Hypnotism in Disease

The chief arguments used against the employment of hypnotism in disease are, first, that it subordinates and enervates the will; second, that it renders the person liable to be influenced by persons of evil intent; and, third, that only nervous or hysterical persons are subject to its influence.

Summing up, I would say that hypnotism, as with every other new remedy, there is a great danger that, on the one hand, it may be used indiscriminately, or, on the other hand, be scouted by a senseless skepticism.

Her Kidneys the Cause.

FOR SEVENTEEN YEARS MRS. REANY WAS TREATED FOR LUNG, LIVER, STOMACH AND FEMALE TROUBLE, WITHOUT BENEFIT.—DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED HER IN SEVENTEEN DAYS.

SHELburne, Jan. 1st, 1894.—Mrs. Geo. Reany, of 2111 East Third St., Ashland, Wis., writes an interesting story to the Free Press. She says she has been sick for seventeen years; that the physicians she consulted in different places in the United States and Canada ascribed her illness to the lungs, heart, liver, stomach or female diseases, but none ever suggested the kidneys.

Mr. S. W. Cross has sold the Wiarion Echo to Mr. J. McK. Anderson.

"Only the Scars Remain,"

Says HENRY HUDSON, of the James Smith Woolen Machinery Co., Philadelphia, Pa., who certifies as follows:

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, cleansing the blood, etc., none impress me more than my own case. Twenty years ago, at the age of 18 years, I had swellings come on my legs, which broke and became running sores. Our family physician could do me no good, and it was feared that the bones would be affected. At last, my good old Mother Urged Me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles, the sores healed, and I have not been troubled since. Only the scars remain, and the memory of the past, to remind me of the good Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me. I now weigh two hundred and twenty pounds, and am in the best of health. I have been on the road for the past twelve years, have noticed Ayer's Sarsaparilla advertised in all parts of the United States, and always take pleasure in telling what good it did for me."

On Jan. 1 Huron County voted on the question of establishing a House of Refuge. There was a majority of 500 in favor of the by-law. Last year the by-law was defeated by a substantial majority.

Mr. W. L. Smith's wonderful horse died a week ago at the remarkable age of 39 years. It was one of the best pieces of horseflesh known in these parts, being perfectly sound and free from blemishes.

On Tuesday a little boy about three years old, son of C. T. Bellerby, of the townline of Mulmer and Melancthon, was playing with a cedar stick about six inches long and half an inch in diameter.

The Orillia Packett says: A remarkable sight is to be seen about two miles past Brechin. A piece of loamy or marshy land about five acres in extent and covered with second poplar, caught fire last autumn. It still burns and up through the snow, like jets bursting from the lava beds near the crater of a volcano, come little puffs of steam and smoke.

Daniel Ritz, Proprietor and Publisher of the Hamburg, Ont., Independent says: "I was suffering from Dyspepsia and Liver Trouble, I took a few bottles of Shiloh's Vitalizer and it cured me. I can heartily recommend it."

Mr. James Moore, son of Mr. Geo. Moore of Oprey Town Line, began the New Year very unfortunately. On New Year's Day he was bringing a load of saw logs down the 8th Con. and walking alongside the load.

The grading on the Park Head Branch from Shallow Lake in is now completed to about the top of the hill at Munro's, which is four miles from the station site at Owen Sound. The work of grading has not been much interrupted by the weather so far, and Mr. Robinson will have a staff of men at work at the rock cuttings all winter.

Some people are very amusing and very small-minded. They think they can "get even" with the newspaper by refusing to take it—which means a difference of $1 per year in the finances of the publisher.

Every community has a few of these "stop-my-paper" gentry. They are too small to be pound-keeper in a swamp town. In this connection a good story is told of Horace Greely, the great American philanthropist and editor. Some of his subscribers didn't like the things he had been saying in the columns of the New York Tribune, and one day this item appeared: "We have received the following letter from an irate subscriber: 'Stop my paper. By g-d, I want to have it in my house.' This gentleman's paper has been stopped. Argument would be useless with a man who spalls 'God' with a little 'g' and himself with a big 'L.'"
