As a general rule, it is best not to correct costiveness by the use of saline or drastic medicines. When a purgative is needed, the most prompt, effective, and beneficial is Ayer's Pills. Their tendency is to restore, and not to weaken, the normal action of the bowels.

Miss Fannie Pringle, Scottish vocalist, of Toronto, has been engaged for the concert on the evening of the second day of East Grey fall fair, Friday of next week. Miss Pringle and Fax will make a strong team, and the concert is expected to be one of more than ordinary enjoyment.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla does what no other blood medicine in existence can do. It searches out all the impurities in the system and expels them harmlessly through the proper channels. This is why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is so pre-eminently effective as a remedy for rheumatism.

Millinery—Miss Richardson is opening up her fall stock, and will have some pleasant surprises in store for her lady patrons, having just returned from a visit to England and France, where she purchased Flowers, Feathers, Silks, Velvets at sources of production. She will have exceptionally fine values to offer.

The public are often very unjust but never consciously so. What they see clearly to be justice they will approve. It often takes a long time to bring them to see things as they really are, but in the end their verdict is always right. It was faith in this idea which induced the manufacturers of the "Myrtle Navy" tobacco to stand by their superior brand under every discouragement at the outset. The public verdict has been rendered at last, and it is emphatically in their favor.

New Importations direct from England—Goods purchased at fountain head, personally selected by M. Richardson—English Dress Goods and Worsteds, French Cashmeres and Silks, German Mantles and Cloakings—newest styles and fine value.

Correction.
In Mr. Thompson's letter last week he says: "The public may judge of the accuracy of Mr. Stewart's statements by noticing that in one place in his letter he says that on the 15th the milk tested 11½ and in another that it tested 12½ on the same date." In looking over Mr. Stewart's manuscript we find that the latter was a typographical error, the copy reading 11½ in both instances.

Millinery, Millinery.
Mrs. Trimble and Miss McKee have returned from the millinery openings in the city, and have with them a large stock of beautiful goods for the fall season, and will be prepared to meet all friends on Thursday, Sept. 29th, first day of show. Orders taken any time before that day.

The Canadian Horticulturist
Is growing in interest and value to Canadian fruit growers and gardeners. October number is enlarged to forty pages. It contains a fine colored plate of the Crosby peach, and description; a photograph of T. H. Race, Mitchell, with sketch of his life; a fine plan for laying out a two acre cemetery; Bobbs and his garden; articles on the orchard, fruit garden, flower garden and lawn, bee-keeping, strawberry growing, judging fruit, etc. Enclose 10 cents to L. Woolverton, Grimsby, Ont., for sample copy.

The directors of the Northern exhibition, to be held at Walkerton on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week, have secured a wonderfully attractive list of specialties, such as the sword trapeze, fun on skates, highland pipers, Thomas Stephenson, globe artist and culb swinger; Little Vin, the famous sword walker; The Carlans, trapeze artists; Deabro Bros, acrobats; Geo. Michall, Irish comedian; two clowns; Corbet and Sullivan, a burlesque on the recent prize fight; a dog show, excellent horse racing, etc., going to make up one of the best programmes of fun ever given in these parts. All the above in addition to a grand display of farm produce and manufactures.

Mr. T. Hill has now got his stock in good shape, although he is still filling and extending certain lines. Mr. Hill was a merchant in Markdale for eighteen or twenty years, and is well known by most people in this section as a man who conducts business upon business principles, affable and pleasant in his dealings with the public. He is a good citizen, and should be warmly welcomed among us. His stock is large and well-assorted, he having purchased a very large quantity of new goods since opening up. His announcement appeared in last week's Advance, and he will continue to let the people know through these columns, from time to time, what to expect and wherein they can get bargains. Read his advertisement elsewhere.

The Reeve of Warton has instituted a libel suit against the Echo, and that paper gets in a little side wipe as follows: "It is reported that Warton's Reeve has issued a proclamation that henceforward the spanking of children is forbidden in our village, for fear the little ones will see stars and receive stripes, hence be disloyal. For fear this high dignitary may to-morrow make a sneak to Walkerton to institute another libel we will say we do not vouch for the correctness of the above, but it is quite as sensible as to order the stars taken off a barber's pole, which he did a few weeks ago on account of what he termed disloyalty."

Mr. Chas. Gordon met with a serious accident out at Inglis' mill on Tuesday morning. He was preparing to do some repairs at the mill building, and was making an inspection of the flume from one of the beams near by when he lost his footing on the slippery log and fell, striking a second timber about ten feet below, from which he fell 16 feet. Both legs were badly cut and bruised, and a very bad scalp wound inflicted across the entire back of the head. He is progressing favorably, but will be in the house for a week or so.—[O. S. Advertiser.]

In Loving Remembrance.
of a dear father and kind husband, died February 5th, 1892, born June 21st, 1832, in Roxburghshire, Scotland.

Dear father, thou art gone, thou much loved one,
Thy face we will see no more,
Till we join that blood-washed throng
Where parting is no more.
We miss thee from our home, dear,
We miss thee from thy place;
A shadow o'er our life is cast;
We miss the sunshine of thy face.
We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care;
Our home is dark without thee,
We miss thee everywhere.
ISABELLA HENSLOR.
