Mrs. J. H. HORSNYDER, 152 Pacific Ave., Santa Cruz, Cal., writes:

"When a girl at school, in Reading, Ohio, I had a severe attack of brain fever. On my recovery, I found myself perfectly bald, and, for a long time, I feared I should be permanently so. Friends urged me to use Ayer's Hair Vigor, and, on doing so, my hair and I now have as fine a head of hair as one could wish for, being changed, however, from blonde to dark brown."

Began to Grow,

"After a fit of sickness, my hair came out in combfalls. I used two bottles of and now my hair is over a yard long and very full and heavy. I have recommended this preparation to others with like good effect."—Mrs. Sidney Carr, 1460 Regina st., Harrisburg, Pa.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for several years and always obtained satisfactory results. I know it is the best preparation for the hair that is made."—C. T. Arnett, Mammoth Spring, Ark.

Mrs. Beharal, of Toronto, is the guest of Mrs. Beurose.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

The bills issued by the Advance for the Priceville S. S. teaming are the tastiest and most attractive of any we have ever seen. The Committee are exceedingly well pleased with them. They are a credit to the editor and staff.

Last week a sufficient space on the mill pond was cleared for curling, and a number of our citizens spent a few pleasant hours at the "roarin' game."

All the sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, O. D. R., are at present visiting at the old homestead. This is the first time they have all been home together for a number of years. The following reunion, viz. Mr. Wm. Henderson, of New York state; Mr. David Henderson and wife from Calgary, N. W.; Mrs. Arnold, of Mount Albert, and Mrs. Moore, of Inistioque.

Miss Elsie Kennel, of Dundalk, is spending a few days with friends in this village.

Mr. Innis, of Markdale, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church last Sunday. He preached a very earnest sermon. We are glad to state that the Rev. Mr. Hartley, who has been seriously ill, is now on a fair way to recovery.

Mr. Richard Watters left for the O. S. Cell last Monday. We wish him success.

Born—On Friday Jan. 12, the wife of Mr. Neil McKinnon of a son.

The King of Terrors has been busy of late in this vicinity. This week we have to chronicle the death of Miss M. A. Kennedy which occurred on Friday Jan. 12th.

after a long and painful illness of a cancerous nature. The funeral took place on Sunday and was largely attended by sympathetic friends and neighbors. This is the fourth death inside of three weeks in this community. Truly we are evanescent creatures as far as this world is concerned.

Mount Zion.

From our own Correspondent.

That grim monster, death, who is no respecter of persons, has paid Mount Zion a double visit during the past week, taking away two of our oldest inhabitants. The first was that of Mr. James Little, sr., who died on Jan. 10th, at the age of 80 years. The remains were interred here on Thursday, Rev. Mr. Jones officiating. Deceased leaves behind a family of four daughters and one son.

Mr. Francis Thompson, sr., at the ripe age of 87 years, departed this life on Jan. 11th. The remains were interred in the English church burying ground at Maxwell on Friday by the Rev. Jones. Mr. Thompson leaves behind him his wife, two daughters and five sons to mourn his loss. Mrs. Thompson is at present very low, little hopes being entertained of her ultimate recovery.

Miss Tillie Ross and Miss Bans, from Shelburne, have been paying a visit to friends here.

Miss Mary Morton has gone on a lengthy visit to friends in Toronto.

Mrs. Morton has returned home.

Mr. James Johnston, of the third line, is lying at present in a very serious condition and little hopes are held out for his ultimate recovery.

Miss Tillie Taylor is also very sick. She returned from Toronto last week and has been laid up with a relapse of La Grippe.

Feversham.

From our own Correspondent.

The village people were surprised and pained to hear of the death of Mrs. W. Duncan, which occurred on Friday morning last, after a few days illness. Inflammation was the trouble, and despite the skill of Drs. Scott and Sproule, death came. The remains were interred in Feversham cemetery on Saturday. The funeral was very largely attended. Deceased was the eldest daughter of Mr. E. Hanley. She leaves one little girl of three years. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved husband and little girl in their sad affliction.

Miss M. A. Neil is visiting friends in Feversham.

Mr. J. McLeod spent Sunday in Feversham.

There is a big fellow up the eighth who comes to town more than some people think he should, and some think of doing with him as the little boys do with a stray cat, namely, tie a tin pan to him and send him home.

Rob Roy.

From our own Correspondent.

Our school teacher, Mr. C. Cameron, has re-opened the school in his third year in this section.

We are sorry to relate the death of Mrs. Thos. Beckerton, who died after a short attack of grippe. Deceased was 84 years of age, she was buried beside her husband, who was buried but two weeks before her. They were old pioneers of Osprey. The remains were interred in Zion church yard. The friends have the sympathy of all who know them in their sorrowing hours.

Mr. Thos. Peavey has moved up from Orangeville and brought with him what every man should have, a dear wife. Congratulations, Tom.

Mr. George Freethy and John Bannerman got their clover thrashed last week.

The Patrons are doing good business here in a good many ways. The boys in our town take the gingers off when they go out driving. Look out, you west fellows.

Mr. George B. Bristow says he has the best steer in the country.

Mrs. J. Holden was visiting her friend in this part last week.

Flesherton Station.

From our own Correspondent.
