B. G. EVANS.

Wodehouse.

From our own Correspondent.

Business is moving in this burg. The logs are being brought to the mill in goodly numbers.

The church is nearing completion. Look for monster ad. re the opening in a few weeks.

Xmas passed off very quietly here, although there is plenty of snow for good sleighing there was very little sleighing done.

A few young people gathered at the home of Mr. Geo. Morwood, in the evening and enjoyed a few pleasant hours.

Rocklyn had a large stir, it being nomination day.

Messrs. J. Gilray, reeve, and John Kerr were nominated for the reeveship. Messrs. W. Stuart Esq., and William Fawcett for 1st deputy-reeve, and Messrs. McCausland, J. M. Davins, Jas. Elliott and Mr. Camplin for 2nd deputy-reeve. Messrs Jno. Eaton, J. Erskine and J. Martin for councillors. Some of the candidates spoke at some length.

Mr. Gilray spoke in detail of the affairs of the township.

Mr. Kerr occupied a good deal of time and in our estimate on not making points against the present reeve.

To our mind the hottest contest will be for the second deputy. Mr. Davis has proven the truth of his statements two years ago when he said if elected he could save the township a deal of expense (unnecessary) which has come to pass, by whom, judge ye.

Miss Minnie, daughter of Mr. John Hutchinson of this place, was married on Wednesday of last week. This was a very quiet wedding, we did not even learn the name of the lucky gentleman. Our very best wishes attend them.

Farewell Corner.

From our own Correspondent.

The weather is very fine and times are very lively around here. The young people of this vicinity are trying to have a good time and who wouldn't.

Mr. Calder has returned home. He is now visiting his sister and brothers of this place.

Mr. Dan McKinnon has returned home from the Northwest.

Mr. William Coleridge is home. He has been employed in the cheese factory business.

The Patrons of Bell's School had a large open meeting. To most of the people's amazement it turned out to be a grand entertainment. There were several speakers present, also songs, recitations and readings were given. The Yeoville string band and the home string band played between times.

Mr. Wm. Watson had a wood bee the other day. About forty cords of wood were cut. That speaks well for these parts. The day wound up with a party, when everyone enjoyed themselves, and went home in the small hours of the morning.

Rev Mr. Davey, of Markdale, lectured on foreign missions last Sunday in Ebenezer. Everyone was interested.

Flesherton Station.

By Our Reporter.

Mr. Peter Ferguson, of Caledon Tp., is visiting at Mr. John Muir's.

Mr. Wm. McLeod has gone to take charge of a gang of men to make timber for Alex. Hannah.

Mr. John Boland attended a meeting of the Patrons of Industry at the Durham Road school house on Saturday evening last.

The Waltersville Asst. P. of I. intend holding an oyster supper on Thursday evening next at Miss R. Stone's. A splendid time is expected.

A very pleasant evening was spent at Mr. John McLeod's on Tuesday evening last. Wilson McMullen and Bob Wright dispensed sweet strains on the violin, and the rest of the company kept time with their feet. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod are unsurpassed in entertaining, hence, everybody enjoyed themselves.

There was a shooting match for turkeys at the Station on Friday last and we can assure you there was some close shooting. On one occasion there were eight competing which resulted in a tie all round. Not one struck the target. The turkeys were very close to the bone. Charley Mosier said he had a barrel of peas and he would feed it to his and try and fatten it. Jack Mitchell said it would take at the least calculation a bushel to fill them for the first time.

The "Occasional correspondent" in is puddling again. Bah! rats! It is beneath our dignity to respond to such filth. In truth, we fell in a mud puddle, when we unthinkingly found ourselves reading the slimy productions of the "Occasional Cor." As we don't feel disposed to enter the arena in opposition to a "female cor.," we will in future refuse to notice anything coming from this source, but will quietly leave her where she should be—"minding her household affairs."

Kimberley.

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. Henry Ellis has returned to our burg, having been been for three years foreman of a large farm in Compton, New Hampshire State.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher, from Illinois State, are visiting their aunt, Mrs McLean, who is very ill.

Mr. J. M. Thurston and daughter (Miss Myrtle) are spending the holiday season visiting friends in Flint, Michigan.

Mr. R. Wickens has also taken a trip to Michigan for a few weeks.

Mr. T. Wickens is visiting his brother in Toronto.

The Christmas Tree was held as announced on 21st inst., and was a grand success, an evening of social entertainment. The children did credit to them selves and to their Superintendent, by their good conduct and manner in which they acted their part in their speeches and dialogues, and not less did they show their training and interest taken in their musical talent, by their leader, Miss R. G. Thurston, in the musical part of the entertainment. Santa Claus was liberal and loaded the tree with presents for old and young. Proceeds $28.00.

Rev. W. J. Waddell preached a sermon last Sunday night (Xmas) specially for the children, which was very interesting and full of instruction and of good to all. He is to-night, 26th, addressing the S. S. in Markdale Methodist church, and Kimberley will therefore no doubt be favored with Markdale talent on the 3rd of January 1893.

Mr. and Mrs. May and family, of Orangeville, were guests of Mr. J. Myles, of Spring Brook farm, on Christmas.
