The Store on the Hill ?

This month we want to give every one a chance to try our TEAS, which, we believe, for strength and flavor, beats anything yet shown. In order to do so we have REDUCED them to the following low figures:

Our 25 cent tea for 23. Our 30 cent tea for 27.
Our 35 cent tea for 33.

2 cents a pound off, not much to look at, but when we tell you that any of those teas are worth fully 5 cents a pound more, it makes a big difference. Try them and be convinced that we are telling the truth. Our groceries are always fresh. Nothing stale kept on the shelves.

HATS. HATS. HATS.

We have just opened 2 cases of imported hats. Newest styles in stiff and soft Felts, Fedoras, Straws etc.

Highest prices paid for Produce.

Mount Zion.

From our own Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. Watson, Sr., arrived home after a lengthy visit with their daughters in Deseronto.

Mr. John Kerr and family are moving here again, while Mr. Montgomery and family have gone back to Sunnidale.

Mrs. White has also returned home from Sunnidale, with her daughter, Mrs. J. Kerr.

Mr. R. J. White is at present very ill, but we hope soon to hear of his recovery.

Mr. Rehill has removed his family from here to Flesherton, while Mr. George Pedlar has taken his place.

Miss Esther McNally spent Easter holidays at home.

Miss Lizzie Henderson, of Owen Sound Collegiate Institute, spent Easter holidays with her parents here.

Walter Taylor, Robert White and Wm. Rehill have gone to the vicinity of Bolton for the summer.

Messrs. Thomas and Joseph Haney have leased the farm, lately vacated by Mr. Dean, and moved thereto, while Mr. Dean moved to Flesherton.

Mrs. Morton has returned after a lengthy visit with her daughter, Mrs. Orr, of Toronto.

Sugar-making is now almost over and soon the farmers will be busy seeding. They are now making preparations for starting.

Proton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

The bleating of the lamb, the cackling of the hen, and the summer girl are all pleasing reminders that Spring is in our midst again.

The whistling of the ploughboy, the singing of the milkmaid, are melodies that may be heard on a balmy evening on the farm. Who would not be a farmer? Sorry to report the death of Mrs. Geo. Stokes, after a short illness of a few weeks. We have not learned the nature of the complaint of deceased. She leaves a husband and little baby behind. Husband and friends have the sympathy of the Community in their bereavment.

The Presbyterian church of this place has again a minister to fill its pulpit—a Mr. Johnston by name. We trust the people will try to make his stay amongst them as pleasant as possible. Being a young man, of amiable disposition, we feel confident he will take well with the young people around here.

The party given by Mr. Lyons on the evening of Monday after Easter was the success of the season. So say some that were there. The tripping of the light fantastic lasted until the early dawn. Wes. says it is the best, had it not been for the fact that he had to act chaperon for his sister, also for another fellow's sister at the same time. But such things will happen in a fellow's life, Wes.

Some of the darling boys have departed from this place for the summer. Among these are John and Will White, for Muskoka; Thomas Lockhart, and James Shearson, for Woodbridge.

It is a wonder that pathmasters will allow roads to be blocked up to such a degree as they are around one of our country sawmills on the back line. Some one will yet have to foot a bill for breakage.

Mr. Abe Shearson, who has been visiting in the city, has returned with a sad expression, which says as plain as words, he left something behind him.

Mrs. William Ludlow is at present suffering with an attack of la grippe. We hope it will prove nothing serious.

Say, did you hear about the young man who was wending his way home from seeing his lady love, in a very doubtful state of mind, when all of a sudden he heard something go, check, check, check. Thinking it to be a rival pulling the trigger of a revolver, he thought he was a doomed man, and sailed off with the speed of an arrow, nor stopping until he reached his home, was it? No sir, but the home of his fair lady. By the description he gave of the noise he heard we believe it to be a little bird called the sap-sucker. There was a young girl in Proton, Who was hugged by a grizzly bear, Till he grew lean and sore, But she still cried for more, So he laid down and died in despair.

Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

Spring has put in an appearance at last, and is a very welcome guest.

According to previous arrangements Mr. Wm. Parker and Miss Ettie Young were made one on April 5th. We wish them every success.

Mr. Andrew Potts returned home last week looking well as usual.

Mrs. E. Lisle and boys spent a few days over at their farm last week.

Mr. Medler Guy gave us a call on Monday of last week.

Mr. Milton Brownridge, wife and family, moved to Paradise lately.

Mrs. Emerson spent a few days in Collingwood last week.

Miss Lottie Kerton came home from Flesherton lately.

Miss L. D. Sterling spent a few days in Toronto last week, buying her spring stock.

Mrs. Long gave a "taffy party" on Monday evening of last week. Nearly all the young people around were present and a pleasant time was spent.

Mr. Alex. McEachnie and family moved to town on Monday.

Mrs. Emerson and family intend moving to Chicago in a short time. We are very sorry to lose them as they have made many warm friends here. We sincerely hope that success may attend them wherever they go.

The home of Mr. Wm. Clinton was made bright lately by the advent of a daughter.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

Last Monday was fair day. Quite a number of cattle were disposed of at good prices.

Sugar season is over. Everyone reports a good "run".

Two of our public institutions were thoroughly inspected last week and found to be in satisfactory condition.

Mr. Johnston, Dundalk's energetic and pushing newspaper agent, paid our village a business visit lately. His genial and smiling countenance almost captivated some of our "fair sex". Wonder if he is a benedict?

Mr. C. Cuthbertson, of Durham, spent a day or two lately with Mr. Herb. Watson.

Miss Millie Ector, while on her way to Toronto Normal School made a brief call on her sister, Miss Sarah Ector, teacher of Jr. Dept. of P. S.

Miss Katie Campbell, of Swinton Park, (late of Winnipeg) is visiting friends in the village.

Mr. John McArthur is attending the annual meeting of the Grand Camp of the S. O. S., held in Guelph this week, as the Representative of Camp 87, "Scots Greys".

Miss Eva Booth, of Boothville, who was visiting at Mr. M. Reilly's, has returned home.

We are anxiously awaiting the result of the Dundalk elections. If some of those aspiring Beeves have any shekels to spare we could use a few handfuls of them in building 2 or 3 hundred rods of sidewalk.

Quite a heavy loss is felt by gardeners in this section in the destruction of fully half of the plum trees in the orchards of the town and country. This spring when parties commenced pruning, the death of the trees was first discovered, and is caused, it is supposed, by blight induced by the prolonged and intense heat of last summer. Wherever the trees were shaded from the sun, they are still alive.—Mt. Forest Rep.

Williams' Royal Crown Remedy, greatest cure on earth. Guaranteed to cure general nervous debility, rheumatism, neuralgia, paralysis, etc.
