Brownsville.
From our own Correspondent.
Shure, Mr. Editor, and I'll be after giving you some news. Well in the first place, I must give your readers an idea where I live. There's a Brownsville in Norfolk, another in Picton, and still another in Kings, and yet another in New Westminster. But that's not the place at all, at all. Shure sir, this place is not far from Drumore, where they have the grate saw mill and where the chopper has gone wrong. Well now, gintle raders, you might be after likin' to hear how it got its name. This I can also tell to you. There was a chap as started a store, and his name was Brown, and he hung out his sign with his name on it and I suppose 'ville' was put to it by the boys because it is a village.

Well sir, this has been one of the hardest winters I ever experienced and I am an old man. There has not been the likes of it since I sat here. There has not been a break since it began, but grate frost and storms, but now there is a bad brake as it is braking the roads all up.
There is an influenza going around, sir, and I can tell you it is a bad thing. I took it and since I had grip I never felt so poorly. The hoopin' cough has been here, too. I don't know how it is we have so many diseases, or who brings it to us, but I suppose it is the same in all towns.
We understand our teacher is going to have an entertainment in the schule next Friday.
George and Dan was drawing square timber, and I can assure you their horses caught it. The plunging they got, sir, would make you feel sorry for them. I tell you it is hard earned money.
Earney Lapsley has traded the ould gray mare off and a grate mare she was. I saw them, sir, take a load of straw through a dape bank of snow. He had all he could do to make them draw it out, for when one wint forward the other wint back.

Mr. Editor as this is the first of the kind I know you won't be looking for much and it may be you hav not much space. However, I would like you would give us a little space and make any corrections in my spelling and sich like.
Another of the old pioneers of Proton has gone. He is the third in this neighborhood inside of two years, and his good companion, Mrs. McFarlan, lies in very poor health. I hope she will get better. He was sick not 24 hours. He ate a hearty breakfast and went about as usual yesterday. It was at the barns he took sick, and to-day he was quite chatty, even ten minutes before he died. There are but few of the old pioneers left now. The family have our sympathy.

THE FACT
That AYER'S Sarsaparilla CURES OTHERS of Scrofulous Diseases, Eruptions, Boils, Eczema, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, and Catarrh should be convincing that the same course of treatment WILL CURE YOU. All that has been said of the wonderful cures effected by the use of

during the past fifty years, truthfully applies to-day. It is, in every sense, The Superior Medicine. Its curative properties, strength, effect, and flavor are always the same; and for whatever blood diseases AYER'S Sarsaparilla is taken, they yield to this treatment. When you ask for

don't be induced to purchase any of the worthless substitutes, which are mostly mixtures of the cheapest ingredients, contain no sarsaparilla, have no uniform standard of appearance, flavor, or effect, are blood-purifiers in name only, and are offered to you because there is more profit in selling them. Take

AYER'S Sarsaparilla
Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists; Price 25c; six bottles, $2.
Cures others, will cure you

A terrible accident occurred near Jerseyville on the 17th through which Mr. John Dodds lost his life. He went out to fell some trees and one struck him on the top of his head, fracturing his skull. His father, Mr. George Dodds, lives a short distance from Stayner.—Stayner Sun.
Itch, Mange, and Scratches on human or animals cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails Warranted by Wm. M. Richardson
The drink of whiskey which Councilor W. R. Scott of Grand Valley swallowed in Dr. Gaviller's drug store on the night of the last municipal election has proven rather expensive for Mr. Scott. For this violation of the Liquor License act Magistrates Johnston and Tolton have fined Scott $35 and costs, amounting in all to $46. Scott will probably appeal.—Orangeville Advertiser.
A cablegram from England last week conveyed the intelligence to Messrs. Geo. Wilkinson, of Toronto, and B. Wilkinson, of this town, that an aged bachelor uncle had died and had left an estate worth nearly $20,000, to which the above named gentlemen are the only surviving heirs. The deceased gentleman was the proprietor of a large mining concern, although he had retired from the management some years ago.—O. S. Times.
Rheumatism Cured in a day.—South American Rheumatic Cure for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75 cents. Warranted by Richardson & Co.
A sad accident happened near Neustadt on Saturday morning whereby Mr. Fred Weppler, a stalwart young German, was suddenly and without a moment's warning ushered into the unseen world. The deceased was chopping in the woods with his brother and in trying to start a tree which he had cut, but which had lodged in another, he was struck to the ground and instantly killed. His head was crushed in.—Chronicle.
Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownvalley, Ind., says: "I had been in a distressed condition for three years from Nervousness, Weakness of the Stomach, Dyspepsia and Indigestion until my health was gone. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which done me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely remedy. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." A trial bottle will convince you. Warranted by Richardson & Co.
On last Tuesday night or Wednesday morning, Mr. George Nolan of Tottenham was awakened by the barking of his dog. He got up and looked around, but not finding anything unusual, returned to bed. As the barking of the dog still continued, however, he got up again and went outside. The dog immediately preceded him toward the mill, and as he reached the railway track found a man lying across one of the rails. He found the man quite unconscious, and had him removed to his own house and medical assistance was at once summoned. It was found that he had been bleeding freely, a quantity of blood having been found on the track where the man fell. Shortly after Mr. Nolan got the man away, a train of cars came down the road which would no doubt have cut the man to pieces had he still been laying there. When the man became conscious in the morning, he stated that he had been drinking with some others, and had been turned out from the hotel between 11 and 12 o'clock p. m.; that he got into his cutter and started for home, as he thought, but had actually driven in the opposite direction. During the drive he was thrown from the cutter, which, with the horse, was afterwards found at Casserley's driving shed. Had it not been for the barking of the dog and Mr. Nolan's praiseworthy care and activity, no doubt the man would have been killed.—Beeton World.
