The Store on the Hill.

B. G. EVANS,

Eugenia

From our own Correspondent.

The concert at the Orange Hall on New Year's night was pretty well attended, considering the stormy weather on that day. The programme was good, as our Flesherton friends kindly assisted the Eugenia choir to make the entertainment a success. The Rev. Mr. Wells was presented with a handsome fur coat, for which he was very grateful. It shows the high esteem in which he is held and the good feelings that exist between pastor and people.

A social is to be held at the residence of Mr. Wm. Hanley on the 8th Concession on Friday evening, first, by the Eugenia choir. A good time is expected.

Mr. Samuel Pedlar, jr., was made very happy by a New Year's present of a very pretty little girl.

Mr. John Jameson is rejoicing over a similar present of a young daughter.

Farmers are enjoying a season of good sleighing, as the roads are excellent at present.

The Perfection Hoop and Veneer factory starts this week. They have a supply of logs on hand, but an unlimited quantity will be required to keep it running, as the machinery is calculated to cut a great amount of stuff once it gets fairly started.

There is considerable talk of a railroad striking us, I think our Kimberley neighbors are trying to put life into the matter by holding a public meeting concerning the project.

Mr. D. Wright has resigned his charge of Eugenia school and has gone to the Soo to better his fortune. Mr. Johnson, of Invermay, has come to take his place.

Mr. Thomas Marr, of Epping, has taken up his residence in this village.

Mr. and Mrs. Spiers, of Mayfield, are visiting at Mr. Henry Fenwick's.

The Salvation Army from Feverham has declared war on the rebels of Eugenia. A lively time is expected.

Maxwell

From our own Correspondent.

New Year's is over, and we forgot to wish ye Editor and correspondents a happy and prosperous New Year, but will work on "better late than never" and do so now.

Mr. and Mrs. Rev. H. A. Brown, paid us a visit the week before last.

Mr. C. M. Field has moved from the store on Front Street down to his own shop. He intends to be in a position shortly so that he can have breakfast, dinner and supper in his own house and without preparing it himself.

A meeting of Centre Grey Farmers' Institute takes place at Maxwell today, (Thursday) and also this evening commencing at 7 o'clock. Some of the children have had whooping cough but we believe they are nearly all well again.

Kimberley

From our own Correspondent.

Weddings, wood bees and tea parties (with a little work between) are taking up the leisure time in town.

The new roller machinery for Mr. A. B. Bell's mill is being put in by John Forsyth, of Toronto. He expects it to be in running order by the first of February.

The stock-holders of the Flesherton, Kimberley and Heathcote Railway have announced for a public meeting in the town hall, Kimberley, on Thursday night, 12th inst., at 7.30. All parties interested in this line are invited to take part in the meeting. Why not get to work and build a road now? "Strike while the iron is hot."

The annual tea-meeting was held as announced, on the 3rd inst., and was a successful meeting. Hearty votes of thanks were tendered to the choir of Markdale Methodist church for the music rendered. The thanks of the meeting were also tendered to the rev. gentlemen who took part, for their services, and especially Rev. Mr. Touge, for his address on "Whol escme Literature." Proceeds $24.00

L. O. L. No. 1340 will hold its annual Soiree on Friday, 10th February next.

Mr. Alex. Carruthers returned from Powassan on the 3rd inst.

The residence of Mr. A. B. Hay of Hay Bros., Owen Sound, was almost totally destroyed by fire on Saturday night. The family were out of town at the time, and the fire had got considerable headway before it was discovered.

Thomas Hollinger is as proud as a peacock. The cause of this feeling of pride and importance was the arrival Thursday of a little blossom of beautiful humanity in the shape of a young lady. Mrs. Hollinger and the baby are progressing nicely. —Harc, Mont., Herald.

In order to advertise himself extensively in this part of the country, Mr. E. Harrison, Flesherton's new furniture man, will give from now till Feb. 11th, Bedroom Suites at $10.00. Call in and get his prices on furniture. It will pay you to read his advertisement in another column.

Cameron

Large colored bills were issued last week for a concert to be held at Maxwell on the evening of the 18th inst., under the auspices of Maxwell Orange Lodge, at which Cameron, the well known comic singer and elocutionist, of Toronto, will be present. This promises to be the finest affair ever held at Maxwell. The Singhampton Glee Club and Maxwell string band will also be present to provide music. Miss Christie, of Flesherton, will act as accompanist. The proceeds will be towards clearing off debt on Gie hall. We bespeak a full house, and a very enjoyable time. Mr. Cameron has immensely pleased Flesherton audiences on two different occasions, and we consider him an actual phenomenon in his line.

Cures Others

Will cure You, is a true statement of the action of AYER'S Sarsaparilla, when taken for diseases originating in impure blood; but, while this assertion is true of AYER'S Sarsaparilla, as thousands can attest, it cannot be truthfully applied to other preparations, which unprincipled dealers will recommend, and try to impose upon you, as "just as good as Ayer's." Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's only, if you need a blood-purifier and would be benefited permanently. This medicine, for nearly fifty years, has enjoyed a reputation, and made a record for cures, that has never been equalled by other preparations. AYER'S Sarsaparilla eradicates the taint of hereditary scrofula and other blood diseases from the system, and it has, deservedly, the confidence of the people.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

"I cannot forbear to express my joy at the relief I have obtained from the use of AYER'S Sarsaparilla. I was afflicted with kidney troubles for about six months, suffering greatly with pains in the small of my back. In addition to this, my body was covered with pimply eruptions. The remedies prescribed failed to help me. I then began to take AYER'S Sarsaparilla, and, in a short time, the pains ceased and the pimples disappeared. I advise every young man or woman, in case of sickness resulting from impure blood, to master the art of standing the case may be, to take AYER'S Sarsaparilla."—H. L. Fairbank, 55 William St., New York City.
