Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

Our curling club went to Durham last Friday to enjoy a few hours at the roaring game. They report a very pleasant time.

Mr. William Legate has rented a farm in Bentuck where he intends to move in a short time.

We were pleased to see our genial friend Mr. Neil McCannell, of Boothville, in town last week. Call again Mac.

Miss Fannie James, of Hopeville, spent last Saturday at home.

The Rev. Mr. Jansen, of Durham, preached in the Presbyterian church last Friday.

Mrs. Rev. Edmunds, of Fordwich, was the guest of Mrs. Brander part of last week.

Miss Gertie McLeod, of O. S. Collegiate Inst., is spending a few days with her parents this week.

Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

The "Honey Festival" given by the Patrons was a success in every particular. The honey in itself was worth the small fee and beside this an elegant programme was given. The Patrons intend giving another soon and if we judge the future from the past we are safe in saying the next will be well worth attending.

The concert got up by the foot-ball club will we hope be a grand success. As it is being held on Wednesday of this week we cannot at time of writing (Tuesday) give any particulars.

Mrs. Lockington and another lady were the guests of Mrs. Emerson for a time.

Mr. Noble, of Markdale, was conducting an auction sale for W. W. Trimble last week.

Some from here took in the Y. M. P. B. A. concert at Flesherton.

Miss Sharp, from Flesherton, gave us a call last week.

Miss Jordan, formerly of this place, is the guest of Dr. Scott.

Owing to the severe storm on Sunday the attendance at the churches was small. Some of the ministers also found it impossible to reach their appointments.

A number of our children have been suffering from severe colds, which settled in the form of a cough. We hope nothing serious will occur.

Epping.

From our own Correspondent.

Sunday witnessed a very severe storm, blocking the roads so that the mails could not get through Monday. We wonder if old Jack Frost is ever going to take a rest.

Mrs. S. Jordan is selling out her stock of dry goods, groceries, etc. She also wishes to dispose of her store and dwelling. This is a good business stand and there ought to be no difficulty in disposing of it to good advantage.

Mr. Thos. Londry, who has been visiting his daughter in Chicago, returned home last week after an enjoyable trip.

Mrs. G. Mathewson returned home last week after a two weeks' visit with her daughter at Griersville.

Miss Maggie and Master Sam McConnell, of Meaford, visited at the parental home over Sunday.

Proton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

Well, Mr. Editor, you will please overlook our neglect; in fact it was not our neglect, either, as there was nothing to report, unless it was the mountains of snow that are piled at every man's door step.

Mrs. Robert Hodgins, of Barrie, is visiting her parents in this place.

MARRIED.—On the 15th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Wm. Graham, of Alliston; Miss Lizzie, second youngest daughter, to Mr. Thomas Lockhart, of Proton. Miss Graham, now Mrs. Lockhart, was a young lady of many accomplishments and moved in the highest circles of Alliston society. Mr. Thomas Lockhart is a young man who is well known around Proton as a young man of unblemished moral character, being always a favorite at any entertainment or gathering. We heartily congratulate the young couple, and trust that their married life may always be as bright as their wedding day.

It is reported that Mrs. G. McKinell, of Proton, has fallen heir to a nice little fortune of some twelve or fifteen thousand dollars.

Mr. John Lyons, Jr., sold last week for the northwest a heavy team of draught horses. We have not heard the amount paid, but it must have been pretty well up, as they were the best team around here.

Wareham.

From our own Correspondent.

Miss Mary Morton received a handsome present from her brother-in-law Mr. Orr, of Toronto, in the shape of an organ.

Miss Lillie Ross, of Shelburne, paid a short visit to her many friends here lately.

Miss McLeod, of Shelburne, paid a visit at Mr. Ross's last week.

Mrs. White is at present visiting her daughter, Mrs. Kerr, of Sunnidale, who is seriously ill.

Wood-bees and parties have been in great demand here this winter. A goodly amount of wood has been put up, while both young and old seem to have enjoyed themselves at the parties.

The Orange Soiree, held in the hall on the 4th line, was well patronized, considering the state of the roads, and a good time is reported.

Mr. Sheardown was lately visited by his brother and cousin.

Mr. Duncan McCallum, who runs the mixed on this and the Kincardine branch of the Wellington Grey and Bruce division alternately was beaten nearly to death Friday last by three ruffians who got on the train at Kincardine for the purpose. It appears that Mr. McCallum's brakeman had had some dispute with the men in question, who lodged a complaint with the P. M. in Kincardine. McCallum went to the court and paid the fine of his man, and went again on duty. The aggrieved parties laid for McCallum, believing him a party to the offence. They each bought a ticket and boarded the mixed leaving Kincardine in the afternoon on the day above mentioned. Immediately after the train was in motion a quarrel commenced between the trio and the brakeman, but by conductor McCallum interfering the matter was quieted, and the brakeman was sent to the engine to save any further disturbance. The conductor then sat down at his desk to write when the three pitched onto him and beat him most brutally, besides chewing his hands terribly. The brakeman, hearing the racket, came back, broke in the door and struck one over the head with a shovel laying him out, and by the interference of others the row was stopped. On arriving at the first station the injured man was carried to the first hotel, and the Superintendent of the Division was wired to, who immediately ordered the arrest of the three, which was done on their arrival at Brussels, where they are now safe behind the bars, and they will remain there until conductor McCallum is able to attend court, which may be several weeks.—Wiarthon Echo.

Died.

IRWIN.—In Flesherton, on Friday, Feb. 17, 1893, Fred Wilbert, infant son of Wm. and Georgina Irwin, aged 1 year, 3 months and 27 days.

This lovely bud, so young, so fair,

Called hence by early doom,

Just came to show how sweet a flower,

In Paradise would bloom;

Ere sin could harm or sorrow fade,

Death came with friendly care,

The opening bud to heaven conveyed,

And bade it blossom there.

The Walker failure at Youngstown, Ohio, is said to have ruined Governor McKinley.
