Thanksgiving Hymn.

Thou, Lord, art our life and the length of our days :
Our voices to Thee in thanksgiving we raise ;
Our shield and our buckler, our refuge and tower,
We trust in Thy faithfulness, mercy, and power.

We thank Thee, we praise Thee, for sunshine and rain,
For calm and for tempest, for pleasure and pain ;
Thy love and Thy wisdom our tongues shall employ,
In light and in darkness, in sorrow and joy.

The summer and autumn, the winter and spring,
To Thee shall their tribute of gratitude bring ;
The sea and its fullness, the earth and the air,
All tell of Thy goodness, Thy glory declare.

We thank Thee, we praise Thee, for beauty and youth,
For justice and freedom, for honor and truth ;
For the wealth of the ocean, the forest and field,
And all the rewards that our industries yield.

We thank Thee, we praise Thee, for plenty and peace,
For thy full-flowing bounty that never doth cease,
For the Church and the Sabbath, the Home and the School ;
For a land in which mercy and righteousness rule.

We thank Thee and praise Thee, our Father above,
For all the dear tokens of kindness and love
Thou sendest to greet us, as day follows day,
To lighten our burdens and gladden our way.

We thank Thee for life with its blessings so free,
And for the glad hope which we have, Lord, in Thee,
That Thou wilt receive us in peace to Thy rest,
To serve Thee on high with the saved and the blest.

Flesherton Station.

By Our Reporter.

Our station has again resumed its business garb. The grain market, although quite lively all fall, seems to have taken a fresh impetus with the sleighing.

Mr. T. Wright is busy this week pressing hay. He has shipped two car loads from here this past week.

There has also been a very large amount of stock shipped from this station during the last couple of months.

Mr. McDougal, of Orr Lake, has moved to our village, and intends opening up a temperance and boarding house. We wish him success.

James Willis, who has been driving stage for Mr. Geo. McFarlane, is now taking charge of Mr. Crossley's bus.

Miss McFail has returned from Owen Sound, after a pleasant visit with her sister.

Quite a number of our citizens have succumbed to the change from the beautiful fall weather.

Mrs. R. Cook has been very ill during the past week.

Mrs. A. McMullen is also suffering from a severe cold.

School was closed here last Monday in consequence of the illness of the teacher, Miss Johnston.

Mr. A. Hannah is also prostrated with illness, and under the care of Dr. Hutton.

Mrs. A. Webster, formerly of Priceville, died very suddenly in Vancouver a couple of weeks ago. She leaves a husband and quite a large family to mourn her loss.

Kimberley.

From our own Correspondent.

There was quite a fall of the beautiful on Sunday, and the music of sleigh bells is sounding on our ears as we are writing. Jas. Baskerville, of Flesherton, and Mr. Grant, of Mukdale, sewing machine agents, were in town on Friday.

Mrs. McTaggart, of Grand Blanc, Mich., is visiting her brother, Mr. Jas. Thurston. As Thursday is Thanksgiving day we were wondering if the business men of our village were going to follow the example of other towns by closing all places of business on that day.

We do not hear much about the municipal elections as yet.

Our two mills are kept very busy now, running almost night and day.

Mount Zion.

From our own Correspondent

Mrs. Willie Reed who has been very sick for some time past, is now we are pleased to say, recovering.

There will be a temperance meeting in the Orange Hall, 4th line, on Thursday evening of this week.

A free concert under the auspices of Warcham patron lodge, was given last Friday evening, when an enjoyable evening was spent by those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy and family, of Wareham, will start for the Santa Clara valley, California, on Friday of this week. Although they will be much missed and regretted by their numerous friends here, we wish them continued health and happiness in their new home. Mrs. Morton will accompany them as far as Toronto, where she will remain for a time.

Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Colquett, of Eversham, paid a visit here at their parental home, Mrs. Jas. Love's, while on their way back from the World's Fair and a trip into Michigan, whither they went to visit their sister. They report having had a very pleasant and entertaining time.

John Jamieson is at present very ill from the effects of a cold taken after the measles, but we trust soon to see him fully recovered.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

Another funeral took place last Saturday in the Priceville cemetery. This is the third mournful gathering at the city of the dead in a week. We are continually reminded of the evanescence of human life.

The Rev. Mr. Service, of Corbetton, preached a very effective missionary sermon last Sunday in the Methodist church. He made some startling statements. One of the most astonishing was that the amount of money contributed by England for mission purposes would only pay the drink bill of that country for seven days.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Wm. Watson, sr., is ill at present.

A number of hunters from O. S. struck our burg one day this week. They made rabbits scarce. The party was composed of the following gentlemen : Messrs. Evolie, Harrison, Masson, Hyde, Swan. A few of our local sports accompanied the visitors in their excursion to the swamps.

Mr. M. Reiley's mansion is approaching completion. It is a tasty structure and an ornament to the village. Mr. R. is also building a stable for the comfort of his bloods and Jersey during the coming winter.

For some time lately Mr. H. Tucker noticed that one of his horses was lame, and without any apparent cause. He called in veterinary surgeon McIntyre, who upon examining the animal found a piece of a fork prong over 2 in long firmly embedded in the flesh.

[The above items came too late for last week's issue. This week's budget is as follows. Ed.]

Castle Hill was in danger of being turned into a lead mine one day last week. The O. S. Nimrods purchased half a dozen ducks and placed them on the hills'ide for target practice. The amount of refined galena that was poured into that historical eminence beggars description. Judging from the rapidity of the discharges one would think the cent ro hamlet was engaged in a sham fight or chasing a mad dog. We might mention in passing that the ducks were seriously wounded, as was evident by the ruddy-battered appearance of the snow.

Messrs. Wm. Parker, J. D. Brown and Dave Brown arrived home last week from their hunting tour in the Brace peninsula. They brought four fine deer with them.

Messrs. John McDonald and Duncan McCrae have returned home from the old settlement, where they have put in the summer.

The pupils of the Presbyterian S. S. are preparing for their anniversary.

Mr. Walter Nichol returned home ill last week from Owen Sound, where he was attending the Coll. Inst.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Malcolm McKay is seriously ill at present.

A meeting of the Bible Society and Tract committee was held last Monday evening at the Depository. The collectors and tract distributors were appointed for each section.

We copied the following from the Vancouver Daily News:—

"On Friday morning, 10th inst., Mrs. Agnes Robertson Webster, wife of Mr. Alex. C. Weber, died suddenly at the family residence, 712 Richards street. The deceased lady went to bed in good health the night before, and as she was not in the habit of arising as early as the other members of the family, they did not think anything was amiss. On going to her room, however, they found that she was dead, heart failure being the cause."

The foregoing paragraph will be read with sorrow by many in this neighborhood, as the deceased was well known and highly esteemed in this vicinity, having resided in the village for a number of years. She was a sister of the late Robt. Robertson, who died some years ago at Flesherton Station. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community.

Last Thursday the remains of the late John Henry were brought home from Toronto, and entered in the R. C. cemetery in Glenelg, the following day. The deceased was a son of Mr. James Henry and a brother-in-law of Mr. Jus. McDonald of this village.

Eugenia.

From our own Correspondent.

After a long spell of fine weather, winter now seems to intend to change the programme, as we have had two good snow storms in less than one week. On Sunday night twelve inches of snow fell. Pretty good that for November.

Mr. Thompson Wilson and family have become residents of our town. We extend them a cordial welcome to our midst.

The Rev. Mr. Hudson, of Maxwell preached in the Orange Hall on Sabbath last, Mr. Wells being at Maxwell. Mr. Carr filled the pulpit in the Methodist church, Mr. Perry being at Flesherton.

The Rev. Mr. Rupert, of Flesherton, performed a very interesting ceremony at the residence of Mr. Robert Hawkins on Wednesday afternoon last, it being the marriage of Miss Susan Hawkins to Mr. Ephraim Doupe, of Loistige. A large number were present as the bride was one of our most highly esteemed young ladies. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a splendid supper to which they all did ample justice. The evening was spent in a jolly manner.
