Carriages and Wagons.

GENTLEMEN :

I DESIRE TO ANNOUNCE that I have taken over the Carriage and Wagon making business lately carried on by Mr. Moore, and am now prepared to fill all orders in my line to your entire satisfaction. Having lately added to my sixteen years' experience in the business a nine months' training in one of the best carriage shops in the city of Detroit, where I succeeded in carrying off a first class recommendation, ought to be a sufficient guarantee that all work will be done in a first class manner. I manufacture Wagons, Buggies, Cutters, Sleighs; in fact everything in the carriage line. Wood and lumber taken in exchange. Kindly give me a call.

Maxwell

From our own Correspondent.

We believe spring has actually come. Some around here have done a little plowing.

The closing concert of the "Literary Society" was a grand success. Although the admission fee was a very small yet nearly $25 was realized, and this leaves a balance on hand (after all expenses) of $36. Those who have so ably assisted to make the Lit. a success deserve much credit.

Mr. Wm. Fahey has gone to work with Mr. Medler Guy.

The members of the Lit. have agreed to use the funds in building more sidewalk. This we believe to be a wise idea.

A number from here were in Owen Sound this week on the Stock's case.

Mrs. E. Linley is rustivating at present.

A surprise party, or at least Mr. Robt. Morrison was surprised by a party gathering at his house, on Tuesday evening. Everyone had a good time. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison are a good natured couple and we are pleased they have come to live here.

Epping.

From our own correspondent.

I am afraid Mr. Editor that you will be seriously considering the advisability of getting a new correspondent at Epping if we are not more punctual.

Constable Eagle and Blakely of 11th line passed through this place Saturday in pursuit of one Edwards, an English orphan, who had been living with Mr. Blakely and in absence of the family decamped with a watch, some money and other valuables. We have not heard if they got their man.

Mr. Wm. Guy, while hauling logs in his bush last week, met with an accident which might have proved very serious. A log rolled on him, pinning both feet to the ground. As he was alone he was obliged to extricate himself by digging the earth away with his hands. He had two pretty sore ankles, but is getting around again.

Preceville.

From our own Correspondent.

"The miller and his men fill all the bags they bring, and while they go about their work right merrily they sing." So says the poet, but our millers have been taxed to their utmost "to fill all the bags they bring," as there has been a tremendous rush of customers lately, especially during the few days of good sleighing. As for "singing," well, it is not likely the two Mrs. had much time for exercising their vocal chords.

Orange Blossoms—A happy event took place on Wednesday the 21st ult. in St. Columba's church, being the marriage of Mr. James Cameron's youngest daughter, Maggie, to Mr. John McInnis, of Glenelg. The nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. D. McLeod, B. A., in the presence of a large audience. Their friends unite in extending congratulations and wish them a pleasant voyage through life.

Eugenia.

From our own correspondent.

Some of our citizens are beginning to talk fish and yearn for a feast of the Beaver trout.

The Salvation Army still hold out at Salem and the corps is daily increasing, the membership now being in the region of thirty, and composed of young, old and adults. The meetings draw better than an entertainment as young and old wend their way for miles, prompted by various motives. The building is scarcely spacious enough to accommodate the large crowd that usually congregates. Messrs. Green and Pedlar are very energetic captains and seem to enter into their work with commendable fervor. The younger converts have no hesitation in testifying to their newly found virtues, all vowing in a disposition to persevere.

Some talented lady singers from the corps from Collingwood will entertain the patrons in Salem church on Monday the 16th inst. Admission 10 cents.

The Burk Falls Arrow contains a very respectful obituary of the death of Mr. Henry Lane who was a resident of Armour Tps. for 13 years but formally of this place. The death was a sudden one to his family who have the heartfelt sympathy of friends here as well as in their new abode. On Friday, the 18th inst. while working in the bush, Mr. Lane took a paralytic stroke which quite prostrated him. It is supposed that in removing him to the house which was attended with some difficulty, he caught a chill, thus hastening his death, which took place a few hours afterward. His remains were interred in the Chatwind cemetery. The deceased was formerly a miller in Eugenia, and during his sojourn here was respected by all who knew him.

The charge of larceny brought by Rogers against Lewellyn "the good" was not proven.
