FALL GOODS

Are arriving almost every day. We do not need to tell you that the qualities are good and prices right. Every one who ever visited the store on the hill knows that we cannot be undersold. We do not deny the fact that any quantity of cheap trash is offered at lower figures than we can offer pure goods, but we hold that for quality offered, no man can sell you cheaper than we do. All we ask is a call, and we are certain to convince you.

↔ Dress Goods Department ↔

We have a good assortment in all leading lines, from the roc. goods to the best all wool Henriettas—linings, buttons and trimmings to match.

↔ Flannels and Staple Department ↔

You can get anything you ask for in these lines. In Flannels we defy competition—all wool greys, striped fancy shirting Flannels, and sheeting. Also full lines of Flannel-etts, Shakers, Cantons and Unions; Cottonades, Cottons, Shirtings, Linens, Towells, Towellings, Etc.

↔ Tweed and Worsted Department ↔

We can't tell you much about these, but an inspection will convince that the patterns are the latest, and qualities and prices right, also full lines of Gents' fine furnishings.

↔ HABERDASHERY DEPARTMENT ↔

Gloves, Hosiery, Rushings, Handkerchiefs, Corsets, Ribbons, Collarettes, Bibs, and ninety-nine other things.

Space will not allow us to mention the other departments, but if these few will remind you of something you are needing we have done well; if they will convince you to try the Store on the Hill, we have done better; and if they will strike you favorably after inspection so you buy, we have done best. All are welcome whether to purchase or simply to have a chat about the weather.

Remember the Store on the Hill.

There are many anxious looking faces among the farmers at present, and no wonder when we consider that many of them have the most of their grain in the fields at the time of writing. The cause of such backwardness is no doubt owing to the great—we might say, unprecedented—scarcity of harvest hands. Many a sheaf, which is now rotting in the fields, would have been safely housed a week or two ago, had outside help been available. Perhaps another cause is due to the twisted and lodged state of the grain occasioned by the heavy wind storms during the earlier part of the harvest, thus rendering the cutting of a great deal of the crop a very difficult matter. However, every cloud has a silver lining. We will have fine days yet, and when they do come we advise our farmer friends to "make hay while the sun shines," and not sit smoking their pipes in the middle of the day under some friendly (?) maple tree.

Those early special trains are a great boon to the public, but they make a fellow hustle around in the morning. It is really too bad when a fellow goes without his breakfast, crams his collar and tie into his coat pocket, and with his hirst'ue appendages in a perpendicular position hurries out at a breakneck speed to catch one of those early morning specials, only to find that meazly, horrid, good-for-nothing piece of rolling stock just vanishing in the distance, while the smoke curling upwards seems to shape itself into that familiar, slangy, but none the less expressive colloquialism, "did you ever get left, ha, ha." Eh, Alex?

The moist state of the ground lately has not been favorable to the potato crop. If all reports are true we may expect a brisk demand for good potatoes this fall.

Inspector Campbell paid his semi-annual official visit to our public school last week, and found everything in both departments running smoothly.

Mr. Robert Reily returned from Cleveland last week on account of sickness.

Mrs. Bliss, of Cleveland, is the guest of Mrs. D. McLean.

Miss Lizzie Simpson, of Calgary, is visiting her parents at present.

Mr. Eschoo, Persian missionary, gave an instructive and interesting lecture in the Orange hall on Monday evening.

Quite a number of our citizens are away to the city this week to see the sights at the fair.

The work on the dam is progressing rapidly. Mr. H. Bowerman has a large force of men taking out timber for the dam. Mr. Duckett has part of the on the ground for the mill. Building operations will now be pushed on as rapidly as possible. There is quite a boom in business of all sorts. There is a great demand for boarding houses, and also for dwelling houses.

Mr. John Bowerman met with a rather severe accident a couple of weeks ago. While hewing timber his axe struck his foot and almost severed two toes. However, we are glad to hear he is getting better.

Mr. Charles Turner met with a heavy loss on Sunday by the death of a valuable horse.

Mr. Jake Williams is busy fitting up his blacksmith shop, and will soon have it in full blast.

The wet weather is doing serious damage to the grain that is not gathered in. Farmers are beginning to fear a great loss.

Mr. Wm. Hindell, who has been away harvesting in the old townships south, has returned home again to his family in good health.

Harvesting around here is rather difficult to get along with this season, owing to wet weather.

The managers of the Outpost Barracks have purchased the seats of the old Methodist church at Buckingham appointment, which makes it more comfortable than heretofore.

We are sorry to relate the sad news of Mr. Joseph Henderson's youngest child, who died Thursday morning after a short sickness.

The second eldest son of Mr. Thomas Bristow was badly kicked in the mouth and face last week, and had some of his teeth knocked out. It was done while trying to catch a horse.

Mr. Walter Bristow, of the township of Nottawasaga, second son of Mr. J. B. Bristow, of Osprey, and Miss Rebecca Hawton, second daughter of Mr. Isaac Hawton, of Osprey, were united in holy matrimony on the 7th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. Mr. Woodger. We wish them success.

Miss Frank Stewart spent a few weeks at her home on the hills. She has gone back to Dundalk.

After a few weeks pleasantly spent visiting friends in this part, Miss Allie Snowdon left for her home in Guelph. "Many are the hearts that are weary," etc.

Owing to the wet weather, there is a lot of grain out yet, and some put in in very bad order, still Bill Burnet has his in and threshed. A. Whittaker and sons are doing the work with their new Hamburg machine.

Mr. Jim Shea has opened out a shoe shop in our village, and is now filling a long felt want. As he has worked for a long time in Priceville, and is well known to the most of the people, he will be sure of their patronage.

Mr. R. P. Legate let his arm come too close to a small saw when in motion, consequently he carries it around in a sling and wears his "store close."

Mr. W. Hogg, merchant of this place, has had a very sore face from erysipias. He is now able to be about his calling, and waiting on his numerous customers.

Messrs. John Muir and Malcolm Ferguson, left on Saturday last for a trip to Caledon. We can't say, but we have a feeling in our bones that there is a centre of attraction for John. Surely he aint going to be married. Time will tell.

Master Archibald B. McLeod was bitten by a dog on his way from school a few days ago.

For useless curs this place can down any other place that stands outside. We refer to numbers. Every one must have a dog, and in some cases different members of the family must have one. A tax should be imposed on dogs to try and do away with some of these useless canines. A few hens would be more profitable.

From our own Correspondent.

Never in the history of man has the Flesherton Advance been in such demand around here, which speaks well for it.

Mr. James Thompson suffered a severe loss by dogs attacking a flock of 13 sheep, killing outright 7 head, besides a fat pig. It is doubtful if the rest recover.

Lost, stolen, or destroyed, from Mr. E. Horton's binder, two twelve feet long edgings with a pointed nail in the end, used in place of oats. Any information will be thankfully received by the owner.

The rolls, after their visit to Toronto, have been put back in their place, and our jolly miller is now prepared to fill promptly all orders for the best brand of Lily White. Those wishing Lily Black will have to go elsewhere.

Mrs. A. McGirr has gone on a visit to Flesherton. As a result our genial postmaster has registered at the Beaver.

Mrs. J. Palmer has gone to Toronto for five weeks. Mr. R. T. McGirr is also taking in the exhibition.

Rev. Mr. Hudson, of Dundalk, has settled among us, and preached an able discourse on Sunday night.
