The Store on the Hill?
B. G. Evans.

Flesherton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. Fawcett, of Kimberley, has been living in our town these last few weeks, engaged in moving buildings. He has very successfully moved Mr. Hannah's stable back about 70 ft. and is at present performing the same job for Mr. Egan.

Mrs. Granger, who has been visiting her father and other friends in this vicinity, leaves here Wednesday morning en route for her home in Philadelphia.

Mr. Alex. Webster, of Vancouver, paid a visit to his old home and friends in Priceville. He is returning to Vancouver a happy man, having, during his sojourn in these parts, secured for himself a partner in the person of Miss M. A. Cunningham, of Cookstown.

Another of those pleasant events took place in our village on Wednesday of last week. Mr. Jas. Dyce and Miss Louisa Yiris are the happy pair in this case. Rev. Mr. McLeod, of Priceville, performed the ceremony which made them man and wife. We wish them every happiness in their journey through life.

Miss Hemphill, of Toronto, spent a few days of the past week with Mrs. Egan.

Miss Annie Legate has been on the sick list for a few days. Glad to hear she is convalescing.

Miss McRae's daughter, Mrs. Kile, of Vaughan, who was reported seriously ill in last week's issue, has since that time passed away. She leaves a husband and six small children to mourn for her. Much sympathy is felt for the family.

Proton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

Here we are again, right side up with care. The farmers of this locality have harvesting well commenced. Prospects are not so good as was at first expected, owing to the rust in the oat crop, which seems to be prevalent over the most of the country. Farming seems to be a lost secret around here.

Mr. Thos. Lockhart, commonly known as Tom, who has just returned from a trip up the lakes, gives a very vivid account of the trip, his narrow escape with Italians, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hodgins, of Barrie, are at present visiting parents and friends here.

The entertainment of the 18th, was a decided success. There is always a certain amount of bother and expense in connection with a garden party of this kind which if the thing proves to be a success, is forgotten. The Dundalk band and choir gave some very choice music, also the speakers were of the first water, and last, but not least, was the foot-ball match between Swinton Park and Proton Puzzlers. The game, which was a close one, resulted in a victory for the Park boys. With the best players of three teams, it is no great credit to them to score one goal. Receipts of the evening amounted to $55.

Mr. Thomas Lyons has returned to his studies in Owen Sound.

Mr. Thos. Wauchob has returned from Bolton, hale and hearty.

Miss Williamson, of Hamilton, is visiting her brother, Mr. Geo. Williamson, C. P. R. master here.

Mr. Thomas F. Lockhart intends erecting a brick residence this fall. So much for getting married. But alas for the writer, the summer is past and I am still on the outside of the fence.

Meaford Road.

From our own Correspondent.

Another week of fine weather and harvest work will be about completed. There is a large crop of straw, but the grain is not so good, owing to rust and dry weather.

Mr. Jas. Summers has erected a fine new barn this summer.

Mr. W. Buchanan is building himself a new frame house.

School commenced again last week after the long vacation. Our teacher, Mr. Scott, is well liked.

Mr. W. Carson has treated himself to a new Massey-Harris binder.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

If the present fine weather continues, a number of farmers in this district will be through harvesting this week.

The trustees of our P. S. have purchased a handsome, revised and unabridged copy of Webster's International dictionary.

The many friends of Miss Tillie Best, a former teacher in our P. S., will be pleased to learn that she has secured a good situation as principal of Fesserton P. S., a beautiful little village on the shores of Matchedash Bay. Miss B. attended Toronto Normal the first term of this year.

Dr. Minnie Brander, of Toronto, is spending a few days at her parental mansion.

The Rev. Mr. Edmunds, of Fordwich, was the guest of Mr. Jas. Brander last week.

Misses Alice Ross and Fanny James returned to their duties last week as teachers at Stanton and Daybreak respectively.

Miss Gertie McLeod will attend Durham Model this fall, while Miss Grace Johnston will take a similar course of study in Owen Sound.

The genial editor of the Durham Chronicle, accompanied by a friend, took a run over to our burg last Saturday evening on their wheels. Livery horses are at a discount now.

Mr. William McLeod who was severely injured at his own raising some time ago had to undergo a serious operation last week. The operation was performed by Dr. Aikens, of Toronto, Dr. Jamieson, of Durham, and Dr. Hutton.

Mrs. Bolger and Miss M. Brown paid a brief visit to Flesherton Monday.

Mrs. Walker, of Toronto, is visiting with her parents at the post office.

Mr. Arthur Lemmon, of Toronto, was the guest of Mr. A. Brown last week.

Mr. Sidney Blakeston got a bad fall from his bike one day lately. He was riding down hill at a pretty fast rate, when the tire came off the front wheel, suddenly stopping the progress of the machine and throwing Sid clean over the handles. He lit on his head, which was severely cut. Dr. Hutton stitched up the wound.

Mr. Hector McDonald is laid up with congestion of the lungs. We trust he will soon be around again.

Feversham.

From our own Correspondent.

Harvesting is the order of the day. Crops in this part are above the average.

Mr. Will Hall, of Toronto, spent a few days in our burg visiting old friends.

The Misses Godfrey, of Meaford, visited Mrs. R. Paul last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Bruce spent Sunday at Rosemont visiting Rev. Mr. Hughes.

Mr. McGurn, of Scarboro, is the guest of Mr. Allister this week.

Miss Meldrum, of Eugenia, visited her brother, of Feversham, last week.

J. McLeod spent Sunday in Collingwood.

Our teacher has returned and brought a bike with him. He can now see the country without having to walk.

Miss Peavy, from the Soo, is visiting her parents on the townline.

We read your remarks re the roads of Artemesia. We had occasion to go to Flesherton last week, and after driving over some of your so-called gravel roads, we thought your remarks were none too severe—not enough that way.
