We are indebted to the Toronto Times for two complimentary tickets to a matinee which it gave its readers in the Academy of Music on Monday. The manager forgot to send a special train for us, the walking was bad, and we fully expected a man in on Monday to pay a 25-cent debt which he has owed for six months. If these excuses are not sufficient to reconcile the manager to our enforced absence he may enter a suit for damages, or the 1-cent stamp will be remitted on demand.

And whosoever will let him take of the water of life freely." The lady is a polished and forcible speaker, full of zeal and energetic in the cause which she has espoused.

Broken Legs. A terrible accident happened to an elderly man named J. W. Kenney, a cooper, who lives near Berkley, on Monday, which may cost him his life. He was standing on the reach pole behind a load of wood, when a team coming up behind, drawing ahead of telegraph poles, ran away. While attempting to pass the load of wood the sleigh clung to the track and the ends of the poles jammed Mr. Kenney against the wood, breaking the bone of his left leg below the knee to a pulp, also breaking the ankle bone of his left foot and cutting the fleshy part of his leg in a terrible manner. Drs. McCullough, of Chatsworth, and Ego, of Markdale, attended the injured man. As Mr. Kenney is nearly 60 years of age, fears are entertained that the shock to his system may prove fatal.

Hoop Skirt Songs.

BY OUR OWN CYNIC.
Air—"Maryland"
Art thou coming back again,
Crinoline, my crinoline?
Then we'll wear thee; men in vain
May shout no, or go insane;
Fashion calls, we can't refrain.
Crinoline, my crinoline.
Come in vogue if come you will,
Crinoline, my crinoline;
We will don you, ill or ill,
And make father foot the bill,
Be the protest 'er so shrill,
Crinoline, my crinoline.

Oh dear, no! I've changed my mind,
Crinoline, my crinoline.
I've a lover good and kind,
And to hugging he's inclined,
I've no use for you, I find,
Crinoline, my crinoline.

AN AWFUL THREAT.

Air—Short Meeter.
Should hoop skirts once more take the floor
On this side of the river Styx,
I'd travel for some foreign shore
Where there are no baloonatics.
I'd go to Africa, I swear,
Where maidens do not dress so fine,
And mate me with some dusky fair
Who never heard of crinoline.
I'd hunt me up a darkey wife
Whom I could touch with finger tips,
And not be fearful of my life
Of sundry breaks, or tears, or rips.
Dear girls, beware and tempt not fate
With your steel bulwarks round about
Ere if you do, that very date
The men will to a man "get out."

To Preserve

The richness, color, and beauty of the hair, the greatest care is necessary, much harm being done by the use of worthless dressings. To be sure of having a first-class article, ask your druggist or perfumer for Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is absolutely superior to any other preparation of the kind. It restores the original color and fullness to hair which has become thin, faded, or gray. It keeps the scalp cool, moist, and free from dandruff. A Wonderful Medicine.

Read the following interesting testimonies:

South American Nervine, the great cure for Nervousness, Nervous Prostration, Nervous Headache, Sick Headache, Nervous Paroxysms, Nervous Chills, Nervous Choking, Hot Flashes, Palpitation of the Heart, Sleeplessness, Nervousness of females of all ages, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Burning of the Stomach, Weight and Tenderness in the Stomach, Wind upon the Stomach, Catarrh of the Stomach, Frightful Dreams, Nightmares, Ringing in the ears, Vertigo and dizziness, Fainting, Impure and Impoverished blood, Scrofulous Swellings, Consumption of the lungs, Female Weakness, General Debility, Broken Constitution, Chronic Diarrhoea, and Debility of old age, all these and many other complaints cured by this wonderful Nervine Tonic.

Has your constitution been wrecked by an attack of La Grippe? The GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE TONIC will quickly restore your shattered nerves, strengthen and cure your digestive organs, regulate your Liver and purify your blood; and restore you to perfect soundness again. This great Tonic should be used after all sickness. Its powers to restore to health are simply wonderful.

Harriet E. Hall of Waynetown, Ind., says: "I owe my life to the Great South American Nervine. I had been in bed for five months from the effects of an exhaustive Stomach, Indigestion, Nervous Prostration and a general shattered condition of my whole system. Had given up all hopes of getting well. Had tried three doctors with no relief. The first bottle of the Nervine Tonic improved me so much that I was able to walk about, and a few bottles cured me entirely. I believe it the best medicine in the world. I cannot recommend it too highly."

(Clipped from Advocate, Greenville, Ala., Feb. 2, 1893.)

For 27 years the ADVOCATE has published advertisements of various patent medicines, many of which were exceptionally good remedies for the diseases and ills for which they were recommended.

But we have not yet heard as good report of any as we have of the Great South American Nervine Tonic, a large advertisement of which we publish on our second page.

A lady subscriber in Louisville, Ky., wrote us some time ago asking to have Mr. Stewart, the druggist here, to send her a bottle for her husband. In a short time she wrote again ordering two more bottles and said it was doing her husband good. A few days since, meeting one of our principal merchants who had been in bad health many months, we asked him how he was getting on: He said he was getting better every day, that he had found a patent medicine that he had taken several bottles of it and was going to continue it, for he says he would not take a thousand dollars for the good it has already done him.

Inquiring what kind of medicine it was, he told me it was the South American Nervine Tonic.

Hearing so much about this great remedy we interviewed Mr. Stewart, and he tells us that he can scarcely keep a supply on hand as it sells as fast as he can get it, and all those who use it speak in the highest praise of it. He says he has sent it to Advocate subscribers in Florida, Kentucky, North Albany, and other places.

This is no paid notice, we publish it simply as a tribute to a deserving remedy, and if it is doing good we are glad that it is in the reach of our sick and suffering people.
