Noxon Bros. repairs on hand at F. G. Karstedt's, Flesherton.

The East Grey Ag'l Society prize list has just been issued from this office and is now in the hands of the secretary, Mr. R. J. Sproule.

A number of Flesherton young people took in a garden party held at Proton Station on Friday evening last, and report having had a good time. Nearly fifty dollars was announced as the proceeds.

Osprey Council met at McIntyre on Monday and struck the rates for the current year. Six and two-tenth mills on the dollar will carry the township over the current year. This is the same rate as paid last year.

Mr. Geo. Smith, another of Flesherton's graduating young ministers, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sunday morning last. His discourse was an interesting one. Mr. Smith gives promise of good success in his work.

We have been instructed that Philip Kinghorn, who was committed by Magistrate Armstrong last week, was not a resident of Osprey township. He is a native of Artemesia but has been of late residing with a sister in Collingwood township. The family have property in Artemesia.

Insecticides—London purple, slug shot, Paris green. Fungicides—carbonate of copper, sulphide of potassium, and all others recommended by the experimental farm authorities, for sale by W. Richardson, Flesherton.

For a sluggish and torpid liver, nothing can surpass Ayer's Pills. They contain no calomel, nor any mineral drug, but are composed of the active principles of the best vegetable cathartics, and their use always results in marked benefit to the patient.

Malarial and other atmospheric influences are best counteracted by keeping the blood pure and vigorous with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A little caution in this respect may prevent illness at this season. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best year-round medicine in existence.

I. B. Lucas, barrister, Markdale has $10,000 private funds to lend on farm mortgages within the next few months at lowest current rates. No commissions, no delays, expenses low. Apply at office in Markdale during the week or at Dundalk office on Saturdays.

There was a wedding party in town on Saturday from Heathcote. The ceremony took place at the residence of Mrs. Kerr, and was performed by Rev. Jas. Madden. The names of the contracting parties were Mr. Andrew Dinsmore and Miss Polly Julian, who left for home shortly afterwards.

M. Richardson, Esq., who has just returned from the big Chicago fair, speaks very highly thereof. He found it to be on a much larger scale than he anticipated. Six days were spent in the exposition grounds, and even then the party had only time to examine a portion of the buildings. Mr. Richardson says that no engravings can begin to do the buildings justice, as it is the artistic grouping of the whole which gives to the "White City" its greatest beauty.

By Auction.
A valuable farm is offered for sale by public auction, on Tuesday, Sept. 5, at Feversham, at 1 p. m. being lot 20, con. 9, Osprey. The farm contains 100 acres, with 80 cleared. See bills. I. Perigo, auctioneer; Geo. Edwards, proprietor.

Park Lots for Sale.
Offers will be received for one, two, three, or four acres either separately or en bloc, of that part of Mill reserve No. 3, lying north of Beaver river, Eugenia, East of Alma, and south of street, beginning at east end. Apply to Wm. Purdy, Aspen, Col. U. S.

Story of a Ticket.

A good story has leaked out on one of our township councillors. When going to attend last session of County Council one of our delegates purchased a ticket at this station but forgot to put it in his pocket. Reeve Gamey, the veteran reeve of Osprey, who enjoys an innocent joke as well as the next man, pocketed the forgotten ticket. Boarding the train the party took their seats. Mr. Gamey got the conductor's car and informed him of the state of affairs, giving him at the same time Mr. Blank's ticket. When the conductor approached Mr. Blank the latter was busily employed emptying his pockets and examining the lining to try and discover the missing ticket. The conductor informed him that he would grant an extension of time while the search proceeded and went on through the car. Returning in due course he found Councillor Blank bathed in perspiration and with a long-suffering look on his face which denoted that the missing pasteboard had not turned up. Those who were in the secret spoke up and intimated that it would be a hardship to impose a second fare, as there had evidently been a mistake. Thereupon the conductor drew forth the return half of Mr. Blank's ticket, remarking that it would bring him home again. Blank then innocently preferred payment for his trip up evidently believing it a sort of compromise, when a burst of laughter opened his eyes to the facts and he joined in the smile against himself. It is safe to wager that Councillor Blank will pocket his tickets hereafter.

Serious Runaway

A team of colts, belonging to James Hill, ran away from the cheese factory yesterday morning, and created considerable excitement for a time. The empty milk cans were first taken promiscuously about, then the wagon was upset and dragged for a long distance, until it could hang together no longer, and spread itself over a distance of about a hundred yards. Mr. Andrew Carr was driving a reaper towards the village and the run-aways ran into him, the tongue striking Mr. Carr in the back just above the hips, knocking him off and seriously injuring him. The colts were stopped near the Presbyterian parsonage by running into a telegraph pole. Mr. Hill's wagon is practically a thing of the past. While the cans were not destroyed they got some pretty severe thumps as they flew hither and thither. Mr. Carr's reaper was also somewhat damaged.

The tramp and chatter of the boys and girls is once more heard in the land as they wend their way to school.

The Department of Agriculture, at the World's Fair have announced the decision in the Columbian cheese test. This test was one of the most complete, the most thorough that has ever been made. The Jerseys, Guernseys, and Shorthorns competed, each with 25 cows. The result is as follows; Milk in fifteen days by Jersey, 13,290 pounds; Guernsey, 10,938 pounds; Shorthorned, 12,186 pounds. Cheese made in fifteen days, Jersey, 1,451 pounds; Guernsey, 1,130 pounds; Shorthorned, 1,077 pounds; value of cheese, Jersey, $193.98; Guernsey, $135.92; Shorthorn, $140.14. The award for the best bred cow was given to the Jersey.

CLARKSBURG, ONT., Aug. 19.—Willie Rowsell, aged 14, son of the late George Rowsell, of Aurora, was drowned last evening at 5 o'clock while bathing with several other boys in Georgian bay, two miles east of Delphi. His body was recovered during the evening by Mr. Tyson and Mr. C. W. Hartman, of this place. The later is uncle of deceased, with whom he was spending his holidays.

A Wonderful Medicine.

Read the following interesting testimonies:

South American Nerve, the great cure for Nervousness, Nervous Prostration, Nervous Headache, Sick Headache, Nervous Paroxysms, Nervous Chills, Nervous Choking, Hot Flashes, Palpitation of the Heart, Sleeplessness, Nervousness of females of all ages, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Burning of the Stomach, Weight and Tenderness in the Stomach, Wind upon the Stomach, Catarrh of the Stomach, Frightful Dreams, Nightmare, Ringing in the ears, Vertigo and dizziness, Fainting, Impure and impoverished blood, Scrofulous Swellings, Consumption of the lungs, Female Weakness, General Debility, Broken Constitution, Chronic Diarrhoea, and Debility of old age, all these and many other complaints cured by this wonderful Nerve Tonic.

(Clipped from Advocate, Greenville, Ala., Feb. 2, 1893.)

For 27 years the ADVOCATE has published advertisements of various patent medicines, many of which were exceptionally good remedies for the diseases and ills for which they were recommended.

But we have not yet heard a good report of any as we have of the Great South American Nerve Tonic, a large advertisement of which we publish on our second page.

A lady subscriber in Louisville, Ky., wrote us some time ago asking to have Mr. Stewart, the druggist here, to send her a bottle for her husband. In a short time she wrote again ordering two more bottles and said it was doing her husband good. A few days since, meeting one of our principal merchants who had been in bad health many months, we asked him how he was getting on: He said he was getting better every day that he had found a patent medicine that he had taken several bottles of it and was going to continue it, for he says he would not take a thousand dollars for the good it has already done him.

Inquiring what kind of medicine it was, he told me it was the South American Nerve Tonic.

Hearing so much about this great remedy we interviewed Mr. Stewart, and he tells us that he can scarcely keep a supply on hand as it sells as fast as he can get it, and all those who use it speak in the highest praise of it. He says he has sent it to Advocate subscribers in Florida, Kentucky, North Albany, and other places.

This is no paid notice, we publish it simply as a tribute to a deserving remedy, and if it is doing good we are glad that it is in the reach of our sick and suffering people.
