COUNTY AND DISTRICT.
A few weeks ago a well-known horseman from a neighboring town spent a few days in this locality. He had with him a fine looking Wilkes horse, called Prince Erie, which he said he wanted to sell, but made no particular efforts to push business as he spent most of his time in preaching temperance to the small boys on the street corners, peddling bananas, and in various other ways making sport for the youngsters. It seems that a joint stock company in Feversham bought the horse since then, but Jimmy forgot to hand it over, and was arrested at Warton in consequence, where he was having a picnic like that he indulged in while here. -[Stayner Sun.

Considerable interest has been manifested in the Joint Stock Co. recently formed for the purchase of the thorough bred entire horse brought here by James Noble of Owen Sound. A number of our townsmen took shares, but at a certain juncture a hitch occurred. A Mr. Shaw, of St. Vincent had purchased six shares, giving in full payment thereof, an entire horse valued at $600. Finding that some of the reputed Stock-holders at a distance were apparently only put on the list to give the thing prestige, he entered action against Noble for obtaining goods on false pretenses. The preliminary trial came off on Tuesday in Durdak, with the result that Noble was committed for trial at next court of competent jurisdiction. It is difficult to say what the outcome of the affair will be. -[Durdak Herald.
