The Best Medicine.

J. O. WILSON, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas, thus speaks of Ayer's Pills:

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever tried; and, in my judgment, no better general remedy could be devised. I have used them in my family and recommended them to my friends and employes for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge, many cases of the following complaints have been completely and by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colds. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above."

Permanently Cured

"I have been selling medicine for eight years, and I can safely say that Ayer's Pills give better satisfaction than any other Pill I ever sold."—J. J. Perry, Spottsylvania C. H., Va.

Every Dose Effective

Rob Roy.

From our own Correspondent.

It being a long time since we heard any news from our prosperous little town, and having a little peace and quietness, I thought I would give a few items, although news is scarce.

Since we last wrote we have had quite a number added to our population.

Mr. and Mrs. McBride and family and Miss Lucy Cameron, have returned home for Christmas holidays. The latter has been teaching school in the township of Mulmur for the past year. We are glad to have her back again.

Mr. Tommy Brown is home again after spending part of winter in the saw-mill down in the valley.

Grip seems to be catching most of the folks in our burg. Hope it will soon take its departure.

Patrons of Industry are still on the move to the front, yet look out for our concert, as it is going to be something unequalled.

This school session held their annual meeting on the 27th of Dec. Found everything in good standing. The old trustee, Mr. George Bristol, was re-elected. Malcolm Fletcher got the contract for wood, and Wm. Mullin the contract for cedar.

Mount Zion.

From our own Correspondent

Quite a number of the people here have been suffering from a cold lately.

Miss Tillie Taylor, of Toronto, spent Xmas and New Years with friends here.

Miss Maggie McMurray, late of Winnipeg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Connell, Jr.

A wedding party from Sunnidale spent Sunday here. The bride was formerly Miss Francis Gallop of this place. We wish her every happiness.

As this is New Year's day and we have voting in the school here, there is an unusual stir and we will forecast a large majority for the plebsicite.

Old Mr. Kittle has been growing feebler during the winter, and just now he is somewhat worse, owing to a cold.

Mr. Jas. Little, an old gentleman 80 years of age, who has been ailing for some time, is failing and has been confined to bed for the past week. Not much hope is entertained for his ultimate recovery.

Special Correspondence.

Mrs. G. Warding is on the mend. School closed with a public examination.

Master Rob Pritchard was home for a share of the Xmas turkey.

The P. of L. are going to have a public entertainment on the 19th inst.

Freeville.

From our own Correspondent.

Excitement was at a discount around the polling place in this village last Monday. Voters came, marked their ballot and went away again without much discussion.

The Rev. Mr. Husband, of Holland Centre, came here to cast his vote in favor of Prohibition.

Mr. Thos. Conkey held a shooting match on New Year's day. A number of geese were disposed of.

New Year's night was celebrated on the South Line by a monster gathering at the residence of Mr. Alex. McMillan's. The young people enjoyed themselves till the "we sma' bours" tripping the fantastic.

The Rev. Mr. Ottowell, of Belvoe, will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist church next Sunday morning.

Miss Fanny Watson, of Georgetown, is spending her holidays with friends in this village.

Miss Mary McAulay left last week for Chicago. We wish her a pleasant time in the Windy City.

County and District

Streetsville postoffice was entered by burglars a week ago and $25 taken.

A man said sifted dirt to the Newmarket people for stove polish and is now taking a three month's vacation in jail as a reward for so doing.

In the family to which Police Magistrate George Spencer, of Owen Sound, belongs, there has not been a death since 1848, a period of over 45 years. The family consists of seven brothers and two sisters, of whom the youngest is now 48 years of age.

The Toronto Empire says: "That was a thrifty farmer in Simcoe county, who, having had several sheep killed by his own dogs, sent in a bill to the Township council demanding payment for his loss. When the farmer sits down to ruminate upon his troubles he usually rises with the determination to get even somehow."

A press despatch from Marshall, Mich., says:—"After being out an hour and a half the jury in the trial of Conductor Scott, on the charge of manslaughter in being responsible for the collision on the Grand Trunk at Battle Creek on October 20th, by which 25 lives were lost, last evening brought in a verdict of not guilty. The verdict is generally believed to be a just one."

Miss McRobbie, of Shelburne, plucked a bouquet of daisies in the garden at the Manse on Christmas Day. How is that after three feet of snow? Miss Rands plucked a handful of pansies the same day that were left fresh and beautiful after a big drift of snow which covered them had melted away.—Shelburne Free Press.

A newspaper has 5000 readers for each 1000 subscribers. A merchant who puts out 1000 handbills gets possibly 300 or 400 people to read them—that is if the boy who is trusted to distribute them does not chuck them under the sidewalk. The handbills cost as much as a half column advertisement in the home paper. All the women and girls and half the men and boys read the advertisement. Result: The merchant who uses the newspaper does the trade.

In the month of November last Mr. John Lemtke, of Bentuck, while driving a rig over a bridge without railing in the above township ran over the side of the bridge, damaging his rig and sustaining severe injuries himself. He asked the township to pay $265 for the damage sustained, but this the council would not agree to, with the result that the case will be carried into court. The township is good for lots of money, and is likely to lose the case.—Chesley Enterprise.

The misspelling of a name is about to save the neck of a convicted wife murderer. Charles Heron, a young man who killed his wife three weeks ago, was indicted as Charles Hering for the murder of Lulu Herring. On the trial the prisoner's counsel moved for the correction of his name to Heron, no notice being paid to that of his victim. It developed on the trial that the defence was in the misnomer and that the State counsel had been cleverly trapped. The last term of the Supreme Court gave a murderer his freedom because of the misspelling of the name of his victim.
