Flesherton Station.

By Our Reporter.

Rev. Mr. Tonge led the services here last Sabbath and the congregation heard with regret the announcement that he would preach his farewell sermon to them next Sabbath, at 10.30.

The Burglars who created such an excitement around our peaceful burg a few weeks ago, have, it seems, bidden good by to this district and sought a more congenial clime. Their comrade who was captured near Chatsworth was sent up for trial a few days ago.

We are glad to report the recovery to health of Miss Mary McArthur after her very serious illness.

Mrs. Wm. Burnett, who has been on the sick list for the last few weeks, is also recovering.

Mr. Arthur Collins, of Toronto, is visiting Mr. A. Collins, of this place.

Mrs. Jas. Collins also spent a few days of last week with her brother here.

Mr. Osburne, formerly night-operator at this station, is spending his vacation with Mr. McGill.

Mrs. Jas. Shea and children left this place to visit her father at Lindsay.

Quite a few of our villagers attended the lecture given by Mr. Wells to the volunteers, last Sunday evening.

Three or four of our young men joined the ranks and took their departure with the troops from this station on Tuesday morning.

A very pleasant time was spent at a picnic given by the Patrons of Industry of this place last Friday afternoon. Amusements were provided for all, but the centre of attraction was the dance, a platform being erected for the enjoyment of the lovers of this pastime.

Feversham.

From an occasional Correspondent.

What has become of the 8th line or Feversham correspondent? Is he sick, or has he crawled in under his neighbor's peastack and died?

Our mill-dam is repaired again after the floods.

Dr. Thos. Henderson visited his sister, Mrs. J. Paul. He combined business with pleasure and extracted molars by the score.

Our burg can boast of an accomplished croquet club.

Miss Lizzie Julian was married last Wednesday to Mr. J. Ostrum, of Quebec. Rev. Fred. Woodger tied the knot. The happy couple left that evening for home. Miss Minnie Julian accompanied them as far as Toronto. All join in wishing the young couple as much happiness as can be crowded into a married life.

Seeding is now over and the farmers will have a rest till the haying.

From another Correspondent.

DEAR EDITOR:—Your readers will, I hope, receive my correspondence with sympathetic consideration, and give my brief, misconnected communications no more severe censure, than "that their author was either troubled with big head or else her confidential neighbor—over whose back fence so much gossip is spun—is off on her holidays, and that this is the way her bosom confidant is lightening her load of the newsy."

Well! We are all very thankful, I am sure, for the delightful freshening showers of last week. Now the expression is quite common, "One can almost hear the crops grow."

Feversham is becoming quite a centre of industry and though it doesn't offer bonuses and exemption from taxation, etc., like some of the cities and towns, yet it seems to be favored with new industries, while our older established ones are busily employed. We have now an extensive cheese factory, doing a large business, which is steadily increasing.

We are pleased to learn that Osprey and more especially Feversham again claims honors for one of her promising sons, viz.: Mr. John Parks. The genial Jack, at the recent examination of the Council of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, carried off four first-class honors out of a possible five, and so ranking second to one man only. This is a great honor for our clever friend, when he considers that not only students from his own college were competing, but the best men from four other colleges. May he continue to hold the same proud position among his fellow students.

Considerable excitement was caused last Saturday night when our crack football team journeyed over to Maxwell and succeeded in gaining a victory of two goals to one after some brilliant play.

The doctor who is taking Dr. Scott's place during his absence in Chicago has a very weighty appearance. He and the doctor himself would make a splendid team, "individually."

The District Orange lodge met in their hall here last Thursday, and among other business matters transacted, agreed to hold their next annual demonstration of the glorious 12th of July in Singhampton. I trust these few simple remarks will not stir up the dogs of war and strife.

Eugenia

From our own Correspondent.

The fine growing weather of the past two weeks is giving good prospects of a bountiful harvest. The hay crop is going to be a heavy one.

Mr. Joseph Fenwick had a fine frame barn raised on Saturday last. Mr. Whitten, of Flesherton, has the contract. I don't understand how Mr. Fenwick can remain much longer a bachelor, after the turnout of pretty girls that came to assist in serving at the bountiful supper prepared for all hands.

The Eugenia foot-ball team went to Markdale on Saturday afternoon to try a game with the Markdale boys. Eugenia won the game. The Markdale boys treated them like gentlemen, and they received the highest courtsey and good fellowship from all hands.

Miss Wells and Miss Ferguson, of Flesherton, were the guests of Mrs. Hogg, last week.

Mr. Albert Latimer, of Toronto, spent the past week with his parents at this place.

Several of our boys have gone to Niagara to serve their queen and country for a couple of weeks. We wish them a good time and safe return.

Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Hilt and Mrs. Russel, of Erin, were visiting at Mr. Walker's the past week.

Epping.

From our own Correspondent.

People have been very busy planting potatoes during the past week. Seed is rather scarce in this vicinity.

We are enjoying beautiful summer weather now. The merry hum of the mosquito is heard in the land.

A lady and two gentlemen from Meaford passed through here Saturday morning on bicycles on their way to Eugenia.

Mr. J. F. Eaton and wife visited the city last week, Mr. Eaton having been appointed lay-delegate to Toronto conference.

Miss Lizzie Johnston, of Meaford, visited with Miss McKnight last week.

A Westbrook Lady's Case.

WESTBROOK, ONT., June 12.—One of the most popular ladies of this district and one who has been for years as strong a worker in the church as her health would allow, has recently after six years of terrible suffering from kidney troubles, been cured by Dodd's kidney pills. Her case was one of the most pathetic in our knowledge; she had tried all remedies, had interviewed many famous specialists, and had tried treatment at Kingston Hospital, only to be discharged as incurable. She was quite hopeless, and resigned herself to a few more years of horrible suffering when by chance, she tried Dodd's kidney pills. See has taken in all six boxes and is now entirely cured and able to devote herself to her duties with youthful energy. No one could be more thankful and generous in praise than she. She has told every one for miles around of her release from a bondage of pain, and has said to your correspondent that the proprietors of the remedy do not advertise half enough. "It should be proclaimed from the housetops" she said. "I am positively convinced that it is a certain cure for all forms of kidney disease. No one can thank its discoverer more than I."

Now that the potato bug season is approaching, it may be interesting to growers of the mealy tuber, to note that the potato bug has a deadly enemy in a long black fly, with blue wings, that has recently made its appearance here. Mr. Thos. Lougheed of the 10th line, witnessed last week with his own eyes and a feeling of gratification, one of these little flies at its work of destruction. This fly killed exactly seventeen potato bugs in thirty seconds. If this wholesale slaughter keeps on, the potato bug will soon be something of the hazy past.—Thorburn Standard.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed at St. Columba's church, last Sunday.

Mr. Dan. McLeod, of the Fire Dep't., Toronto, is visiting friends around this burg at present.

Mr. W. Irwin, of Blyth, paid a visit to Mr. C. C. James last week. Mr. Alex. James returned with him to Blyth, to take a few holidays.

Mrs. W. J. Blakeston is spending a week or two at her parental mansion, Swinton Park. W. looks as lonely as an oyster now.
