young ladies seemed to enjoy themselves and at the same time did a lot of work.

Mr. Dan. McPhail sold a horse to Mr. Snell last week.

What means this rush of business out north? This flying hither and thither of buggies and carts? Or, some of the farmers want some new machinery this summer, that's all.

Mr. Jas. Ball is getting out timber for a stable to be erected beside the brick building which he intends to turn into a hotel.

Miss Ida McDonald and Mrs. N. S. Briggs, of Hamilton, have been visiting their parents here.

Miss Bella Ferguson is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. Briggs returned to Hamilton after a short stay.

Football teams had better look out for squalls as the Swinton Park boys are getting a new football.

Mr. Samuel McLean, while working on a frame building, fell thirty feet, landing upon his feet.

Miss Frances McLean and Mr. Geo. Haw, of Port Hope, were married at the bride's home on June 8th, by the Rev. D. McLeod.

Mr. Jos. Black has got a clever little Scottish lassie from Glasgow. A brother of the girl's is with Mr. Robt. Black. Both are smart intelligent children.

Proton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

Messrs. Neilson intend erecting a barn on their farm and are now engaged in taking out the timber.

Mr. James White is on the sick list at present, but we are glad to be able to state that he is recovering.

The C.P.R. tie inspectors were engaged in cutting ties here last week.

A lamentable accident befell Mr. W. Wilson while engaged in edging shingles in Mr. Craig's mill. After assisting in putting on a belt which had slipped off, and being in a hurry, returned over the frame of the machine, when he lost his footing, slipped and fell, his hand came in contact with the saw, which almost completely severed it from the arm. Dr. McWilliams was called and amputated the injured limb. We tender him our sincere sympathy in the sad accident that has befallen him.

Mr. W. Park's son met with a sad accident by which he had his arm broken. While returning home from school, and when crossing the cattle-gard on the railway track he fell with his arm on the rail. We are glad to be able to report that he is speedily recovering.

Mr. McGill, of Flesherton Station, was the guest of Mr. Neilson last Sunday.

The Canadian order of Good Templars held an entertainment at Bethel church on Thursday, which was largely attended. Miss Duncan presided at the organ. Mr. White gave a few selections, excellently rendered. The young ladies and gentlemen are to be complimented on the way they acted their different parts.

Considerable growling is indulged in by some of our villagers in regard to the roadwork. They claim they are overtaxed in this respect. Considering the bad condition of the road we think it will require all the work. All should turn out and put in their full time without grumbling.

Mr. D. Hargraves, who is laboring in the vicinity of Bolton, spent Sunday with his family here.

Mr. M. Shink left for Mackville on Monday, where he intends remaining for some time.

Boyd Bros. have almost completed cutting their immense stock of logs, and are at present engaged in cutting shingles.

Eugenia

From our own Correspondent.

The weather cool and pleasant, and every prospect of an abundant harvest. Every one is sorry at the departure of the Rev. F. Thompson, as he has endeared himself to every one since he came to Eugenia. The ladies of the church presented him with a beautiful framed address and an album, besides a well-filled purse, which shows the high esteem in which he was held.

The garden party held by the Epworth League society on Friday evening was quite a success. The proceeds amounted to something over $11.

Mr. Petch has resigned his charge of Eugenia school. He has been a faithful, painstaking teacher, and the children are sorry at his departure. Mr. David Wright, who formerly taught here, is coming back to his old charge, and takes Mr. Petch's place.

The Orangemen had a bee on Saturday shingling the new shed which they erected recently.

The hotel has changed hands. Mr. Somers, of Chatsworth, is now the proprietor.

Mr. William Sloan has removed his family to Flesherton.

The Rev. Mr. Thompson preached his farewell sermon to the Eugenia congregation on Sabbath evening.

Mrs. —, of Toronto, was visiting her sister, Mrs. Henry Fenwick, the past week.

Mr. Bob Purvis has returned home from the city.

We are glad to see our old friend, Mr. Purdy, around again.

Mr. J. R. Hogg took a short trip to the city the past week.

Mr. McLeash, the evangelist, is visiting his numerous friends around Eugenia at present.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

The following pupils from Priceville P. S. are in Flesherton this week writing on the entrance examination: Bertha James, Ruby Robertson, Emma Robertson, Sarah McMillan and James Atkinson. We wish them success.

Mr. John Brown has opened out a hardware store in the building lately occupied by Mr. Dougal McLean.

Mr. White and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Alex. White, are visiting friends in Detroit.

Miss M. McLeod, M. D., lately of Toronto, is the guest of Mr. M. Bolger, of the Crown Hotel.

Lawyer Hutton of Huttonville, dropped in last week to see his brother, Dr. Hutton.

Mr. David McDonald, of the O.D.R., has received a present from his brother in Montana in the shape of a cowboy's bridle which is made of hair and valued at $40. Dave feels justly proud of the gift, which is quite a curiosity.

School closes to-day. Dominies will have a "soft snap" (?) for the next 7 weeks. Who wouldn't be a pedagogue? Say, Mr. Ed., when do printers get their holidays?

Township clerk Henry, of Mono, has resigned after a service of 25 years.

Laurier is expected in Durham under the auspices of the Young Liberal Club, about the last week in June, according to the Review.

CONFIDENCE

The confidence of the public is something every man must get before he can successfully serve the majority.

Last Year

It was my one great object to put such workmanship on every garment made to gain the favor and confidence of every wearer.

My Ambition

This year is to turn out two suits for every one last year.

My System

Of cutting is such that it guarantees a fit every time. No need for alterations; No need to replace by another suit for I have faith in myself to be able to give satisfaction each and every time.

Bring your cloth, merchant, and establish a clothing trade for yourself, never before known in Flesherton. Bring your cloth farmers, try me and you will return satisfied.
