Two weeks ago, a dog pounced upon a turkey belonging to Mr. Joseph Hawken, Sr., of Euphrasia. The canine seized the bird by the back of the head peeling the skin off back to the wings. The women folks took pity on the wounded turkey, stitched on the pelt and it is now doing well.—Markdale Standard.

Mr. Henry Smith, of the White House, lost two valuable 3 year old colts last week in a peculiarly shocking manner. It appears that on Wednesday evening the gate of the stable yard was left open and the animals strayed out across the road and on till they came to the C. P. R. track, just past the Y. At any rate they were there when the up train had started on its way to Harrison from here. Both of the poor brutes were struck, one losing four feet and the other two legs. This last one lay in the ditch where it fell and the other hobbled around all night on the four stumps, leaving a bloody track behind him. Both were shot in the morning.—Mt. Forest Confid.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I had been in a distressed condition for three years from Nervousness, Weakness of the Stomach, Dyspepsia and Indigestion until my health was gone. I bought one bottle of South American Nerve, which done me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely remedy. I consider it the rarest medicine in the world." A trial bottle will convince you. Warranted by Richardson & Co.

A masher from Dakota visited town this week. He was spoiling for a fight and would like to see the man "that would tread on the tail of his coat." He went up and down the street like Shepherd, of Toronto, "looking for a man" but found none willing to oblige him. He boasted loudly what he had done and what he could do, in fact he struck a panic into persons by the recital of his daring deeds in the ring. His backers, and he had a few, were equally sanguinary. They longed to see him lay out one or a dozen before he left the town. The absence of takers acted upon him like a red rag to a bull. He grew furious and took off his coat, went out into the street and called a quiet good natured citizen into a room and told him that he could lick him quicker than "scat." He began at once to do it in real Dakota style but found out in short order that he had met a live cyclone, greater than ever he had seen in the wild west. The battle lasted a minute by the clock. The Dakota man's blood dyed the ceiling, his nose was limp as a rag, his eyes looked like a boiled oyster and what was left of him was wrapped up in a blanket and taken out of town on a wood sleigh.—Hanover Post.
